GEORGE Q. CANNON, BRIGHAM YOUNG, JUN., EDITORS AND PUBLISHER

THE EVENING NEWS.

PUBLISHED DAILT, SUNDAYS RECEIPED, AT

FOCR O'CLOCK.

September 18, 1977. To enday

THE LOGAN TEMPLE.

Laying the Corner Stones.

THE PROCESSION-THE DEDIC TION-THE ADDRESSES,

ETC.

MONDAY, Sept. 19th, at 12 o'clock m., being the time fixed upon far laying the corner stones of the Temple in Logan, the following au-Temple in Logan, the following authorities of the church left Sait vant Brigham also to build's House Lake City on Sunday per special car, immediately after the afternoon service, to regulate and take part in the ceremonies:

Of the Apostles; President John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, George Q. Cannon, Brigham Young, Albert Carrington and Counselor D. H. Wells.

Of the Presidency of the Seventies; A. P. Bockwood, Horace S. benefit and deliverance of the hosts from day to day, until the cap-stone Eldredge and John Van Cott, of thy sons and daughters who of the building shall be set, and the President Joseph Young being too have departed, and who await the benefits of our labors here on earth. Will thou at this time forgive our. journey.

Cf the Bishopric; Edward Hunter, Presiding Bishop, and Counselors Leonard W. Hardy and Robert T. Burton; George Goddard clerk.

Reporter.

Of the Presidency of the High Priests; Elias Smith and Counselors Elias Morris and Edward Snelgrove.

The President of the Elders' Quorum, Edward W. Davis. Assistant Architect, Truman O.

Angel, jr.

The above company of gentlemen and five ladies reached Ogden with the usual train, and were met on arrival, by the authorities of the Weber Stake, who had previously made ample provision for their entertainment and lodging for the night.

TAYLOB stood upon if and he following remarks This principal corner stone is now duly laid by the Trelve, who are now acting in the pince of and represent the First Presidency. Twelve perform this act in or of the Great God, and may main immovable and may the whole fabric be speedily erected, that the Saints may have a place to worship God acceptably, and administer in his ordinances, and the on of Man a place whereon to lay his bead. After which Elder FRANKLIN D. RICHARDS offered the following

Our Father and our God, in the of the Lord Jesus Christ, our this time to lay the corner stones of this building. Thou didst bless thy servant Joseph to build an Home to thy name, and tildet ac-cept of it by the presence of thy the light of thy Spirit ciminan cept of it by the presence of thy in these valleys, which has been consecrated for the labors of thy people, wherein to perform the or-dinances of salvation for themselves and their dead, which thou hast accepted to the joy of thy Saints. But, O Lord, thou art

ing from the north and from the south, from the east and from the der their service, that with joy and west, and we have need of other rejoicing the hearts of all may be Temples in which to labor for the weaknesses, imperfections, and sins, and bless us with power to continue the work which thy sercontinue the work which thy ser-vant Brigham has ceased to de, since thou hast taken him from us. Wilt thou let the prayer which was God, and thy Spirit and power be offered by thy servant Orson for the increased upon them, and may thy dedication and consecration of this people be willing to hearken unto Of the Presidency of Salt Lake Stake; Angus M. Cannon and Joseph E. Taylor; George F. Gibbs, We now dedicate and consecrate this the south-east corner stone of this Temple together with its connections and attachments in the holy unto thee, and sacred unto we pray, the clouds of darkness and

We pray that thou will bless thy servants the Presidents of the Stakes with the Bishops and their counsel-ors who have charge of the work that they may have power to move may their envy and wrath be made the people by the power of thy spirit to a united und vigorous effort for the completion of this Temple

