

WHAT UTAH GOT FROM CONGRESS

Record Shows That the Beehive State Fared Very Well Last Session.

WHAT SENATOR SMOOT SAYS.

Incidentally it is Also Shown That He Has Been Decidedly Busy—Delegation Harmonious.

Senator Reed Smoot came up from Provo today on personal business and was seen a few minutes by a representative of the Deseret News to whom he talked freely and interestingly on the work of the late Congress which must be put down as one of the busiest the country has had in years. He also made it clear that the stories about the Utah delegation being divided and inharmonious are wholly without foundation in fact.

ALL WORK TOGETHER.

Senator Smoot declared that all the measures and matters that had come up for consideration and which to date had received final action had met with the approval not only of himself but of Senator Sutherland and Congressmen Howell. This unanimity of effort was largely responsible for the accomplishment of so much good for the state during the present session which he said had done more for Utah than any previous Congress in the history of the country.

BUSY MAN HIMSELF.

In the language of the day, the man who thinks Senator Smoot has not been busy himself, has another thing coming. In addition to being compelled to defend himself against the attacks of politically disappointed enemies, and meet numerous false and iniquitous charges, he has kept up with all of his other work, committee and otherwise. In this connection it is more than interesting to know that as chairman he, personally, made, during the session, 233 committee reports, and in every instance was his report adopted and the measure recommended, passed by the Senate. Altogether the showing is a splendid one, and one of which any senator might well feel proud.

WHAT UTAH GOT.

Some of the things that the Utah delegation got from the past congress are as follows:

The Strawberry valley irrigation project, carrying an appropriation of $1,250,000.

An appropriation of $600,000 with which to provide for the irrigation of the lands of what was once the Uintah Indian reservation.

An appropriation of $100,000 for the enlargement of the Ogden postoffice building.

An appropriation of $60,000 with which to erect a new federal building at Provo.

An appropriation of $50,000 for a new post office building to be erected at Logan.

The passage of a bill carrying an appropriation of $10,000 for the purchase of a farm in southern Utah for the support of the Kaibab Indians, who had long been a great burden upon the people of that section.

The creation of the Grand canyon game preserve, the only one created in the United States this year, with demands from many sections of the country for similar creations, and in the case of the positive statement that the measure could not pass.

The creation of forest reserves and releasing of lands to be returned to the public domain, and the arrival here of a representative of the bureau of forestry, to meet with the state board of land commissioners to settle the question of school lands in the forest reserves, and the exchange of all school sections within said reserves for a body of land of equal acreage now owned by the government.

The securing of between $60,000 and $70,000 of back pension money for Utah veterans of the Walker Indian war, and the permanent settlement of a regular monthly stipend of $5 on each veteran whose claim has been perfected, and who got $10 at the time of the first payment. With regard to the old soldiers of the Civil war, they received more increases and better treatment than ever before.

The exchange between Judge La Grand Young and the government of 45 and 1,000 acres of land respectively, east of Salt Lake City, which makes possible the enlargement of Port Douglas and the maintenance of an entire regiment of troops there, which will be done, and which will make it one of the best army posts in all the western country.

AS TO PUBLIC PARKS.

Senator Smoot became enthusiastically on the question of public parks, following his talk on the forest reserve. He said he wanted to see many of them. He would like to see a large number of state parks in Utah. He would be happy to see parks in all the cities—more of them, and better than they are, breathing places into which the people may go for rest and recreation. And they should be greatly beautified. The people, he declared, did not object so much to paying taxes, if they could only see that they were getting something in return; something that would make their city and the streets more attractive. That sort of thing was a good investment, and always paid good dividends in the end.

COMMITTEE NAMED.

Those Who Will Look After Tourists From Oregon.

Gov. Cutler has appointed the following committee to take charge of the party of Oregonian tourists which will arrive in this city tomorrow from Portland: Gen. R. C. Naylor, Col. Joseph Goughgan, Fisher Harris, J. G. Brown and N. P. Nelson. The committee will go to Ogden at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and meet the party, and upon the arrival here a special service will be held in the Tabernacle followed by an organ recital for the party only. Monday morning the party will be shown over the city and in the afternoon a trip will be made to Saltair returning in time to take the train for the Yellowstone park. At the organ recital Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris will be the vocalist.

GIRLS ARE AHEAD.

Report of Board of Health for Week Ending July 7.

