

BINGHAM FIGHT ENDED FATALLY

Another Case in Which Mere Spectator Was the Victim.

FRANK ZISCO DEAD AT MURRAY

Eye Gouged Out and Skull Crushed
By a Rock—Suspected Men in The County Jail.

As a result of a free-for-all fight in front of a saloon at Bingham Junction on Saturday, Frank Zisco, merely a spectator in the affair, lies dead at the Murray hospital and Stephen Luckie, a bartender, is under arrest, charged with having killed Zisco, and another man by the name of Peter Krouwer is also in the county jail, where he is being held as a witness in the case. Zisco's left eye was gouged out and the left side of his skull crushed by a rock thrown with terrific force by Luckie and intended for another man with whom he was quarreling.

According to the facts ascertained by Sheriff Emery and Deputy Burdick and Bookstader, the fight started in the saloon between Luckie and another man over a $10 gambling debt and the two went out into the street to settle their difficulties. Zisco was in his room at the hotel across the street and saw the fight from his window, but he decided to go over and see it at close range. As he was standing on the outskirts of the crowd which had gathered the rock hurled by Luckie struck him in the head and inflicted the injuries mentioned above, from which the unfortunate man died yesterday. Zisco was taken to the Murray hospital as soon as possible, where medical assistance was rendered, but to no effect, as his wound was too serious to be overcome and he died last night at 3:10 o'clock.

SUSPECTS IN JAIL.

Deputy Sheriff Bookstader was notified of the affair and at once arrested Luckie and Krouwer. The latter also had a large bump on his head showing that he had taken an active part in the fight. Sheriff Emery was notified and went to Bingham Junction Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Burdick. They brought the two prisoners to the county jail. Deputy Sheriff Bookstader of Bingham Junction and Deputy Coats of Bingham canyon have been scouring the country in that vicinity looking for other men who participated in the fight.

Zisco was engaged as a boilermaker at the United States smelter, and had a good reputation among his fellow employees. He has a wife and four children in Budapest, Hungary. He was 42 years of age.

County Physician Whitney will this afternoon perform an autopsy upon the remains of Zisco. Asst. County Atty. Hanson will probably issue a complaint against Luckie this afternoon, charging him with murder.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.

In case of Eglund vs. Spencer by Instruction of Court.

In the case of Jens P. C. Eglund against George S. Spencer, the jury today returned a verdict for defendant as instructed by Judge Ritchie. The action was brought to recover $28.50 alleged to be due plaintiff's son who was employed by defendant as a shepherd in Wyoming. It was alleged by plaintiff that defendant had entered into an agreement with him whereby plaintiff's son was to be employed for a specified time at a salary of $20 per month and defendant was to pay his transportation to and from Wyoming. Defendant discharged the boy before the time mentioned in the contract expired and refused to pay him or to pay for his transportation. After the evidence was introduced in the case, Judge Ritchie, upon motion of defendant's attorney, instructed the jury to return a verdict for defendant.

JUDGMENT IS AFFIRMED

In Case of Suit Brought to Foreclose A Mortgage.

In an opinion written by Justice Stearn and concurred in by Chief Justice McCarthy and Justice Frick, the supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the case of Edwin R. Graves against the Utah American Savings, Loan & Building company, appellant, vs. Flora I. and Henry P. Seifried, N. Ives S. L. Ives and Mary B. Crossley, defendants. The suit was brought in the Second district court to foreclose a mortgage executed by the Seifrieds upon certain real estate in which the other persons named as defendants subsequently became interested. The evidence in the lower court showed that the plaintiff company became insolvent on Jan. 8, 1898, and Graves was assigned the mortgage at that time but the suit to foreclose the mortgage was not instituted until April, 1904.

The lower court held that the mortgage became due when Graves was appointed receiver of the company and that suit should have been instituted within six years from that date. As it was not filed until more than six years afterwards the court held that the action was barred by the statute of limitations and hence rendered a decree in favor of defendant. The supreme court upholds the lower court in its decision and affirms the judgment with costs taxed against appellant.

SUPREME COURT OPINION.

In Judgment of the Lower Tribunal is Affirmed.

The supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of Lee Richards vs. Marion Beus, appellant. The action was brought in the Second district court to quiet title to a right of way over defendant's land for a pipe line and the lower court rendered a decree in favor of respondent quieting his title to the right-of-way and setting aside an injunction previously secured by Beus against Richards.

This judgment is now affirmed by the supreme court in an opinion written by Chief Justice McCarthy and Justice Stearn.

INTERVENTION COMPLAINT

Filed in District Court in Implement Company Receivership Case.