God, that this location was sele whereon to rear this Temple thy servant who has lately on from earth, more to continue work among those who have b to-day, and amile upon th ; and may which shall eventually open once to Ve been that work amon deprived of the benefits of the ga-pel; and we pray at this time that thou wilt let the spirit of this labor key. wide the door of salvation, bidding and work, even that of binding the hearts of the fathers to the childthe captive be free. A key by which they shall receive also their bap-tisms and their washings and an ren, and the hearts of the children ointings. Oh let the vail which separates us from the dead grow to the fathers, rest down upon this to perform the same, that it might be thiner each day until all who depeople who have been called upon e salvation may, through our a labor in which they will delight, and in which all may feel themworks, as guided by thee, become lessing be upon the workmen who And wilt thou, O God, bless the And wilt thou, O God, bless thy servants who may labor here; that shall labor here; preserve them from no evil thought may be permitted accident and dangers of every kind; and may there be no evil surmisto dwell in their hearts, nor an evil word by them be spoken. May the air which encircles these wails as ings respecting the fidelity of each other, or distrust in the virtues of they shall grow unto thee, and which hovers over this consecrated lace be filled by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, so that the feelings of thy people, when they shall come upon this holy place, may ver be drawn'to thee.

As thou hast seen fit since this round was dedicated, to call thy for the support of the workmen, that their eyes may be single to the glory of God and the building of this House. Cause we pray that no contentions or disputes may arise among them, or a contentious spirit servant Brigham to thyself, we feel to acknowledge thins hand in this, as well as in every dispensation of thy previdence; and as a tribute to his memory, help us to join our hands and cement our hearts together in the performance of every righteous act, until we shall become be entertained while here engaged, a people of one heart and one mind, doing thy will Saints. But, O Lord, thou art or anything occur to grieve thy greatly multiplying thy people on Holy Spirit. But may the peace the earth, and thine Israel is com- of heaven fill each heart, and be earth as it is done in beaven. And upon the very teams that shall renwilt thou let this stone, our Father, remain steadfast, firm and true until the morning of the resurrection, gladdened in performing their work and as long thereafter as may be pleasing unto thee, and may it answer well, its part in the walls of this Temple, which, in the name of Jesus thy people will build to thy name for the living and for the dead. We dedicate it, with our substance unto thee, in the name of same completely finished, and dediested to thy most holy name; and the glory we ascribe to God and the Lamb forever and ever.

And we would bear up before thee Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

The choir sang the hymn-

Praise to the man who communed with Jebovah.

Honored and blessed them, and be strongly united in the work of building up thy king-dom and extending its borders throughout the land. Continue to The procession re-formed and proceeded to the north-east cornergather thy Saints unto these peace stone, which was laid by the First ful vales, and continue to bless the Presidents of the Seventies, assisted building, the other corners which lands, the waters and the various Presidents of the Seventies, assisted shall be haid that the same may be elements for their sakes. Disperse, by the Presidents of the Elders' Quorums.

thy people. Let no unholy thing defile this work we pray thee but may it also receive thy divine ac-ceptance.] wickedness from our minds, and may we see and comprehend thee and thy ways and all thing as they are. Confound our enemies who said— PRESIDENT A. P. ROCKWOOD, standing on the stone, then briefly delight to oppose the onward course in the absence of our beloved Pre-of truth; may they go backward and not forward, and defeat their own unrighteous purposes, and to praise thee.

this stone to announce to you that our relatives and friends and the in their presence. There is no the Seventies and Elders have laid holy men of God of every age and whatever of this in my And grant, hely Father, that for the completion of this Temple in the time designated by the servant Brigham. And we pray that thy watchful and protecting care may be over the workmen that they may have joy in their labors until it shall be completed and ded.

main immorable to the place in the building in which it is now set; and that thou our Father, wilt accept of us and our labors this day, and to thee be all praise and glory now and forever, even so Amen.