Forty-four births were reported during the week; 21 males and 23 females; 15 deaths were reported, 9 males and 6 females.

There were reported 2 cases of contagious and infectious diseases, consisting of 1 case of whooping cough and 1 case of measles. Three cases of small pox and 1 case of diphtheria remain in quarantine.

LATE LOCALS.

Checking Accounts—State Auditor J. E. Barker is today checking up the books and accounts of the state mineral hospital.

At Half Mast—The flag is half mast today, at the Alta club in memory of the late George H. Robinson, the well known mining man, at New York.

Gone to Europe—A. L. Thomas, Jr., just graduated with honors from the law school of Michigan university, has gone to Europe, and is expected to land at Liverpool today.

Nebeker Monument—Ellas Morris Sons company has just completed a 1,500 monument for the Nebeker family, of Utah native granite, with a shaft 10 feet across and the weight of the monument is six tons.

Open Bids Today—The county commissioners will meet today and open bids for the construction of a pumping plant at Thirteenth South and Mill Creek road for the purpose of pumping water to sprinkle the county roads in that vicinity.

Officers to Lecture—Capt. Perry and Wells of the Twenty-ninth infantry will lecture on Tuesday evening next, in the officers' quarters, state armory, on the commissary and the quartermaster departments of the army, before the local members of the National Guard.

Going To Hat Island—Capt. D. L. Davis of the Cambria II and Esther, will pilot a party of Salt Lake to Hat Island in the Great Salt Lake, leaving Saltair this evening and returning Monday. In the party will be Dr. Charles F. Wilcox, Postmaster Thomas and others.

F. L. King Dead—Word was received here today of the death of Frank L. King at Black Diamond, Cal., which occurred yesterday. Mr. King was well known in this city where he was engaged in the lumber business for a time. The remains will be brought to Salt Lake for interment.

Series of Lectures—There will be a series of Sunday evening lectures during July and August in the Second ward meetinghouse. The first will be held tomorrow evening, and the speaker will be Elder R. H. Roberts. He will lecture on the third chapter of Malachi. The following Sunday Elder J. H. Paul will deliver the lecture.

Charges Are Filed—Secy. Beatty of the state board of health filed with the county clerk a complaint against Censora A. C. Ewing, Root and Harrison of the Salt Lake Medical society, specific charges against City Health Officer Stewart for his actions in the Bennett case, alleging unprofessional conduct, as well as violation of the law. The charges will bring the matter before the medical society.

Judge Barich Home—Chief Justice Barich has returned from Washington, New York and other eastern cities, accompanied by his daughter, Judge Barich explains that the only object of his visit to the east was to find a suitable college in which to place his children, the coming school year. He declares most solemnly that there was absolutely no political significance to his incidental call at the national capital.

Case Continued—Jed Grant, who is charged with forgery, was taken before Judge Whitaker of the city court today for arraignment but upon his release the arraignment was continued until Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Grant is charged with forging the name of his father, B. F. Grant, to a check on McCormick's bank for $15,755. He cashed the check at F. Miller's saloon on July 5 and Mr. Miller is the complaining witness in the case.

Vetoed By Mayor—Mayor Thompson vetoed the report of the license committee adopted by the council Monday night reducing the license for the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus from $400 to $150 for one day, Aug. 2. The mayor falls to the council in making such a reduction in the license and further he holds that the city ordinance places the license at $400 for the first day and the council can not amend the ordinance and reduce the license simply by adopting a committee report to that effect.

Many Mistakes—There were found today, in the Salt Lake postoffice, 72 pieces of first class mail matter, some with no postage, some with no address, some addressed to places where there are no postoffices, some to postoffices but not the states to which they were addressed, some to postoffices without the names of the addressees. All these must be sent to the dead letter office, where no return notice is on the envelope to give an idea who the sender is. It is not uncommon to drop letters addressed to the wrong state, and many letters are dropped in the Salt Lake office intended for Idaho and Nevada points, but addressed Utah.

Plumbers Burst—If any water taps break or pipes burst next Saturday, there will be much trouble in store for the citizen who may have such an unfortunate occurrence in his house. Unless he is able to make necessary repairs himself, they will not be made until the following Monday. The reason is that the plumbers' union has announced that each and every shop in Salt Lake shall close on Friday afternoon and remain closed until Monday morning. Another order is that the plumbers shall—notice the "shall"—not work on Friday evening. On Saturday the union will have an outing at Lagoon and all plumbers are "ordered" to be present and make the occasion a success.

