Among the anusements of the camp, are blanket tessing and wrestling. In wrestling, company E held the cham-pionship at the last contest. The children of the Baptist Sunday school of Springville came over on an excursion yesterday to see the soldier boys and have a good time. The retreat parade was dispensed with last cight on account of a slight with last night on account of a slight shower. The stream of visitors to the camp increases each day. Governor's day will be the climax.

backs" from a Salt Lake hotel: last year a few of the aristocratic members felt s little squamish, and this year, there are also a few who complain, some gcing even so far as to criticize "that good beer" of Provo. This, how-ever, is not furnished by the commis-sary. The majority of the boys, how-ever, is not furnished by the commis-sary. The majority of the boys, how-ever, are satisfied, not with the beer, but the "grub." While the variety is not great, nor are the choicest viands furnished, good, wholesome, food is, in the fmain, provided, and the soldiers are satisfied.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Linament. I stepped on a nall, which caus-ed the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store who is now in Den-ver, Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Linament; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best lin iment in the world.
