(For the Deseret News.) SOCIAL HALL.

On New Year's day, after the serenading visits to the Presidency, &c., as referred to in a communication in our last. At one P. u. tho doors of the Social Hall were opened to company for the first time, and a select party, with the Corps Dramatique began to assemble. At 3 the company was called to order by President Kimball, when Mr. Dunbar sang the song "1'm a Saint, I'm a Saint," &c, the dedication prayer was then offered by Elder Amasa Lyman, followed by the song "Speak no fil," by Mr. Dunbar, inst. Splendidly embellished invitation cards, and gave the following
