BOYS ASSAULT CHINAMAN.

Probate Business Transacted in the District Court-Jurors Excused.

porter N. Pierce Fined for "Mailelous" Conduct-Mrs. Banford Granted a Divorce,

Orlin Shaw and Willie Stone, two toys aged about eighteen years, who reside at Mound Fort, were arrested and placed in the city jail late yesterday afternoon by Officer Burk, on the charge of assault and battery. The boys yesterday morning went to the but of a Chinaman named Too Fou. who farms on lower Twelfth street. Yesterday being China New Year's the Chinamen usually celebrate and treat their white friends to cigars, candy, etc., and the boys were received kindly by the Celestial, who, it is said, gave them cigars and China candy. The two boys left the garden, but returned again after dinner, and wanted some more cigars, etc., but the Mongolian refused to satisfy their wants, whereupon the boys, it is alleged, became angry and beat the Chinaman over the head with a club and rocks, cutting nose open and a gash over his eye, causing the blood to run profusely. The boys then ran away, but the Chinaman knowing who the boys were, reported the matter to the police, who placed the miscreants under arrest. The boys claim that the Chinaman struck them first and they only defended themselves with their fists. They will be given a hearing before Judge How-

PORTER N. PIERCE FINED. Porter N. Pierce, who resides at Five Points, was arrested yesterday by De-puty Sherin E. S. Crocker on the charge of maliciously taking out the windows from a house belonging to himself, which was occupied by a Mrs. Willis, who was the complaining witness in the action. Mr. Pierce is the owner of a house at Five Points which is occupied by Mrs. Willis. The landlord desired that the lady should vacate the house which she did not do, hence Mr. Pierce went over to the house a few days ago and threatened to take the windows out of the dwelling unless the tenant would move out, which she refused to do and Mr. Pierce took out one of the windows, but fearing that he had made a mistake in so doing he put the window back in place in a few minutes. He had his hearing before Justice Parker J. Hall, and was found sullty and fined $1 and cost amounting in all to $5.50, which he paid and was

SURPRISING THEFTS.

This morning Joseph Raymond Snow and Parley Bingham were in the police court on the charge of pettit larceny. Snow had been in the employ of Scow-croft & Sons as nightwatchman since last July and for a time was a thoroughly trusted employe. From the middle of last October to January of the Present year it was observed that small quantities of goods in the grocery line ere constantly disappearing from store. It is estimbated that about $200 worth were taken away. It is alleged that Snow permitted his wife and Bingham to do the stealing. The two men wcroft imposed a nominal fine of only $5. He, however, administerd a very severe reprimand to the offenders, after which they were dis-

Wells Going Dry - Irrigation Canal Meeting.

Special Correspondence. Spanish Fork. Utah, Feb. 6.—The weather has moderated in the last day or two so that the streets are all mud again. We are feeling the drouth of last summer now in the wells going One great drawback here is the lack of water supply for domestic purposes. There could be no better investment by the city than to secure a water supply for domestic purposes Last summer, the people met and discussed the question, and a favorable sentiment expressed. The last city council started in the matter by having the water of some springs near the mouth of the canyon analyzed. present council would take it up, and carry it on, more good could be accomplished than in any other manner, IRRIGATION CANAL MEETING. Last Tuesday was the annual meet-ing of the Spanish Fork West Field Irrigation company for the purpose of electing officers. Last year the meeting was particularly warm, in fact, there was "a hot time in the old town all day." But the differences that caused so much agitation then seems to have been healed over, and this last one was very quiet. Mr. Fred Matley was elected president by acclamation, and all went peaceably.
