Marw'r anwyl fam a'm hymddug

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, 8.—It is rumored in army circles that Gen. O. O. Howard will be promoted to the rank of Major General, vice Meade deceased, and be at once retired with the full grade of Major General, on account of his long and faithful services and wounds received therein. The retirement of Howard would still leave a vacancy, which probably would be filled by the promotion of Terry or Canby.

MONTGOMERY.—Grant has carried Alabama, by from 4,000 to 6,000.

AUGUSTA, Me., 8—Official returns show the majority of Grant to be 26, 325.

CLEVELAND, O., 8.—Within this week the police have been working up a case of horse stealing. They have captured 12 horses, 16 buggies, one wagon and a large quantity of harness, all stolen by one man, Kritjako. He commenced last April stealing horses in an adjoining county and selling them in this city. He fled, but was arrested yesterday and brought to this city.

AUGUSTA, Ga., 8.—Seventy-four counties, polling 60,000 votes, give Greeley a majority of 5,621. The vote for O'Conor in the same counties is only 1,666.

NEW YORK, 8.—Judge Fancher has issued a writ of habeas corpus and certiorari in the case of Alfred Largrave arrested in France and brought in this city on the charge of burglary. The petition on which the writ is granted states that, having been brought to this city on a criminal charge, from France, on board a French vessel, and being arrested on a civil action before the vessel was moored in the dock, Largrove is under the protection of the public of France, and cannot be held under arrest on a civil action.

BOSTON, 8.—The mutilated body found in two barrels in Charles river proves to be that of Abijah Ellis.

ST. LOUIS, 8.—The Democrat this morning estimates the legislatures, Senate, Republicans 13, Democrats 18; Liberals 3; House, Republicans 38, Democrats 54, Independent 1.

PHILADELPHIA, 8.—Gen. Prevost, commanding the first division of the national guard, invites all military organizations of the department lately commanded by the deceased General Meade to attend his funeral on Monday.

BOSTON, Me., 8.—The oakum factory of Gorsham, Train & Co., Norfolk, was burned this morning. A workman named Callahan perished in the flames, and his son was seriously injured. Pecuniary loss small.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 8.—The diplomatic corps made a congratulatory call on the President to-day, who, in company with the members of the Cabinet gave them a cordial reception.

The President continues to receive a large number of congratulatory telegrams. One from Jno. S. Moseby says Virginia has gone for the Grant ticket.

NEW YORK, 8.—At the inquest over the body of Donohue, murdered by Scannell, a verdict was given that the death of Donohue was caused by deliberate shooting by Scannell. The prisoner was sent to the Tombs.

NEW YORK, 8.—The steamer Mord Castle arrived this afternoon, bringing some of the survivors of the ill-fated steamer Missouri. Wm. Jones states that on Tuesday, Oct. 22, at 9 a.m., the cry of fire was raised. Its origin was supposed to be in the fire room near gratings. At this time all hands were reefing the fore topsail. It was blowing a gale from the east-north-east. The first and second officers were on deck at the time, and we were ordered at once to attach the hose donkey pumps. We set to work with a will, but inside of 20 minutes it was found that the ship must be abandoned. Most of the passengers were at breakfast at the time, but when the cry of fire was raised they hurried on deck, but there was no confusion. There were three boats launched, one of which was burned, one swamped with nine passengers in it, and one turned bottom up with two sailors in it. The one in which my comrades and I were saved was maneuvering around the ship for over two hours, but, owing to the heavy sea, found it impossible to render any assistance. We saw the burning ship up to about half-past two. There were about 37 passengers and 54 of the crew. Before leaving the ship we did everything we could to assist the swamped boat. The captain and officers acted with the utmost coolness, and everything possible was done to extinguish the fire. The statement of the other survivor corroborates the story of Jones.

BUFFALO, N. Y., 8.—The barge Forrest Queen, laden with lumber, while in tow of a tug, during last night, cut loose seven miles outside of the breakwater, and is supposed to be lost, with all hands.

EUROPEAN.

PARIS, 8.—The specie of the Bank of France increased one million francs during the week.

MADRID, 8.—The Epoca publishes a letter from Cadiz reporting a conspiracy to inaugurate a serious insurrectionary movement, which was actively fostered by the internationalists, among the employees at the royal dockyard arsenal near Cadiz, and that the attempt was squelched.
