"PENNY" GOSSIP.

Next Thursday evening at the Western Anns & Sporting Goods store the annual meeting of the Salt Lake Gun club will be held.

At Hot Springs, Ark., last evening Tom-my Ryan picked up some easy money by knocking out in the fifth round Dave Barry. The promoters who made the match should be arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses.

New York, Feb. 5 .- The fifth game of the chees championship match between Dr. Emmanuel Lasker and Frank J. Mar-shall, played today, was drawn after 41 moves. Present score: Lasker, 3; Mar-shall, 0: drawn, 2

Mike Schreck, the hard luck champion, now seems to have a chance to enter the ring with his old rival. Tommy Burns, cleamant of the heavyweight title. But at what terms! Burns is coming Nolan on the proposed match and wants 75 per cent win, lose or draw. Looks like Tommy was a wee bit afraid of Mike.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 5.—When inform-ed of the passage of the anti-race betting bill by the lower house at Nashville to-day Secretary MacFarlan of the Mem-phis Jockey club, said he did not believe the constitutionality of the bill would be attacked. Mr. MacFarlan said racing in Tennessee is apparently dead.

Tennossee is apparently dead. Tommy Sullivan has not challenged Abe Attell. San Francisco offers them a fight at 122 pounds ringside. Tommy says he'll fight Attell at that weight if the club will put up Si0.00 or more. Information comes from New Orleans to the effect that the little hait-mile face track at Algiers, which was regarded in the nature of a joke when it began to hold meetings every Sunday last winter, now threatens to menace racing in that city. The men behind it have not only defed the governing racing authori-ties in the west, but they intend to car-ry the warfar - life further and will ereot a more substantial plant this summer, in order to fight the older associations. The club has cleared many thousands of dollars, mainly through its Sunday meet-ings, and it is ready to invest this money is tards and stables.

Joe Walcott, although a wonder, was never popular. He faked too often. So with Jack O'Brien, who became a really very clever fighter. Jack never hesitated when it came to framing up a bout. Whenever he met a dangerous man in his own town, Baitmore, or Boston, he either usd the other fellow's hands' with an "agreement" or had a string on the referet.

ing so, putting on a sweater, jumper, ov-erails and a cap, plunged into the base-ment and began cleaning out the fur-nace. After the job was completed he conceived the idea of cleaning out the flues and chimney. The decided there was no better way to do it than by using paper, rass, etc., soaked with coal oll. Shortly after the stuff was touched off the judge discov-ered that the house was getting most un-contortably warm-then it got hot. Rush-ing into the basement he was horrified to find the stone wall red-hot. In the meantime, burning paper, rass, soot and eparks were going skyward from the chimney. sparks were going enyward from the chimney. The judge walted no longer. He did not take the case "under advisement" but promptly went to the 'phone and called for the chemical engine. The latter ar-rived on scheduled time but was not used as the "free" burned itself out. No damaze was done beyond giving the family a fright.

gave a housewarming hast high in the new lodge rooms on the second floor of the Odd Fellows' block, at which about 300 of the members and their friends disported themselves un-til a late hour. The occasion was the removal of the lodge from its old quarters, on the third floor of the same building to the commodious new quarters on the second floor. The chief feature of the evening was the exhibition of fancy drilling given by the team under the com-mand of Capt. Weber. Fourteen years' experience in Uncle Sam's army gave Capt. Weber a good start in military tactics, and that he has im-proved upon these considerably in bringing the Woodmen up to the standard exhibited in their drill last night, is the opinion of many. Be-sides the drilling number, the program included several musical and literary efforts that were very creditable, and entertaining. A special features was a recitation by several little girls dress-ed in white. An interesting talk was made by Mr. Sullivan on the history of the order.

of the order. Among those active in the prepara-tion of the entertainment, and to whom a large measure of its success is due, are G. V. Savage, Miss Clara Weber, Harry A. James, Carl Weenig, Miss Edna Morris, Mr. Sullivan, Alvin Keddington, Miss M. O'Connor, V. R. Savage, Miss Branning, I. J. Brind, Capt, Weber, Miss Malmquist.
