LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

WASHINGTON.—The preparations for the funeral of the Chief Justice were completed this morning. The Senate chamber was hung in black, the doorways and galleries in the rear of the Vice-President's chair being heavily draped, as also the entrances to the chamber. The galleries were densely filled at an early hour with spectators, and hundreds of persons were unable to obtain entrance. The floor of the Senate was reserved for specifically named officers and persons, who entered from time to time and took the seats assigned to them. Among these were full representatives of foreign legations, including the ministers of England, France, Spain, Russia, Brazil, Turkey, Austria and Peru, and the acting Charge d'Affaires of Japan, together with their respective secretaries and attaches, all in plain dress. The members of Congress present were Senators Cameron, Sargent, Kelly, Morrill of Vermont, Casserly, Cragin, Conkling, and Representatives Potter, Randall, Holman, Garfield, Charles O'Neil and Judge McCalmont of Pennsylvania. Beverdy Johnson was conspicuous in the assemblage, being one of the oldest and most intimate friends of the deceased. Seats were also occupied by officers of the respective houses, judges of the U. S. court of claims, and of the Territorial courts, and officers of the Department of Justice. There was a large representation of the clergy of the district. The assistant Secretary of State, Treasury and Interior, assistant Attorney-General and assistant Postmaster-General, and the heads of bureaus in several departments of the government; officers of the army and navy, counsel of the house of delegates of the Territorial legislature and civil officers of the Territorial government and invited friends.

At noon the Rev. Dr. Tiffany entered at the main door, reciting the funeral services, commencing, "I am the resurrection and the life," and accompanied by the pall bearers — Admiral Goldsborough, General McDowell, Governor Cook, Montgomery Blair, W. D. Gallagher, Chief Justice Casey, Judge Sesher of Maryland, C. C. Peter Parker, Whitelaw Reid, W. W. Corcoran and Hon. A. F. Perry. The casket, covered with flowers, was next brought into the chamber by the colored servants of the Supreme Court and placed upon the catafalque in the area fronting the Secretary's desk, which was strung with floral wreaths, crosses, anchors, etc., the large cross from New York being placed on the Vice-President's desk. Next entered President Grant, Secretaries Fish, Richardson, Robeson and Delano, Attorney-General Williams and Postmaster-General Cresswell, accompanied by the ladies of their respective households and the immediate relatives of the deceased, followed by colored servants, male and female, in deep mourning. The minister concluded his reading by the time the assembly was seated. The Rev. Mr. Cleveland read a passage from the Scriptures, when the Rev. B. Peyton Brown delivered a prayer, after which the Rev. Mr. Tiffany delivered the funeral sermon. The ceremonies were soon afterwards terminated. The body will be temporarily interred in Oak Hill Cemetery, preparatory to removal to Cincinnati.

There were about eighty carriages in the procession, mostly private, the President, Cabinet and foreign ministers occupying their own. There were thousands of persons in the streets as spectators. The day was clear. There was a tolling of bells preceding and after the funeral services. All the public departments were closed to-day, excepting the Treasury, which was open until noon.

After the last sad rites in the chapel the casket was lowered in to the temporary vaults beneath the floor, where it will remain till to-morrow; it will then be taken out and, having in the meantime been enclosed in a case, will be interred in the lot of Governor Cook, in the new part of the cemetery. The burial will be strictly private in accordance with the request of the relatives, only the family being present.

LEAVENWORTH.—Col. C. R. Jennison has been voted a jay hawker and arrested by the U. S. marshal and taken to Topeka, on an indictment for an attempt to defraud the government of $52,000 in fraudulent claims.

CINCINNATI, 12.—A movement towards a fund for the family of Captain Hall has been commenced; Miles Greenwood is treasurer.

LEXINGTON, Ky., 12.—The Spring races opened brilliantly. The track horses were in the best condition, and the attendance was quite large.

MILWAUKEE, 12.—Wm. Litchfield, of Illinois, drew a $10,000 prize in the Market Association scheme.