> President Taylor then called upon Counselor D. H. WELLS, who made the following remarks-

It affords me great gratification to witness the ceremonies of this day, the laying of these corner stones and the foundation of this Temple which is to be erected at at the dedication o I was pre this ground, when Brother Brigham attended to selecting and the cere-monies of dedicating and consecratearth! That'the work commenced by the Prophet Joseph, he building upon the foundation there f, stin continues, and that it will continue henceforth and for ever, the priesthood being without beginning of dayys or end years-everlasting, from eternity to eternity! thatportion necessary being conferred upon the children of men will continue earth, and the good and great work of redemption and salvation will go on from triumph to triumph, from victory to victory, and the erection of Temples continue, and the purposes of the Almighty be developed and consummated until finally the whole programme shall in which the Saints shall enter and I pray God to basten the work, who are here to-day, and who reprove ourselves worthy and prepare by the means that God has given the way for the coming of our Lord us for the accomplishment of this and Saviour Jesus Christ; and that we may be prepared to stand in the day of the Lord Almighty, and centinue to remple, and every Temple completed according to the continue to perform our duties in this our earthly probation, with holy Priesthood, lessens the power credit to ourselves and honor to of Satan on the earth, and increase God, according to his design and the power of God and of Godliness. sident Joseph Young, whose state of health did not admit of his being present. Brethren and Sisters, I arise upon this stone to appounce to you that Jesus, Amen.

He was followed by

WOODBUFF who said-

time in all their efforts to They are operating in the inter urtail and wrest fre al rights; with a view to bring us under the roke of bondages at the same time a growing feeting of un-ion and obscience to the laws of heaven, is manifested throughout all Israel, and a pleasant and agree. able feeling prevails. This state of ed in the great work that we are things contrasted with our past engaged in. We find on our side history should cause the heart of God, and the holy angels, the each person here to-day, witness- patriarchs, prophets and apostles, ing this most interesting, most and the men of God who have pleasing spectacle, to be raised in lived before and still live. All feel thanksgiving and praise to our interested in the great work of God kind Father in the heavens, for The Twelve are also interested with these most favorable circumstances. them and united with the First with the promise that they shall continue increasedly in propertion we are one. We are also one with to our faithfulness and diligence in truly serving him. truly serving him. May the God of Israel pour out of the everiasting covenant, one in ing this ground, for the location of his Spirit upon the Quorum of the building up Zion and establishing this Temple. Little did I think Twelve, and upon all the quorums the Kingdom of God, one in saving of the Melchisedec and Aaronic the living and the dead, redeeming was foreign to all who were present Priesthoods, that they may all be and renovating and purifying the on that occasion, that before these corner stones should be laid he would be numbered with those senting a solid, unbroken phalanx, build up this Temple and his Zion build up this Temple and his Zion would be humbered with those senting a solid, unbroken phalanx, who, like him, have passed to the other side of the vall; but so it is. Our brother and friend has gone, and while we feel to cherish and to pay servants. God bless you Latterand he will most assuredly help us, and holy angels will also help us, together with the prophets and holy men of old who have gone a tribute of respect to his memory, let, our hearts be raised in praise and thanksgiving to God our Father that the keys of the priesthood which he held still in the reward of your labors; and before. We will be one with them, and they with us, and we will build up Zion; and work for God. Sus-tained by him and the priesthood remain in the possession of his fel-low-servants who tarry on the earth! That the work commenced our departed leaders and all the quering to conquer until every household of faith, and thence to come forth in the resurrection morn, clothed in glory and eternal the glory of God the Father. lives, is my prayer in the name of And I ask my Heavenly Father to esus, Amen. The next to speak was ELDER EO. O. CANNON, his remarks were bless you, and to bless all these quorums; I ask God, my Heavenly Father, to bless my brethren of the Jesus, Amen. GEO. Q. CANNON, his remarks were Twelve, and to fill and inspire as follows-them with the Spirit and power of the living God. I ask my heaven-This is one of the occasions, brethren and sisters, when our by Father also to bless our venera-ble Bishop and his Counselors, and all the Bishops, that the spirit of their office and calling may be with them. And I pray that these blessings may rest upon all of the Presidents of Stakes and their Counselors that they may stand forth as men of God in Israel, and help finally the whole programme shall be accomplished, the earth reclaim-ed and its inhabitants sanctified and redeemed. I feel that it is a great privilege we have, we hingdom. And I ask God my Eternal Father to bless the Bevenand enable us, his people, to be side in these valleys, of participat-faithful and diligent, that we may have the best the sevenser Priestbood and all Israel. God bless you in this place, and lead you in the paths of life, that we may be saved in his kingdom, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen. The choir under the leadership of Brother Alexander Lewis, again sang, "Let Zion in her beauty rise, Her light begins to shise." And ELDER BRIGHAM YOUNG offered the closing prayer as fol-

