Tomorrow is the day to vote, and on the result depends the future of the Salt Lake City schools. The teach-ing of children is either to remain as it is at incoment from from the feature is at present, free from graft, free from machine influences, and free from the vultures of the "American" party leadership, or it is to be thrown over to the mercy of a party that knows no princi-ples save the just for office, and the control of public cash.

FIGHT FOR PRINCIPLES.

FIGHT FOR PRINCIPLES. The fight is not between candidates so much as it is between principles of school management. The non-partisan ticket returns to office men who are now there, for the most part, and gives them no new obligations to disturb ex-

how there, for the most part, and gives them no new obligations to disturb ex-isting excellent conditions. The "American" party ticket would place in office men with obligations such as few good citizens would tolerate, once they got full action on the schools. These obligations, working out in the city administration, forced open Sunday saloons in return for solicited contribu-tions. They placed the police depart-ment as a cog in the Kearns machine to the extent of sending officers out in bunches to herd in disreputable women voters, and of discharging all not reput-ed to be in voting accord with the ad-mfnistration. In the detective force they purned "Detective Lalley" loose in Plum Allen to prey on the orientals, and gave the town the McWhirter bunct game as the culmination of a series of police-protected robberies. He is a Dartmouth college graduate and served for several years raduate and served for several years as Washington correspondent for Bos-ton papers, and as an editorial writer for New York papers.

Musical Trip Ended-Mrs. G. F. Putnam, Miss Esther Allen and Miss Edina Dwyer returned to this city from their Ely, Nev., musical trip, Sunday moraling, with an experience. Owing to failure of trains to connect, had to remain in Ogden until in the morning, instead of reaching home on the previous even-ing. They were shadowed by a sus-pictous looking man at the Ogden de-pot, and followed by him to Salt Lake, and up North Temple to Miss The trio took refuge Dwyer's home buyer's international Miss Allen re-maining until after daylight to es-cape the hold-up which they felt confident was awaiting them. The man seeing his game had escaped him, went away. The party had good audi-ences at the great mining camp, but the expenses were so heavy. that the were largely in the nature of profite experience.

HOW DIPHTHERIA IS CONTRACT.

ED. One often hears the expression. "My child caught a severe cold which devel-opend into diphtheria." when the truth was that the cold had simply left the lit-tle one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Cham-berialn's Cough Remedy is given it quick-ly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria et any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all drug-gists. ED. gists.

FORTUNATE SALT LAKE.

Manager Richardson of Portland Commercial Club Commends Enterprise,

Manager Tom Richardson of Port-land's Commercial club arrived last vening, in this city. He commends lighly the enterprise shown by Samlighty uel Newhouse, and on the disposition being shown by moneyed men to spend their wealth at home. He says Salt Lake is fortunate in having so much of its realty pass into the hands of a man like Mr. Newhouse. He will double the value of every piece of ground for blocks around in a few years' time.