Second South Buildings—Active work began this morning, demolishing the one-story office shacks on west Second South street, just beyond McCoy's stable alley, preparatory to the erection there by Messrs. Thompson and Murdoch of a fine office building. This will be 60 feet in depth by 125 feet front, three stories high with handsome front of plate glass, brick and iron all the way up, three stories on the ground floor and the two upper floors to be devoted to hotel purposes. There are to be about 50 rooms in the building exclusive of bath rooms, and the cost is put at $50,000. The front elevation will have more plate glass than any other building in the city, and handsome metal moldings are to be used on the cornice. The architect is J. C. Craig.

Child Injured—A peculiar accident happened this noon, at the Masonic building, corner of Second South street, that would ordinarily have been considered as likely to result seriously. Mrs. Ira E. Hyde was driving around the corner in her buggy, with her 3-year-old daughter, Ida, seated on the seat in front of her. The sudden lurching of the vehicle threw the child into the street, and the rear wheel of the buggy ran over her head. Passers by quickly rushed to the assistance of the child and it was carried into Hill's drug store where it was attended to. The child was somewhat stupefied by the accident, but with the exception of a cut on the forehead by the tire of the wheel, no serious injury seems to have been sustained.

STILL FIGHTING FOR THE OFFICE.

W. H. Wilkins Carries His Case Into the District Court.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS ASKED

Against Mayor Thompson and Chairman Leonard of Board of Public Works and Many Others.

The fight over the office of clerk of the board of public works was taken into the district court today when W. H. Wilkins, the former clerk of the board, filed a petition for a writ of mandamus against Mayor Ezra Thompson, Chairman Fred J. Leonard of the board of public works, City Auditor Rudolph Alf and the 15 members of the city council to compel them to permit him to act as clerk of the board and to pay him the salary of $100 per month attached to the office during the time he has been illegally prevented from performing the duties of the office.

In his petition Mr. Wilkins alleges that under the city ordinance creating the office he was appointed for a term of two years and that he was illegally discharged from the office by Leonard without cause and is illegally prevented from performing the duties thereof and receiving the emoluments attached to the position. He asks that he be reinstated in office and be paid his salary for the entire period he has been deprived of the same. He alleges that he has offered to perform the duties but has been prevented from so doing by the chairman of the board and the city council. He has demanded his salary for each month since his discharge but the auditor has refused to pay the same.

An alternate writ of mandamus was issued in the case today by Judge Morse and is returnable on July 20.

COURT NOTES.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Anna F. Weaver against Luna Y. Thatcher et al. to quiet title to part of lot 5, block 44, plat B, Salt Lake City survey.

An action has been filed in the district court by Charles West against Elizabeth Burkert and 75 other defendants for a partition of the Fuller, Relief and Michigan lode claims, located in Little Cottonwood district.

In the case of O. D. Brainard against Cora E. Brainard, an order was made by Judge Morse yesterday afternoon requiring plaintiff to pay his wife $50 attorney's fees so that she may defend the case, and also $15 per week alimony until the final hearing in the case.

Damages in the sum of $20,000 are asked in a complaint filed in the district court yesterday afternoon by the widow and children of William N. Howcroft against the Ohio Copper company. Mr. Howcroft was killed while employed in the defendant's mine at Bingham on Feb. 6, 1905.

Signora Benjamin filed suit for divorce in the district court today against John W. Benjamin on the ground of failure to support. They were married at Butte, Mont., on May 4, 1904. Plaintiff also asks for the return of her maiden name, Signora Scott.

Three divorces were granted by Judge Morse yesterday afternoon during the regular weekly divorce call. Plaintiff in each of the following cases were granted divorces: Hannah E. Ryan against Richard Ryan, non-support; Eliza H. Keethler against Albert Keethler, cruelty; Millie B. Gaylor against Heber Gaylor, non-support.

The jury in the case of Carl Harmon against C. D. Coats, which was tried in Judge Armstrong's court, has returned a verdict in favor of defendant. Harmon sued to recover $2,500 as damages for an assault which he alleged Coats made upon him at Bingham. Coats attempted to arrest Harmon for a misdemeanor when the latter resisted and it became necessary for the officer to use force in order to take the fellow to jail. The jury found the issues in favor of the officer and returned a verdict accordingly.