Father in heaven, in the name of tude of our hearts that we have been privileged to assemble in peace to lay the four corner stones all of his faithful servants who have builder is God. May the God of stood firm, steadfast and true while they were here upon the earth, and poses on the earth, in the name of every person present who has been of the Temple which we are seeking to erect to Thy Holy Name in prepared to receive it has been filled this place. We feel grateful unto the that we behold this day, and the that we behold this day, and for the pleasing circumstances ELDER work which will in time result in which now surround us. We thank the complete overthrow of the thee for the union that exists in the I am satisfied there is great repower of Satan upon the earth, and midst of thy people, and for the folcing this day in the spirit world. of all those evil influences, of all faith manifested in their hearts. We have a large assembly of per- that misrule and oppression, and of We pray thee, Father, to dismiss us with thy blessing, and may we sons here witnessing the ceremoall the wickedness that now causes earth itself to groan and all its go to our homes with a renewed de nies, who tabernacle in the flesh. If our eyes were opened so that we inhabitants to mourn; we are en- termination to exert ourselves in could see those around us who too gaged in the work that will sweep the future, more than we have in are witnessing quite as intently and evil from off the face of the earth anxiously these proceedings as we and establish the reign of peace and purposes, and the great mission as signed to us here in this life. are, and very probably more so, of truth and of righteousness, where where we now behold one, there the honest and the meek and the would be hundreds of thousands. lowly shall have their rights and The Prophet Joseph is not dead, none dare to molest or make them with him; they are alive and work. Brethern and sisters, let us go to with him; they are alive and work Brethern and sisters, let us go to are; that union of purpose may ex-ing energetically in the same great with our might, let us emulate the tend the keys of power, and enable cause; and they and the hosts of examples of those who have prethe spirits of men rejoice when the ceded us, especially of those who foundation and every stone of a have lived in our day-the prophet temple is laid; for they will know Joseph, the prophet Brigham and unto thee ourselves with all we salvation depends upon these hind the vall. Let us labor with posses, in the name of Jesus Amen. things. Joseph Smith, although our might as they did, spending separated from us, is one with us; our lives and our strength and ou Brigham Young is still with us, energies, and all that God has placed and I say and declare to you and to within our reach to accomplish this all men, that not only they, but great work and hasten its consumevery apostle and all good men that mation. That the Lord may bless ever lived upon the earth, are with you all in this valley, the Priestus; their eyes are watching our pro- hood and the Saints, and all your ceedings; and in fact God himself flocks and herds, your habitations with all the hosts of heaven are also and your families and everything engaged in this work; and yet the pertaining to you is my prayer in and the utmost good order prevail-whole of it pertaining to the flesh the name of Jesus. Amen. ed. There was not the least need FLDER BRIGHAM YOUNG then for the services of even a policedevolves upon the Latter-day Saints in these valleys of the mounsaid-I am thankful for this opportuand hasten the building of this nity of meeting with my brethren and sisters to participate in the lay-Temple, and never stop until it is finished. And then we will coning of the corner stones of this Temtinue on and build others else-Thank God we behold this where, and not rest from our labors day! I believe this is the seventh while we tarry in the flesh; but Temple that the Latter-day Saints during the entire ceremonies to have commenced in this dispensa-tion to rear to the name of the Most be a day long to be remembered by ever labor for and guard and defend the interests of our our Father's kingdom, performing ev-ery duty, remaining true and faith-High God. I most perfectly agree with the ings. No person present could fail ful to death, that we may inherit eternal lives. And that we may sed you, in the view that ev do so, is my prayer in the name of step we take in this direction wil lessen the power of the adversary of the souls of men, who has ruled ELDER CHAS C. RICH was the for so many centuries in the midst were softened and their eyes were of the nations of the earth, and who suffused with tears, because of the has so completely controlled the joy they had in taking part in so hearts of the children of disobedience. I thank God that the power of evil is being lessened. May God give us union of purpose Temple. and effort with power and ability to complete this building. May the same union and energy which characterized the people of this Stake of Zion, in building the Tabernacle in this city, be manifested by them in crecting this House unto the Lord, even more abundant-ly, and may all engaged in its erection, and those who minister therein, and those who receive blessings therein, for themselves and their dead, be greatly blessed, is my prayer in the name of Jesus.

