NEWMAN.—In Salt Lake City, Friday, Feb. 15th, at ten minutes to twelve o'clock p. m., Henry Geo. Newman, of Pleasant Grove, Utah County.

Deceased was the son of Wm. Newman and Charlotte Callaway; was born January 9th, 1818, at Lye Hill, Parish of Burbage, Wilts, England.

At an early age he embraced the Gospel in his native land, as soon as it was made known to him. Was a man of sterling worth and firm integrity; always a kind friend to the Elders traveling in that district; went through many persecutions for the Gospel's sake, but it only made him more zealous for the truth. He was an exemplary man both in his walk and conduct, and both he and his wife did their utmost for the spreading of the Gospel in that region of country, in delivering tracts, preaching, etc. Emigrated to Utah with his family in 1868, besides bringing out an adopted daughter, and assisting many others; settled in Pleasant Grove, Utah County, and has since been a resident of that place. He leaves a numerous posterity, three sons and three daughters, and twenty-one grandchildren to mourn his departure. May he rest in peace till the morning of the first resurrection.—[COM.]