Upon motion of the attorneys for plaintiffs Judge Morse today dismissed the case of the F. Goodrich company, the Warner Instrument company and the Hartford Rubber Tire company against the Utah Automobile company. The action was brought to have a receiver appointed to take charge of the property of defendant. Plaintiff in each of the several judgments against defendant which it had not paid but after the receivership action was instituted it paid up the claims of plaintiffs in full and hence the case was dismissed.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Louis B. Paul against the Salt Lake City Railway company was ordered stricken from the calendar by Judge Lewis today with leave to restate it at some future time. The motion was filed by the attorney for plaintiff and was based upon an affidavit by him which contained the allegation that President Joseph F. Smith at a secret priest hood meeting had advised the members of the priesthood who should be called as jurors in the courts against returning verdicts against corporations in damage suits.

Harry Connelley, one of the Greeks charged with riot during the recent strike at Garfield, has filed a petition in the district court for a writ of habeas corpus. He claims that his imprisonment and restraint by Sheriff Emery are illegal for the reasons that the complaint does not charge the offense of riot and there was no evidence at the preliminary hearing tending to prove that he was guilty of the offense named. He was bound over to the district court to await a final trial on the charge. The habeas corpus petition will be heard before Judge Armstrong tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PERSONALS.

F. A. Munchenheimer, assistant manager of the Hotel Astor of New York, is a guest at the Knutsford.

Landlord Fred Wey of the Wilson and Miss Wey have gone to Chicago to be gone perhaps over a month, and Mrs. Wey is preparing to follow.

W. N. Williams, manager of the Co-op Furniture company and his son George, leave today on a two weeks' visit to eastern furniture houses.

Mr. B. F. Redman, manager Redman Van and Storage company, left yesterday for Alexandria bay, New York, to attend a meeting of the New York Furniture Warehousemen's association. He was accompanied by Mrs. Redman and before returning they will take a trip down the St. Lawrence to Montreal. They will be gone about three weeks.

INCORPORATION ARTICLES.

Four Companies Filed Papers in Secretary's Office Today.

Four companies filed copies of their articles of incorporation in the office of Secy. of State Tingey today. Three of them are irrigation companies and one is a pleasure resort company. The irrigation companies are all in Wasatch county. The names of the organizations and their capital stock and officers are:

Duchene Irrigation company of Myton, Utah, capital stock $300,000, divided into the par value of $5 each; S. D. Smith, president; H. C. Nicol, vice president; J. W. Musser, secretary and treasurer.

Rocks Point Ditch company of Theodore, capital stock $20,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each; N. M. Baldock, president; W. J. Scott, vice president; Andrew Larsen, secretary and treasurer.

The Pioneer Canal company of Theodora, capital stock $300,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1 each; J. A. Smith, president; W. L. Brenck, vice president; M. A. Ross, secretary and treasurer.

The Wildwood Resort company of Provo, capital stock $100,000, divided into shares of the par value of $10 each; J. C. Swenson, president; W. S. Rawlings, vice president; E. H. Holt, secretary and treasurer. The company will conduct a pleasure resort near Provo.

John Draper, who was employed by Hope as the latter's secretary, and Pauline Browning, who was employed as stenographer, have closed up the office of the "great financier" because there are no funds with which to keep the office open. Both secretary and stenographer declare they have no faith in Hope and do not expect to receive anything from him. On June 28 a telegram received from Hope stated that he had sent $250 to the firm to keep the office open. The draft has never arrived, and is not now expected.

When Hope left for Boston some time ago, accompanied by Lawyer Bagley, announcement was made that he was leaving for the purpose of meeting big capitalists and raise "millions of dollars" with which he was to promote some of the biggest concerns in the world. He left orders here to draw a draft on him at Boston for $15,000, as his share in the proposed financing of the International Trust company. The draft was placed in the "Deseret National" bank. Ezra T. Stevenson, brother-in-law of Dr. Wilcox, went to Boston to investigate. Telegrams sent by him are not very encouraging to others who imagined Hope would be a success in making their fortunes by his great schemes. And the draft in the meantime, has not been honored.

When Hope left for Boston he announced that he had received word from one Henry Halstead of England, who represented "millions." It was also given out that the "millions" would soon be on hand for Hope to promote his dozens of companies. Letters have been written to London for the purpose of checking up on Hope's career, but no one seems to be able to give him any standing.

MEXICAN EXPLOITS.