Probate Judge-Blas Smith Stewart and E Malin Coroner-George, J. Taylor. Sheriff-Theodore McKean. Prosocuting Attorney-Z. Snow Assessor and Collector-Geo. Criston Treasurer-R. W East. County Clerk-D. Bockholt. County Recorder-Angus M Caunon School Superintendent -

Feramorz Little.

City Officers:

MATOR:

ALDERMEN: 1st Municipal Ward- Adam Spiers. Henry Dinwoodey.  3d A. H. Reisigh. 4th John Sharp. 5th Alex. C. Pypar. COUNCILORS

Brigham Young, John Henry Sam Nicholas Groesbeck, J. R. Winder, David the Lord Jesus Christ, we come be- O. Calder, George Reynelds, Elins More, fore thee at the close of these ser- & jab F. Shcets, Harrison Sperg.

C. 3. Attorney-Summer Howard Suveyor-General-General Kimball Beceiver of Public Moneye- M. M. has. Register of Land Office-Barbour Leva U. S. Assessor and Collector-0. J. Helly

CALENDAR,

1877

SEPTEMBER.

Sun. Mon. Tue. Wed. The Pri. Lat.

u

18

23 24 25 26 27 28 29

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY

United States Officers for Ulas.

Associate Justices-Jacob & Bores

Governor-Geo. W. Bmory.

Mo.: Philip H. Emerson, Mich.

Secretary, L P Luckey Chief Justice-Michael Schaster

Marshal-Wm. Nelson.

12

13

19 20 21 22

10

17

30

ter.

We are seek

Territorial Officers.

Delegate to Congress-Geo. Q. Canan Attorney-General-Zerubbabel Snow Auditor Wm. Clayton. Treasurer-James Jack. Superintendent of Common Schools-0. H Riggs

Salt Lake County Officers

Pelectmen - Reuben Miller, laar y

On Monday morning, at 7 o'clock a. m. the company left per special train with the addition to its numbers of the following: Elders L. J. Herrick, Lorin Farr, A. F. Farr and R. J. Taylor. On their arrival at Willard City, Bishep George W. Ward joined them, and at Brigham City Elders Lorenzo Snow, Oliver Snow and Bishop A. Nichols. These constituted the entire company until they reached Mendon, Cache County, where a number of the brethren awaiting power upon thy servants the Apostheir arrival rode with them to Logan, reaching that city at halfpast 10 a. m., where Presidents Moses Thatcher and W. B. Preston and others met them with conveyances sufficient to carry them to the centre of the city.

Many thousands of citizens were seen in every direction from both distant and near settlements, all wending their way to the place where they could obtain a sight of the interesting ceremonies about to be performed.

The site fixed upon for the Tem- ner stone, when the presiding Bishis one of commanding beanty, pre- op and his Counselors, assisted by senting as it does at tone glance a the President of the lesser priestpicturesque view of eleven settle- hood and the Bishops of the States including a comprehen- and their Counselors proce sive scope of country, with lay that stone, Bro. Parry and his an ample supply of water, and asso possessing a capacity of sus- rendering the necessary ail to put taining hundreds of thousands it into its true position. After the of families. And to all human ap- stone was laid BISHOP, EDWARD pearance not many years will pass HUNTER stood upon it and made away before that vast and beauti- the following remarks: ful country will be filled with pleasant homes, judging from the thousands of happy children fast approaching the marriageable age who now throng the settlements of Cache County.

