

JUNK DEALERS TO BE RESTRAINED.

Ordinance in Course of Preparation Which Will Make Them Behave.

MUST NOT BUY FROM MINORS.

Licenses to be Increased and All Goods Bought Must be Kept Ten Days.

A number of complaints have been made by City Engineer Snow and Supt. of Waterworks Hines that a lot of iron fixtures belonging to the city had been stolen and sold to the junk dealers, and a request has been made upon the city attorney by the first named official to draw up an ordinance placing some restrictions upon junk dealers so that stolen property may be recovered before it is shipped away or altered.

On a number of occasions the iron covers for stone monuments placed by the city engineer have been stolen. Such pieces cost the city several dollars but are probably sold to junk dealers at a few cents. Such is the case in the waterworks department where oftentimes pieces of iron which are valuable to the city are stolen and disposed of in the same manner.

An ordinance will be submitted to the council in the near future which will increase the license of junk dealers and will require them to keep articles sold to them, without altering them at all, for a period of probably 10 days. The ordinance will also make it unlawful for dealers to sell junk from minors. A heavy penalty will be imposed for violations of the ordinance.

Engel and Mrs. Margaret Flynn were married in this city during the first week in March, 1903. The letter states that Mr. Engel is heir to a fortune in that state. A search of the records made by Mr. James disclosed the fact that Mr. Engel and Margaret Grabowski secured a marriage license in his office and were married on March 4, 1903, by Rev. William H. JOSEPH E. SMITH.

ORLOB'S OPERA.

His "Merry Grafters" Was Warmly Received at Detroit Last Night.

Harold Orlob's comic opera, "The Merry Grafters," was presented with success last evening in the Detroit Opera House in aid of a local charity. The young composer was given an ovation, as his score is regarded in that musical city as a work of high order. The opera will be given again tonight and tomorrow. The libretto is written by Dr. E. L. Shurly, a well known Detroit physician, and the wit of the libretto combined with the sparkling music from Mr. Orlob's pen, make a combination that is greatly talked with the Detroit papers and the public. Mr. Orlob is not yet 21 years of age, so that he has evidently a bright future. He is the son of Mr. C. A. Orlob of Z. C. M. I., and the latter is being congratulated today on the success of his musical son.

J. B. HUME DEAD.

Old Frontiersman Who Was Well Known Here Passes Away.

Word has reached this city of the death at San Francisco of J. B. Hume, who was once well known all through this intermountain country. Mr. Hume was a special officer in the employ of the Wells-Fargo Express company early in the sixties, when he distinguished himself by the capture of an important gang of road agents who had been robbing the stages. The robbers gave the stage drivers receipts signed by the former as representatives of the Southern Confederacy, and it was subsequently claimed by their lawyers that this made the robberies an act of legitimate warfare. The courts, however, failed to see it in that light, and the road agents were hung.

LITTLE CHIEF HIGHER.

The Advance Explained—Sales of Other Stocks.

It was currently reported on the Mining Exchange today that Supt. Hennefin had broken into a good shoot of ore in the Little Chief mine, which accounted for the rise in the price of the stock. President Moritz, when seen, admitted that ore had been found, but how much and how good he did not care to express himself. In fact, he declared, he did not know. The stock sold up to 2 1/2 cents this afternoon. Butler-Liberal continued firm, while May Day lowered.

The sales posted were: May Day, 2,500 at 4 1/4; Star Con., 500 at 1 1/4; 1,000 at 1 1/4; Butler-Liberal, 500 at 1 1/4; 500 at 1 1/4; Little Chief, 1,000 at 2 1/4.

MAY PROVE ALIBI.

However Friends of Gerber Said to Have Been Too Active.

The case of the state vs. A. E. Gerber will probably be submitted to the jury today in Judge Morse's court, as nearly all of the evidence was in when the court adjourned for the noon recess. Gerber is charged with criminal relations with Annie Estell, a 17-year-old girl, in this city on March 2, 1903. The testimony for the defense tends to prove an alibi for Gerber, but the cross-examination of the witnesses for the defense has not been very favorable to Gerber and has indicated that his friends have been a little too active in their desire to establish an alibi in his behalf.

COURT NOTES.

