JAPANESE INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Were Returning From the Burial Of a Countryman When Accident Occurred.

DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER.

Libel Cases Against William Glasmann And Standard Publishing Co. Begin.

Ogden, Utah, Dec. 18.—Three Japanese, while returning home from the funeral of a fellow countryman yesterday afternoon, had a narrow escape from death in a runaway, as the result of which two of them are confined to the Japanese hospital in this city and one is at home, receiving attention for many bruises.

A Japanese, who died while in a fit of grief, was buried yesterday afternoon and a large number of his countrymen attended the funeral, accompanying the remains to the city cemetery in closed carriages. On the return from the cemetery one of the teams became unmanageable and dashed down Twenty-third street hill at a great speed. When near the corner of Twenty-third street and Washington avenue, the driver, realizing that it was impossible to stop the horses, which were running directly into a telegraph pole, jumped and escaped with severe bruises. The horses parted at the pole and dashed against the pole with great force, crushing the whole front in. The three Japanese were inside and received severe injuries from the broken plate glass windows of the carriage, and were also badly shaken up. Help was soon at hand and the men were taken to the hospital. J. Shima received a cut four inches over his left eye and other smaller cuts. Roy Endou was badly cut on the back of the neck and bruised. The other Jap received slight injuries. One of the horses, which belonged to the Japanese stable, was terribly cut on the leg and almost bled to death.

DEATH OF MRS. HOLMES.

An Estimable Young Woman Called To the Beyond.

Ogden, Dec. 18.—Mrs. Alta May Holmes, a highly esteemed young lady of Ogden City, aged 26 years, died yesterday, shortly after the birth of a pair of beautiful baby girls. Her untimely demise has brought sorrow to the hearts of many relatives and friends.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

A Busy Session—County Commissioners Meet.

Provo, Dec. 18.—A communication was received at last evening's session of the city council from the faculty and student body of the Brigham Young University, asking that crossing over Academy avenue and First East street at Fifth and Sixth North streets, and the sidewalk on the east side of Academy avenue, be put in better condition. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

A communication was received from the Merrill Lumber company, stating that they had on the ground, and in transit material to the value of $13,739.32 for the Provo canyon waterworks extension, and asking for a payment of the contract price. Three thousand six hundred dollars was appropriated, the city having paid $1,400 in freight.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

Reporting Inspector Craven presented a report on the matter of water drain from the roofs of buildings. He recommended that down spouts from the front of the present buildings be made to empty through conduits under the sidewalks and that on new buildings the drain be made to the back of the buildings.

POLICEMAN RESIGNED.

Wm. F. Olson tendered his resignation as policeman to take effect Jan. 1, 1907. City Marshal Lachy explained to the council that the only reason, so far as he knew, for Mr. Olson's resignation was that he was dissatisfied with the wages, and that he, the marshal, was sorry to have Mr. Olson leave. The resignation was accepted.

City Attorney Thomas gave an opinion to the effect that to appropriate money for the purpose of a writ-up in a newspaper, would not be legal. Accepted and filed.

LAYTON.

Prominent Young People Married—New Buildings.

Layton, Dec. 14.—Pratt Whitesides and Olive Adams were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday of this week. A reception was given to the immediate relatives of the couple on the evening of the same day.

Dee Harris of this place and Jennie Anderson of Utah were also married this week in the Salt Lake temple. The contracting parties are all popular and well respected.

The National Bank of Layton is again doing business in its own building, the structure has been made more substantial as well as improved in appearance.

The Consolidated Wagon & Machine company are rebuilding with brick. The new building will be larger than the old one.

The Layton Cannery closed this week for the season.

There are some beetles still in the ground. It looks now, as though they will have to stay there.

The first Sunday in the new year will be designated as parents' day in the West Layton Sunday school. All parents will be invited to be present.

E. P. Ellison returned from Canada this week. Mr. Ellison reports a good run by the sugar factory of Raymond, of which he is manager.

PENROSE.

A Thriving New Town in Big Horn Basin.

Special Correspondence.

Penrose, Big Horn Co., Wyo., Dec. 14.—This place is located about seven miles from the Big Horn river, and is on the south side of the river and is four miles from Garland, the nearest railroad station. It is a beautiful place, well drained and gets its irrigation water here from the Elk canal that carries water here and to the benches above Seeville.

There are not many on the townsite yet, but it has a great future as it is on the main wagon road from Garland and Cody to the region around Burlington and Germania, and places beyond. There is a good bridge across the river at this point.

A considerable acreage has been under cultivation the past season and fairly good crops have been produced, but a much greater acreage will be put under the water next year as they are at work here and the canal and road to get it completed by spring. They are enlarging it to a 15-foot width from the head.

There is a vast amount of new land, and makes many new homes.

There is a good opening here for a general merchandise store. This is a good point for such a business as it is surrounded by agricultural land and great undeveloped wealth in coal, gas and oil, which in no far distant day will be bringing wealth to the people and make this a town of no mean proportions, and the town lots and farms that are now little esteemed will be a source of wealth. The river will always provide a fair quality of drinking water.