A short time before 12 o'clock, the sweet tones of the Logan Brass Band gave the signal for the procession of the authorities, which was formed under the direction of Elder George Q. Cannon.

Music. Architect and Temple Workmen. Choir. The Apostles Patriarchs. rum. their Conns until it shall be completed and dedunto thee; we ask that no lcau rom doing this work; and that the building may stand a monument of efforts, a place wherein the thefr ordinances shall be performed and thy salvation be revealed. Bless all them for whom we should ask mercy. Roll on thy work, still gather thine Israel, and isli thy Zion. Insen thou hast taken unto thyself our Prophet and leader, we ask holy Father that thou wilt multiply temporal welfare of all. iles and counselors who remain, and increase union and strength among all this people. Bless thy servants everywhere in all the world who are engaged preaching thy Gospel. Guide us to a glorious end in the labors of this life, and glorify thyself of us in thy kingdom with the just and the sancti-fied, we ask through Jesus Christ, Amen. 10014 . annin 1008 The Choir sang the hymn, all yo Saints thronghout the earth

Your obcerful voic .: s raise." The procession then re-formed and moved to the south-west cor-cistes and Bro. T. O. Angel, Jr.

Brethren and sisters, we the Bish ops and Lesser Priestbood pro-nounce this south-west corner stone of the Logan Temple duly laid. We relate in the privilege of laying this south-west corner stone of the Logan Temple. These things are entrasted to our bands, and we ald magnify the priesthood that has been placed upon our heads, and always rejoice in this delegat ed power that the Lord has confirmed upon us to bless and be blessed, to build up his kingdom, and save ourselves and our dear through the merits of his Son ourSa vior, and through the medium of the

which shall bring joy to the hearts may connect this corner stone with of many. And we pray for those the others, already set and laid, in heaven bless and preserve us all, to who are called to guide the Saints such a mechanical manner as no the accomplishment of his purin this Stake of Zion. May they be filled with the light of truth and the revelations of thy will; and may workman need be ashamed of. And let us, as Latter-day Baints, prove ourselves workmen who need not be ashamed in bringing our brethren, thy servants of the esser priesthood living here, render forth our tithes and offerings with them that becoming and efficient which to accomplish this work, aid that, shall strengthen their that while we live here we may hands, always watching with a jealous ope after the spiritual interhave joy in our labors and duties, and when we go hence we, with our dead may then rejoice also. ests of the Church, that no iniquity may abound, and promoting the That God may add his blessin upon those present who hold his And now, our Father, we dediriesthood, and the same be and abide with these people, as well as upon the building of this House to his name, is the prayer of your humble servant, in the name of cate ourselves with all we command, our wives and children, our iouses and lands, our flocks and Jesus, Amen,

> When PRESIDENT HORACE S ELDREDGE offered the following dedicatory prayer-

Our Father who art in heaven. wilt thou look down upon us at this time is thy tender mercy, and let the influence of thy Holy Spirit be continued unto us; and accept, O Lord, of our grateful acknowledgements, even the gratitude of our heasts for this privilege we have this day of standing upon con-secrated ground to attend to these acred rites. We thank thee for the privilege granted unto us of rearing Temple to thy holy name, wherein we can receive those ordinances through which come thy blessings and we pray that thou will sanctify unto us every privilege and blessing, and help us to duly appreciate the same. Wilt thou accept of the labors thus far performed this day in the laying of these corner stones upon this land which has been containe. Brethren and sisters, arise secrated and dedicated by thy servants for this purpose. And bless and prosper every honorable and righteous means that shall be used to prosecute the labor building this Temple, the top stone be laid unti it and the structure completed: that this House itself may be ac cepted of thee, and thy Saints enter therein, and within its walls receive their washings and anoint-Jesus. Amen. ings and sealing ordinances, both for themselves and those who have gone before us. Grant, O Lord, next speaker. He said-that thy peace may abide upon this ground and its surroundings, and I will say to the brathren and sis the materials that shall be brought ters assembled, I rejoice exceeding-ly in being permitted to be present here for the construction of the Treasure Paul A. Schett Recorder-John T. Caine. Marshal-Andrew Burt. Auditor of Public Acor laine.