A complaint in intervention has been filed in the district court in the receivership case brought by John Sharp and other stockholders against the Utah Implement company, M. B. Whitney, H. S. Hutchins and G. M. Forbes and other intervenors. The complaint is a receiver for the company. The intervenors are the Mitchell & Lewis company of Illinois, and the International Harvester company of America, both of which are heavy creditors of the implement company. The first named company is a creditor of the implement company in the sum of $21,000, and the other company is a creditor in the sum of $43,000.

Their complaint in intervention alleges that the implement company is not solvent, and that its business has not been managed by Mr. Whitney. It contends that there is no need of the extra expense of the appointment of a receiver, and that the plaintiffs in the action are not entitled to the relief sought. The appointment of a receiver, it is alleged, would result in injury to the credit of the implement company.

A solution of the trouble is suggested by the intervenors who recommend that John G. Critchlow be appointed manager of the company for a period of one year, during which time it is thought that the affairs of the company can be put in good condition. This action was filed upon a meeting between representatives of Mitchell & Co., the Deseret Savings bank, Mitchell & Lewis company, and the International Harvester company, all of whom are creditors of the implement company. It was recommended that the salary of Mr. Critchlow be fixed at $250 per month. Mr. Critchlow will be assisted by Mr. Whitney and an advisory board composed of representatives of the Salt Lake banks, the intervenors and a third member selected by the two thus appointed. The matter will be considered by Judge Morse on Wednesday morning, when the order to show cause will be heard.

COURT NOTES.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Mina McKinley against the Utah Light & Railway company to recover damages in the sum of $12,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been received by plaintiff while attempting to alight from a Second South street car at the Rio Grande depot. The accident occurred on Aug. 6, 1906, and it is alleged that the car had stopped at the depot but when plaintiff started to get off it was suddenly started and threw her to the ground, breaking her arm and giving her severe nervous shocks. She claims that her arm is permanently injured.

Judge Lewis has granted the petition of N. G. Sowards and J. L. Graham for a writ of mandate against State Engineer John Walker and issued a peremptory writ of mandate, citing the engineer to appear in court on Nov. 27 and show cause why he did not approve the filing of the application of the petitioners to have the right of appropriation of 200 second feet of water in the Green River system. The petitioners are filed on the water but the engineer refused to approve the filing because the water had been subsequently appropriated by the owners of the land on which it was situated and the engineer held that to approve the appropriation of the water would be injurious to the land owners. He will have to show to the court why he refused to approve the application.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The "everlasting" "Devil's Auction" will be the attraction to-night. Edna West is the ingenue and will play the part of the heroine, "Madeline."

The famous racing play of "Checkers" runs the whole week out at the theater, commencing tomorrow night. The advance sale is now going on at the box office for the entire engagement.

Orpheum—The usual anxiety of the Orpheum management to know whether or not the acts for the Monday opening will arrive on time, has been relieved this week by the fact that four of the acts arrived yesterday, and the remaining two this morning. The bill promises to be a top notcher all the way through, and unless some of the acts prove less attractive, the Orpheum management would indicate, packed houses are sure to result. An acrobatic quartet furnished the principal feature.

Grand—"The Convent's Daughter," one of the most popular plays of its class, will be seen tonight at the Grand.

Lytic—"A Son's Devotion" will run through the entire week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

RAILROAD NEWS.

WESTERN PACIFIC WORK.

Chief Engineer Says Soft Sand is Being Overcome.

Chief Engineer Bogue of the Western Pacific says the soft sand encountered at the edge of the desert is being overcome by the steam shovels and ballasting trains. There are 600 men at work there, with promise of more after the completion of the harvesting season. It is reported there are 15 trains in the desert, and the road is being built between St. Louis and Salt Lake for the new road, and there are 10 miles of steel in the yards here, and 20 cars of coal in transit from Pueblo. Large shipments of ties also are being brought in from Oregon. Traffic managements are reported completed between the Western Pacific and the Nevada Northern roads, where the two intersect 20 miles north of Ely.

MEXICAN CENTRAL SOLD.

Secured by the Rock Island and Pacific—Improvements Contemplated.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 10.—It was reported here today on reliable authority that the Mexican Central railroad has been purchased by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific. A connecting line will be built from Brownwood to El Paso, to be used by the Rock Island and Pacific. The information is derived from both Mexican and American sources.

The Mexican Central is the most important line in the Republic of Mexico, and is the only road in Mexico that is not largely owned by the Government. At present the Rock Island enters El Paso, Santa Rosa, N. M., Rock Island and Pacific, a part of the El Paso & Northwestern system. Col. J. L. Bell, who built the El Paso & Northwestern, has been here for some time, saying that he is here for the purpose of constructing an important line of railroad from El Paso to the northeast, which is understood to be the connecting line between the Rock Island and its new property, the Mexican Central. This will either be from Brownsville or Amarillo.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

The railroad offices report railroad travel very heavy, not only westward, but eastward. The southern California line of winter travel has now set in, and an immense business is in prospect.

