

ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

Notes.

The town burglar and his wife will enter their plea to March 8th.

Real estate transfers amounted to $1,000 yesterday.

Frank Greenwald was sentenced to ninety days in the penitentiary for adultery yesterday.

A concert will be given in the Tabernacle by the Ogden Choral society, assisted by Mr. Foster, tonight.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

First District Court.

Thelma was transferred to Judge Marshall's court at Provo.

Harvey La Jolla was found guilty of fornication, and will be sentenced March 8th.

The next case on the docket was that of a man charged with the murder of a woman, with two companions, in the residence of Mrs. La Jolla, at Provo, on the evening of January 23rd, 1903, during that lady's absence, and charged her daughter. The case was tried and adjourned to the 8th.

Walter Thompson, of Ogden, was sent to the penitentiary for one year and ordered to pay $100 and costs of court, for perjury.

Logan Paul was arraigned on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, by wearing a valuable ring to H. M. Douglas, for $50, representing that it was the value ring he had purchased on a previous occasion, and which contained a valuable diamond setting. The ring was found to be a fake, but the case was changed.

Cases were set for trial as follows:

United States vs. Robert Shaw, March 8th.

United States vs. Samuel Foster, March 8th.

People vs. H. F. Johnson et al., March 8th.

United States vs. H. F. Mason, posing counterfeit money, March 8th.

People vs. Anne Collier et al., March 8th.

People vs. J. W. Taylor, March 8th.

R. Y. A. Summer Institute.

The R. Y. A. Summer Institute for 1904 promises to be even a greater success than that of last year. The services of Professor Hinckley, who fills the chair of pedagogy at the University of Michigan, have been secured. Prof. H. Chad Jr., who is now making an educational tour of the West, will secure the services of a number of other eminent professors before he returns. The institute opens in June.

Notes.

A marriage license has been issued to William Hines of Provo, Salt Lake county, aged 33, and Evelyn Johnson, aged 25, of American Fork.

It is understood that John W. Smith and C. H. Hallett of Westminster, the owners of Great Salt Lake, will not receive any preliminary examination, but will be taken directly before the grand jury, which is now in session.

The board of education have extended to close the schools of Provo, April 27, 1904, making the length of the school year thirty weeks or three terms. The year's course of study will, however, not be curtailed, as the teachers have been working with more activity than usual, and will continue so to the last of the year.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

Sold the Cattle.

Joseph Kimball, of Logan, has returned from Ogden to which place he went with seven or eight of cattle which he succeeded in disposing of to good advantage. His little herd has been shipped to Salt Lake by the cattle cars during this winter.

Miscellaneous Mention.

On Friday evening the Hyrum band gave a treat in the Casino & Hotel hall.

Two evening the Logan Mandolin club and Silver Chorus band gave a concert and ball at Hyrum.

Our famous farmer, H. C. Elston, took part in a contest at Ogden in the chess board at last place.

On Monday a band of twenty-five brass was in at Sheriff's sale of Joseph Marshall, for $100. One of the animals, a fine stallion, was valued at $100.

Harriet J. C. Kinsler's delivery train was wrecked on Thursday. The train was wrecked against a telephone pole and burned, but no other damage was done.

Spring events in horse raising, a local war, weather and snowing etc. have, if the present weather continues, continuing will soon be spoken of in the past year.

Mr. Alex Nishitake is delivering a series of lectures on Hydropathy, a practice by Mrs. Nishitake (a physician). Many students are attending in the "water cure" in this way.

The lecture given by Prof. J. H.

ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

Notes.

The town burglar and his wife will enter their plea to March 8th.

Real estate transfers amounted to $1,000 yesterday.

Frank Greenwald was sentenced to ninety days in the penitentiary for adultery yesterday.

A concert will be given in the Tabernacle by the Ogden Choral society, assisted by Mr. Foster, tonight.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

Notes.

The town burglar and his wife will enter their plea to March 8th.

Real estate transfers amounted to $1,000 yesterday.

Frank Greenwald was sentenced to ninety days in the penitentiary for adultery yesterday.

A concert will be given in the Tabernacle by the Ogden Choral society, assisted by Mr. Foster, tonight.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - MARCH 1, 1904.

Notes.

The town burglar and his wife will enter their plea to March 8th.

Real estate transfers amounted to $1,000 yesterday.

Frank Greenwald was sentenced to ninety days in the penitentiary for adultery yesterday.

A concert will be given in the Tabernacle by the Ogden Choral society, assisted by Mr. Foster, tonight.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.

Mr. J. J. Lamy, the advance representative for Ward & James, is in the city struggling for the appearance of his company at the trial in the near future.

The fire department was called out at about 10:55 last night to extinguish a small fire in Carr's drug store, on the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Great avenue. The loss was estimated by the chemical bureau at $500.

Anna Johnson and Mahel Loomis were before Judge Gibson, to undergo an examination as to their sanity yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Loomis was adjudged insane and will be sent to the asylum at Provo. Anna Johnson was discharged.

The case of J. W. Stephens vs. Marshall failed to come on for trial in the Fourth district court yesterday.

Walter Lamoreaux, of Logan, arrived in the city yesterday. It is his intention to make Ogden his home in future.