But word has been received from other places which show that while Hope was about to purchase much valuable property and had stated that some purchases had gone through, not a red cent had been paid by him. He stated he had secured a vast amount of land in Mexico with a railroad of five miles on it. This would be the basis of the Western Coal & Coke company. Hope then told Dr. Wilcox that he had purchased lands from a man named Mackenzie and showed the doctor a check for $75,000 which he said was mailing to Mackenzie. When Hope went to Boston, Dr. Wilcox wired to Mackenzie, but no word that not a penny had been paid.

WHO IS HALSTEAD.

Draper, the secretary, states that he believes Halstead, the man with millions, lives only in the mind of Hope. Draper stated that he had received but one month's pay from Hope.

Among the big corporations Hope was to finance with the untold wealth to be placed in his hands, are the following:

The Intercontinental Consolidated Railway company, capitalized with $25,000,000, of which amount Hope was to secure $24,000,000.

Flotation of $500,000 bonds for the improvement of David Eccles' Ogden Rapid Transit company.

International Trust company, capitalized at $250,000.

Western Coal & Coke company with necessary railroads requiring $5,000,000.

Securing $150,000 for Joseph A. Silver to enlarge the Silver Brook, Iowa works.

Crystal Lime & Cement company, to be supplied with several hundred thousand dollars.

Ima Mining property, to be purchased for $200,000.

WOMEN MISSIONARIES.

PESTER MRS. HARRY THAW

New York, July 7.—Women missionaries workers in the Tombs were requested today not to annoy Mrs. Harry K. Thaw when she makes her daily visits to the prison to see her husband.

One of Thaw's counsel told the warden that he does not care to take the chance of spies for the prosecution coming in contact with Mrs. Thaw by representing themselves as missionary workers.

Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, the alienist, who made an examination of Thaw yesterday, for the defense, called upon Thaw again today. Mrs. Thaw called upon her husband before the alienist left. When Mrs. Thaw entered the prison, she was surrounded by women missionaries who greeted her cordially and accompanied her to the stairs. It was when one of the attorneys for the defense who chanced to be present at the time saw the party going through the corridor that the protest was made to the warden.

Afterward, in speaking of the mental examination which has been made by Dr. Hamilton, Mr. Marks said:

"So far as it has proceeded, the examination has been absolutely satisfactory to the defense."

FUNERAL SERVICES.

JENSEN.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Don Fuller Jensen, who died July 4, at 4 p. m., tomorrow, at the Eighteenth ward meetinghouse. Friends are invited.

BORN.

MILES.—A nine-pound daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Miles, July 6, at 10 p. m. Mother and child are doing well.

DIED.

WATSON.—Of the Sixth ward, Salt Lake City, July 6, at 11 a. m., of pneumonia. Heber Watson, born July 3, 1842, in Scotland. Came to America in 1848 and to Salt Lake City, 1850, with his parents; was a member in 1862, returned in 1864, followed mining ever since. His wife died last January. The remains may be seen at Peter S. Condie's residence, 32 West Fifth street, at 2 p. m. Sunday. Services at Sixth ward meetinghouse at 1 p. m. Sunday. Interment in city cemetery.

LOST HOPE IN DESERTED HOPE

People Who Advanced Cash to Man With Prospective Millions Now Mourn.

ALL HAVE THEIR EXPERIENCE.

Silver Brothers, M. B. Whitney, J. P. Cahoon, Crystal Lime & Cement Company and Others.

Bereaford Hope, the English promoter, who a few weeks ago created a sensation throughout Utah and the intermountain country by talking millions as glibly as a maple chatters its morning song, and who was going to buy railroads, electric light plants, erect mammoth skyscraper buildings, construct canals and reservoir systems, organize companies, form mining and smelter combines, acquire vast land and livestock interests in Mexico, and who did launch a number of questionable companies in this state and in Idaho, has at last been discredited before the public.

In addition to this he wound his way into the affections of a trusting and affectionate young girl of this city, and was about to marry her when he was discovered by the man and his methods to prevent a terrible mistake being made. Then he had a way of getting money from prominent business men who should have known better and who ordinarily do know better. Among those who now mourn for the sums advanced are Silver Brothers, M. B. Whitney, J. P. Cahoon, the Crystal Lime & Cement company and the Crystal Lime & Cement company of this city.

When Hope first came to the "News" to complain of an apparent lack of confidence in him by this paper he was greatly agitated, and his methods to prevent a terrible mistake being made.