The Western Pacific will build a branch line into Grantsville, five miles, if the people there will furnish the right of way, and the Pedro people are planning also to build in from a point nine miles south of the town.

The Short Line will run a special train to Ogden on the evening of the 16th inst., leaving this city at 11 p. m., and returning, leave Ogden immediately after the high season. Several fans are expected to go up from this city.

Resident Engineer Ashton of the O. S. L. and Chief Engineer John Walker of the Utah Construction company are back from the Snake trip over the proposed Huntington branch of the O. R. & N. down the Snake river. The branch will leave the main line at the mouth of the Snake and follow the Snake to Lewiston.

Western association passenger lines have given up the plan of returning students east after the holidays on the certificate plan. The usual rate of travel and one-third for the round trip has been retained, to avoid issuing a students' certificate two additional selling dates have been added, and four days have been added to the return limit of the tickets. The selling dates will be Dec. 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26 and Jan. 1. The return limit on the tickets will be Jan. 7, where formerly it was Jan. 4.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.

Seventeenth Ward—A farewell will be given next Friday evening, in the Seventeenth ward meetinghouse to Elder J. Preston Cutler who will shortly leave on a mission to Japan. There will be a musical program followed by a dance.

LATE LOCALS.

Bank Clearings—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $1,111,336.33 as against $1,428,728.07 for the same day last year.

Special Meeting—Gov. Cutler, State Auditor Edwards and State Treasurer Christiansen will go to Provo tonight to attend a special meeting of the state board of insanity. The object of the meeting is to inspect and accept the new building at the mental hospital.

Real Estate Sale—Joseph W. Warburton has sold to L. M. Erickson a lot in Toronto subdivision for $3,000. The tract is located on Seventh East street, between Ninth and Tenth south streets. D. J. Cook has sold to E. B. Wilks 10% acres near Halliday, for $3,500.

Health Conditions—Dr. Clarke, inspector for the state board of health, has been visiting Sandy and Murray where he finds hygienic conditions very fair, and at Farmington, where he went afterwards, the inspector noted with satisfaction the advance in progress of the new local waterworks.

Arrangements Not Made—No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral of Don C. Butterfield who died at Ely, Nev., last Wednesday, on account of the body not yet having reached Salt Lake. It is expected that the body will arrive here this evening, in that case the funeral will be held Wednesday.

Official Canvass—The county commissioners met as a board of canvassers today at 2 o'clock and commenced the official canvass of the returns of the recent election in this city. Inasmuch as the voting machines were used in all the districts of the city and in some of the county districts it was found that very long to complete the canvass.

Held's Band Tonight—The Wasatch band, led by Frank Jones, will play Friday and Saturday night when the Royal Hawaiian band furnished music for the occasion. Over 500 skaters were on the rink last night, but at the signal all ceased themselves and listened to the charming program furnished by the band. Tonight Held's band furnishes the music.

Literary Staff Named—Editor Frank Holman of the University of Utah Year Book, announced this afternoon, his literary staff. In Miss Anna Rowland, Miss Edna Barker and B. L. Marshall; staff artist, Miss Cora Mulgrave; photographers, Earl Hansen and George Smith; and George Smith. Show announced this staff of assistants, W. Ivins, Alf Woolley, Lee Herbert, and Lucille Cummings.

Long Auto Trip—S. T. Whitaker and his brother George Whitaker returned this morning from the north coast, where they had an automobile. They were two days going, and the same number coming. The machine went through the mountain passes in good shape, although the grades ranged from 15 to 22 per cent, and the travelers made the time from Tooele to this city in less than two hours. They located seven claims on the desert, where they found promising outcroppings, including specimens of fine smelting ores, copper, silver and a trace of gold. The Messrs. Whitaker will return to southern Nevada later and locate more claims.

ESTEEMED LADY SURPRISED.

Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Louise Peters was asked to take a buggy ride down to Perry to visit her daughter, Mrs. Peters. When she arrived home in the evening she was indeed surprised to find two long rows of tables spread with the bounties of life and the house full of friends. This successful surprise had been arranged by the stake presidency of the Relief society of which Mrs. Peters had been a member for many years, until lately, when she resigned on account of ill health. During the evening which was spent in social chats, singing, recitations, etc., President Susanah P. Booth presented

HONORED THE WIDOWS.

Friday, Nov. 9, was a day that will long be remembered by the 30 widows residing in the Brigham City Fourth ward. A grand reception was tendered them by ex-Bishop Jens Hansen at his cozy home on First East street. All enjoyed the excellent spread, and the fruit and sweetmeats were the best in town. All present are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the "Grand old man" who for so many years was the father of the ward. The old adage that "once a bishop always a bishop" can be truthfully said in this case. Bishop Hansen, in spite of his 83 years, showed that he still remembers the widows and fatherless, and he was as lively and enjoyed the social as much as any of them.