Asses scr and Collector-John R. Winder. Supervisor of Streets-William Hyde. Surveyor-Jesse W. For. Board of School Inspectors Park, Henry I Doremus.

Sealer of Weights and Measures-Martia

H. Peck. Captain of Police-Andrew Burt Water Master-William Hide. Inspector of Buildings .----Inspector of Wood and Lumber-H. Its woody.

lst Municipal Ward-Levi Riter

91

Samuel Turnbow

Millen Atwood.

(OFFICIAL)

ABBITALS.

Parley's Park, Big Col-

tonwood, and Wanably

Tuesdays, Thursdays and

Park City, daily except Fus-

Summit and Wasstah coun-

Rich county, Tuesday, Thurs-

tice, Tuesdays and Thursday days

- Davis county, daily

Weber county, daily

dorgan county, dally I when

Ogden,semi-daily 11 stam at st pia

wood and Wanship, Mon-

Hoise City and Idaho City.

Nevada, California. Un-

Ophir, Tooele, Stockton, Ja-

From Beaver an dintervielt-

Picolo, Star and San Krige

St. George and points with

Bingham Canyon, dally

cloo districts, daily and ar gon, etc.....

cob City, Ac.....

ate pointe, daily ...

ties, daily top m

daily it was

Parley's Park, Big Cotton-

Arrivals and Departures of Mails.

East-Through mail, daily......

Alta, daily-.....

Gideon H. C. Gibbs.

. 8 40 pm

... 11 40 a m

15.00

3 40 y 10

Inspector of Liquor. the past, to accomplish thy glorious In pector of Provisions. FENCE VIEWERS

21

4th

We dedicate ourselves unto thee, and ask that thy blessing may rest upon this assembly, and upon the Latter-day Baints wherever they us to build temples, towns and cities to thy name. And we ask all, our Father, humbly dedicating

The day was a magnificent one, and the people turned out in vast numbers. Upon no occasion when we ever witnessed so large a gathering of people was there less disorder. Every one seemed to feel the solemnity of the proceedings; man, or any person to manage the crowd to keep them within proper bounds. No crushing, no jostling, no noise, nor the least confusion. And there was not a single incident that occurred be a day long to be remembered by those who witnessed the proceedto be impressed by them; they were appropriate, effective and solemn; and the hearts of many persons were softened and their eyes were important a work as the laying of the foundation stones of another

"An angel from on high

Presidents Moses Thatcher, Wm. B. Preston, and M. J. Hpmmond, the Presidency of the Logan Stake and the Presidencies of other

Stakes. ELDER GLORGE L. FARRELL, President of the High Priests' Quorum of Logan Stake, then ascended the stone and spoke as follows:

Brethren and sisters in behalf of of the high priests and presidents of stakes I now stand before you upon this north-west corner stone of the Logan Temple, and declare it firmly and duely laid. And my prayer is that as high priests and presidents of this and other stakes of Zion, and as the Latter-day Saints we may always have a desire to labor for the building up of the Kingdom of God, and that our ef-forts may not flag, and our power to do good increase day by day, and houses and lands, our flocks and herds and all we possess, unto thee, the Lord our Ged; and humbly pray that we, with our possessions, may be accepted of thee, to be used in the building up of thy kingdom, and the accomplishment of thy wise and holy designs in reclaiming, redeeming and saving all the works of thy hands; and in battling with and contending against error and sin until Satan is bound, and thy will be done ou earth as angels do will be done ou earth as angels do in heaven, in and through the wor-thy name of Jesus, our Savior and Redeemer, even so, amen.

The Choir then eaug the hymu-The long, long allence broke."

The procession again formed and proceeded to the northwest corner stone, which was laid by the President of the High Priests' quorum,