NEW YORK.—The boss horseshoers met to-night to decide whether or not they would yield to the demand of the men on strike. A few employers were in favor of holding out against the men, but the large majority decided to accede to the demand of the men, so that the strike may be considered over.

PORTLAND, Me.—Hon. N. A. Farwell, a prominent candidate for the governorship, withdraws in favor of Judge Kent, who was governor in 1840.

NEW YORK.—The prosecution closed, to-day, in the examination of McDonnell, the Bank of England forger, and the prisoner's counsel presented a plea for the acquittal of McDonnell, on the ground that on the 24th of April, after a full hearing, McDonnell was legally discharged. The taking of the plea was objected to, and the objection sustained. The motion to strike out the evidence of the majority of the witnesses on the ground that their depositions were mere exparte narrative statements, was also overruled.

The Boston Advertiser has the following special from Hartford:

"It appears from certain positive evidence obtained in this city that Edwin Noyes, the Bank of England forger, is identical with Edward Hill, concerned in a bank forgery and horse stealing case in Worcester, with Michael McDonald, now in the Connecticut State prison. It is now known that very soon after his settlement of the bank case here, he proceeded to England from Boston, and was joined there by the McDonalds and Bidwell, with whom he had confederated in this country before his arrest in New Jersey. Hill is well known here. He lived in East Hartford, and up to a few years ago was a teacher of vocal and instrumental music, and was a very unassuming young man. His family connections are of irreproachable character.

A. H. Nicolay, a Wall street stockbroker, was arrested to-day, charged by Wm. S. Roberts with having defrauded him, Roberts, of $29,000, by purchasing worthless stocks. Nicolay was held in default in $25,000.

PHILADELPHIA.—The coroner's inquest on the bodies of Mary Jane Backen and Jeremiah White, showed that the girl had been enticed by White into his room, and failing in his object he cut her throat; and then set fire to the bed and cut his own throat.

The United States centennial commission reassembled this morning. It was announced that Campbell, of Indiana, had accepted the position of Secretary, and Prosser that of Treasurer. The following was offered:

"Resolved, That the executive committee be directed to take such measures as may in their judgment be necessary to secure proper representation in the exhibition from the governments of China, Japan, and other Oriental countries."

Agreed to.

Goldsmith, of Vermont, offered the following:

"Resolved, That the committee on foreign affairs tender the American Medical Association such cooperation as may be necessary in reference to any international Congress to entertain questions pertaining to medical matters, which they may have inaugurated, or may hereafter inaugurate."

Adopted.

BOSTON.—The strike of the coopers, to-day, does not promise to be a success, as the sugar refiners and others say that they can obtain all the barrels required without their aid.

COLUMBUS, O.—The constitutional convention assembles to-morrow. M. R. Waite and L. D. Campbell are named for president.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The appointment as minister to Russia has been tendered Judge Pierrepont, of New York, in place of Orr, deceased. Acceptance has not yet been signified. It is uncertain when a successor to De Long, minister to Japan, will be indicated.

General Butler, to-day, entered a suit for Benjamin Camp, against Whitelaw Reid, for libel.

A Herald's special from London says:

"Khiva is taken. The troops from Tashkend and Fort No. 1, after concentration on the Bowkan Hills, marched directly across the Kizil Kum Desert to the Lower Oxus. There they communicated with supply steamers from Fort No. 1, thus practically establishing a new base within striking distance of Khiva. This makes the success of further operations a certainty.

The financial catalogue at Vienna disturbs all the money markets of Europe, and causes a shrinkage in values, on the Vienna bourse, of a hundred millions. The shrinkage in American securities in Germany is estimated at ten millions. In London there was a serious depression on Saturday, which increased this a.m. The market recovered this p.m., but recent American legislation and the hostile tone of a portion of the American press towards European capitalists, occasions general anxiety among investors in American securities.

BALTIMORE.—The Church of the Ascension, Episcopal, at the corner of Lafayette avenue and Oregon street, was destroyed by fire this evening. Loss, $50 000; insured for $30,000.

Hallahan will be hanged June 13 for the murder of Mrs. Lampley.

