Special Agent Howell, now at Pittsburg, N. Y., has called the attention of the Treasury Department to the large number of immigrants arriving at Quebec and Montreal, and says many of them are destitute, having neither money nor friends, and too feeble by reason of age or infirmity to support themselves. He says the most of this class of paupers have been assisted in procuring their passage, and are ticketed to points in the western part of the United States. The Department of Justice received further information from Jefferson, Texas, relative to the assassination of Judge Hough, the main witness for the government in impending cases for violation of the election laws. The writer says that threats have been made by defendants in this case to the effect that they will not be prosecuted by the government; that when they go into court they will go armed, and if the trial should result in conviction, they will kill the court and everybody connected with it. The assassination of Judge Hough has given rise to considerable uneasiness there, and it is not known how soon others may go in the same way.
