A MUSICAL WEEK,

A MUSICAL WEEK, The opera "Olivatic," given Saturday by the tabernarcle choir, assisted by Miss Ida Peterson, was well intended, and a very successful effort, reflecting great credit on Prof. Boshard and his excellent choir. "Olivette" will be given again tonight and tomorrow night. On Friday evening Mrs. Ida S. Du-senberry's kindergarten class will ap-prar in the opera house in an operetta. None of the performers is over six years of are, and a very pleasing and hovel musical entertainment is prom-ised in behalf of the little folks. This, with the opereta to be given Wednesday and Thursday evenings. It is the garden spot of southern Idaho and is truly lovely for situation. Many eautiful brick and cut sand stone ulidings are seen on the ranches, as well as on the townsite. There is an immense deposit of soft sandstone close o town which, when hist quarried, can se cut almost as cany as choose, but hardens with age and exposure. The new word tabernacle is being built of this beautiful rock and it is in blocks large enough to be ornamental. When finished this will be one of the handsomest churches in the state. The Co-op store (the Descret News agency) is under the able management of Israel Goodmansen, Esq., and does a yearly basiness between fifty and sixty thousand dollars. This building is also or white sandstone, and has an opera beam to the mound store.