NEED OF MORAL EDUCATION IN KANSAS.—On page 518 of the monthly reports for 1872 there is a brief article in which are given the results of the different courses of agriculture pursued since the war by two planters of equivalent fortunes, residing in the same locality in Louisiana. The one had pursued the ante-war method, and adhered to the culture of cotton alone, the other had recognized the new conditions consequent upon the war, and adopted the method of diversified agriculture. It is reported that the results are altogether in favor of the latter. Our correspondent in Arkansas County, Arkansas, calls attention to this representation, and wishes to give as the result of his own experience "the other side." He says:

"When the war closed I also tried the diversified plan. I had eight acres in apples, pears and plums; twelve acres in peaches; a fair lot of hogs, and a nice lot of sheep. My apples are all stolen, so that I never have any to put up in winter. My hogs have long since been stolen. I have cut down my peach orchard. If I plant a garden and have a nice lot of vegetables, they are all stolen. If I put up a nice crib of corn, the lock is forced and my corn is stolen. So I have come down to cotton and just enough corn to make my crop. Money can be made by that system if one only attends to his business and doesn't spend too much. Still, I will admit that the diversified system is much better, and there is more money and more happiness in it; but there are some things people cannot do."—Monthly Report of Department of Agriculture.

Two lawyers in Lowell returning from court the other day, one said to the other: "I've a notion to join Rev. Mr.——'s church; been debating the matter for some time. What do you think of it?" "Wouldn't do it," said the other. "Well, why?" "Because it could do you no possible good, while it would be a great injury to the church."

During a late conference at Worcester the following conversation was overheard between two newsboys:

"I say, Jim, what's the meaning of so many ministers being here all together?"

"Why," answered Jim, scornfully, "they always meet once a year to swap sermons."

"May it please your honor," said a lawyer, addressing one of the city judges, "I brought the prisoner from jail on a habeas corpus."

"Well!" said a fellow in an undertone, who stood in the rear of the court, "these lawyers will say anything. Why, I saw the man get out of a cab at the court door with my own eyes."

In Westmoreland it is usual at Christmas for the farmers to kill each a sheep for their own use, on which occasion, when the butcher inquires if they want any meat against Christmas, the usual reply is: "Nay, I think not—I think o' killing myself." A butcher called on a farmer in the usual manner, saying, "Will ye want a bit o' meat or'll ye kill yersel', this Christmas?" "I kna not," replied the farmer, "whether I'se kill myself, or tak' a side o' me feythe."

"We've got something new at our house, sir," gleefully exclaimed an errand boy one day last week, as he entered the shop where he was employed.

"What is it?" blandly inquired his master, thinking, perhaps, it was a baby or something of the kind.

"Oh! my sister's all broke out with small-pox," was the delighted reply.

The firm has secured the services of a new boy.

"That's where the boys fit for college," said the professor to Mrs. Partington, pointing to a schoolhouse.

"Did they?" said the old lady with animation. "Then if they fit for college before they went, they didn't fightafterward?"

"Yes," said he, smiling and favoring the conceit; "but the fight was with the head, not with the hands."

"Butted, did they?" said the old lady.

OUR FATHER'S HOUSE—THE UNWRITTEN WORD.

BY DANIEL MARCH, D. D.—Author of Night Scenes in the Bible.

THIS Earth is one of the Mansions of OUR FATHER'S HOUSE and all the forms and forces of the physical universe are revelations of God's UNWRITTEN WORD. The author, in this new volume, goes from room to room in the great house that God has built, showing us the riches and splendors stowed in every department, making the whole journey of life a happy walk of children with their Father—going out into open fields, listening to the singing birds, the whispering winds and murmuring forests; looking with ceaseless delight on green landscapes and grazing flocks, on beautiful flowers and springing grass, gazing with awe at the wonders of the mighty deep, walking beneath the shade of ancient mountains and climbing to sacred heights. Wondering at the great Earth wheel turning beneath our feet; watching the storm with cloud on cloud of gallowy darkness rolled, lightnings answered in thundering voices, and again the beautiful bows hung out on the retiring cloud.
