NUMBER 105.

INSURGENTS ARE BEATEN.

Fierce Fighting Has Been Going on Near Manila for Twenty-four Hours.

THE BATTLE IS STILL RAGING.

Rebels Driven From Their First Positions Into Others at the Back—Americans Advance Fighting—Losses Heavy—Position of Utah Artillery.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.
Washington, March 25.—A special Manila cable says the American advance began at 10 o'clock this morning. The movement was brilliantly executed, but at a heavy cost to the Americans. The object was to flank the enemy's stronghold at Polo, which is to the north, beyond Malabon and Calumpit.

The advance of the brigades of General Otis and Hale was supported by full battery of Utah artillery, and two guns of the Sixth San Francisco battery. Detachments were the first to capture the town.

This was taken by General Hale's men. Hale's men, after a short fight, followed and fell in quick succession. General Hale's men were soon engaged in the enemy on the extreme right.

Gen. Wheeler's brigade advanced. His troops met with a desperate resistance, but carried them off in quick succession, which resulted in the river, after brilliant fighting. Wheeler was opposed by 100 rebels, protected by trenches. Nothing, however, could deter the Americans, and they swept the Filipinos before them.

The Oregon volunteers and Third artillery equipped as infantry suffered the heaviest losses.

Our wounded, who were number nearly 200, are being brought into Manila and Calumpit by train. Chinese coolies were employed as litter bearers.

The battle of Polo is the fiercest of the war.

The fighting was terrible. The insurgents rallied on our right and strongly opposed General Otis and Hale's passage of the river. The Filipinos were accomplished finally, but not without severe loss to our troops.

The desperate fighting is indicated by the fact that one man was killed and six were wounded in action on the right of the Manila river. The Filipinos have been found on the ground covered by our right.

No casualty list received at the war department yet.

THE AMERICAN ADVANCE.
Washington, March 25.—Admiral Dewey's report states that a heavy engagement was in progress between the American and the insurgent forces north of Manila when the dispatch was sent. Twelve thousand insurgents are now in the line.

THE AMERICAN ADVANCE.
Manila, March 25, U.S.P.—The Philippine preparations were made for the movement. General Wheeler's brigade was placed in the rear and Gen. Harrison, Gray, Otis and Gen. Hale's command followed. The day after the capture of Calumpit, Gen. Otis and Gen. Hale's brigades left their trenches and advanced close upon the enemy's line without halt. Gen. Otis and Gen. Hale's brigades, supported by the Utah artillery, moved straight through the rebel lines cutting the enemy's force in two.

Utis' line advanced the rebels adopted the American tactics of holding their fire until the attackers were about 100 yards distant. The rebels also fired long and short.

AMERICANS SWEEP EVERYTHING.
The Americans held victory with their effect and they rushed forward shooting and capturing everything before them.

Once through Gen. Wheeler's division was sweeping through the line, driving the rebels away on all sides.

The American troops, with their machine guns, were in the trenches, ready to jump in the moment of need. The rebels were driven back and the river taken.

POSITION OF UTAH ARTILLERY.
At 5:30 p.m. in the afternoon the Philippine regiment and the Third artillery were ordered to move forward, moving in a northwesterly direction towards Polo and General Wheeler with the remainder of the army.

General Hale's brigades were moving along north of the river in a position to attack either Calumpit or Polo. The Utah artillery was ordered to move forward, moving in a northwesterly direction towards Polo and General Wheeler with the remainder of the army.

CAMBRIDGE WINS THE RACE.

Finished Strong, Coming in Four Lengths Ahead.

FIRST TIME IN TEN YEARS.

Atsuda Were Given Only Once, and Went to Close Near the Finish.

Putney, Mass., March 25.—The fifty-third annual boat race between Cambridge and Putney, Mass., was held today on the Charles River. The race was won by Cambridge, which finished four lengths ahead of Putney. This was the first time in ten years that Cambridge has won the race.

The race was given only once, and went to close near the finish. The Cambridge crew, consisting of eight men, was led by their coxswain, who was a member of the Cambridge crew in 1888. The Putney crew, consisting of eight men, was led by their coxswain, who was a member of the Putney crew in 1888.

The race was a very close one, with Cambridge leading by only a few lengths at the start. However, Cambridge's crew was more experienced and they were able to maintain their lead throughout the race. The Putney crew was very strong, but they were unable to catch up to Cambridge.

The race was a very interesting one, and it was well attended by a large number of spectators. The Cambridge crew was very proud of their victory, and they were well rewarded by the large number of spectators who cheered them on.