In the case of Castina J. Treseott et al., trustees of the Nineteenth Ward Relief society against N. H. Judge Hall today rendered a decree in favor of plaintiff in the case of Thomas A. Tennant against Jane A. Tennant an incompetent person, which was filed in the district court yesterday. The court decrees that the loan of $5,700 made by plaintiff upon the property, in which both plaintiff and defendant are interested, is superior to a lien of defendant for $25 per month for her support and also superior to a loan of $5,200 made by her on the property.

LEASERS BUSY IN TINTIC MINES.

The Lilly Mining Company Has Let its Property Out for a Period of Two Years.

SHIPMENTS FROM MAMMOTH.

Company is Operating With Force of 100 Men—May Day Working Light Handed.

Special Correspondence.
Eureka, May 20.—J. R. Vance of Robinson and Dan Trauter, formerly foreman of the Mammoth mine, have taken a lease on the 300-level of the Bullion-Beck mine.

John Bonnett and Alfred Jorgensen have secured a two years' lease on the old Lilly mine, located in the east end of the district, and have commenced operations. They are running a drift to the southeast of the 275-foot level for the purpose of tapping the vein encountered 90 feet above. The mine is a silver-lead proposition.

C. E. Loose was out from Provo this week inspecting the workings of the Grand Central mine.

The services of night engineer at the Beck mine have been dispensed with. The shift is small and no work being done below the 300-level, the boys have to climb the ladders when their night's labor is completed.

Owing to lack of funds the force at the May Day is rather small at present and prospecting work is not moving very rapidly, but Supt. Hal F. Gear is very much pleased with the showing at the property. In the Yankee slope some fine ore has been encountered, and in other portions of the mine ore has been uncovered, which, when put on the market, will probably put the property in good shape financially.

The shaft of the Tinto will be sunk to greater depth and now that the new hoist is in working order, shipments from the property will be made regularly.

Ed Barnard and Elmer Boyle have presented the Eureka public school with a valuable cabinet of minerals taken from the mines of Tintic district.

The shipments of first-class ore from the Mammoth mine are grown heavier every week and a force of about 100 men are employed in the mine gathering ore for shipment.

The property of the La Cade at Silver City is looking as fine as it ever did. Supt. Thos. Weir visited the mine this week and is well pleased with the output of the property. Ores carrying values in gold, copper and silver are being regularly hoisted to the surface, from the 300-foot level. Mr. Weir favors sinking the shaft to a greater depth in connection with the other work now in progress, and no doubt his suggestion will be favorably acted on by the stockholders.

There is a business deal in progress between A. E. Lyon, the well known jeweler, and the J. H. Lyon company, looking towards the transfer of Mr. Lyon's entire stock to the latter. But there seems to be a difference of opinion between the parties as to the present status of the transaction. A "News" reporter was told, this noon, at the Lyon store that it was complete, with the consideration at $50,000; also, that Mr. Lyon would not continue in business, and the stone building on south East Temple street being entirely remodelled, operations especially for Mr. Lyon, would be moved for other purposes. However, Mr. Lyon said a little later that there was a deal on, but it was not completed, and it might, after all, fall through. He also said his stock would inventory $50,000 to $60,000. Moreover, he proposed to continue in business, and the building now being remodelled would be occupied by him.

THE JAG'S PERSPICACITY.

He was in a condition commonly described as "three sheets in the atmosphere" when he boarded a 10 o'clock northbound car on Calvert street a few nights ago.

He smiled happily, though rather unintelligently, at the passengers who smoked on the back platform. Then he saw the conductor.

Approaching that dignitary with a confidential air, he beckoned him aside, and said:

"Thass mo'orman up ther'n front, ain't it?"

"Yes," said the conductor conciliatingly.

"I thought thass mo'orman front soon I seen 'im," explained the drunk man, still confidentially.

After a short time he again approached the conductor and said in the same confidential way:

"Thass mo'orman up ther'n front, ain't it?"

"Yes," said the conductor, patiently, "it is."

At intervals of two minutes the same important question was sprung by the disciple of John Barleycorn, until the conductor had almost lost patience. At last that busy man said petulantly:

"Oh, cut that out—of course that's the mo'orman!"