What is wanted here is a persistent effort on the part of the people to develop their farms and the building up of their homes, and to the development of the resources that will most assuredly bring them wealth.

HYRUM.

Ward Reunion—Demise of Mrs. Johansen.

Special Correspondence.

Hyrum, Cache Co., Dec. 16.—Anna Kiristine, relict of M. H. Johansen, died on the 8th inst. of typhoid pneumonia after having been bedfast for three months. The deceased was born July 1, 1844, at Bergen, Norway, and with her husband, embraced the gospel some 26 years ago, and arrived here two years later. Her husband died about 1870, and she has since been a devoted mother and a true Christian. She was the life of a true home, and her death is a great loss to her family and the community.

Cataracts

Relieve Nasal Catarrh, allay inflammation, soothe and heal the mucous membrane, sweeten and purify the breath. Best gargle for Sore Throat. 50c. or $1. Druggists or mail.

On the 8th inst. at the second ward meeting.

The Third ward folks held their reunion on the 15th and made the same a very successful affair. At 2 p. m. all sat down and partook of a fine menu that was prepared by the ladies of the ward. After a humorous program was rendered and a fine easy chair presented to Bishop N. J. Nielsen by members of the ward. The day's doings concluded with a dance in the new meetinghouse.

Miss Walborg Petersen, with the assistance of the Sunday school of the three wards gave a recital on the 15th at the stake house. The program consisted of eight songs by Miss Petersen, her accompanist being Miss Marie Brown, who also gave two piano selections, which, with the recital, were very well received by a large audience. The balance of the program consisted of selections from the respective Sunday schools very creditably.

On the 15th the First ward people gave a farewell entertainment to young Spence Allen, who will leave soon for a mission to the Central States.

Elder Lars K. Larsen returned yesterday from a two-year mission to Norway, where he presided over the Christiania branch.

The stake presidency has gone to Avon today to reorganize the ward.

The quarterly conference of this stake will be held in the stake building on the 22nd and 23rd of this month, commencing at 10 a. m., on the first named date.

MORGAN.

Millinery Store of Mrs. Eddington Destroyed by Fire.

Special Correspondence.

Morgan, Dec. 16.—Fire broke out at 7:15 last evening in the millinery store of Mrs. M. A. Eddington, destroying both stock and building. The fire was caused by a gas stove, and the building was saved. Mr. H. B. Crouch, owner of the burned building, and Mrs. Eddington were insured.

GOSHEN.

Demise of Bishop Okelberry, From Pneumonia.

Special Correspondence.

Goshen, Utah, Dec. 15.—A sadness is prevailing in our town at the present caused by the demise of our beloved Bishop Okelberry, who departed this life Saturday, Dec. 8, at 8 a. m., at the age of 62 years, after an illness of only a week.

He leaves two families, who are grief-stricken over the loss of their beloved husband and father. He was bishop of Goshen ward for 10 years, and he was greatly beloved by the people, both Mormon and non-Mormon. He had a very kind, gentle disposition, and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the sick and afflicted, and those in distress.

He was a devoted member of the church, and all feel that the community has sustained a very great loss in his demise.

CENTERVILLE.

Reorganization of Sunday School—Rich-Strong Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Centerville, Dec. 15.—Sunday Dec. 15, some 1000 people visited the Sunday school and reorganized it. Henry C. Brown was made superintendent, with Joel R. Parrish as first and Jno. C. Adams as second assistant superintendent.

On Friday, Dec. 14, the Sunday school gave a dance for the children and adults in the evening for the older folks.

On Friday, the 14th inst., Miss Ida Rich of Centerville, and Alvin C. Strong of Salt Lake City, were married in the Salt Lake temple, and in the evening an elaborate reception was given in Centerville, at the new home of Elder Ben E. Rich.

A special train on the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad was run, bringing about 100 guests from the city, among them were Uncle John Henry Smith and Grandpa Loren John. Dainty refreshments were served, and the good wishes of relatives and friends were expressed and made manifest to the young couple by the beautiful presents given.

On Wednesday, the 13th inst., the people of Centerville will hold their annual ward reunion, with a banquet and social time.

PARK CITY.

High School Students at Dewey Theater—Payday at Mines.

Special Correspondence.

Park City, Dec. 14.—The Dewey theater was crowded last evening with relatives and friends who came out to see the high school pupils play farce entitled, "A Bachelor's Convention."

This week has been payday at all the mines and for being a mining camp town it is very busy.

Considerable snow has been falling lately, which is helping the ore teams in getting up to the mines.

HUNTSVILLE.

Violators of Fish Law and Sunday Ordinance Arrested.

Special Correspondence.

Huntsville, Dec. 17.—Alma Peterson, Jacob Wangsgard, and Heri Wangsgard were arrested last night for violating the fish law. They had 24 pounds of fish on hand and a large fish was seen in the possession of the men. Marshal Garner captured them. The trial will take place next Thursday before Judge Adam L. Peterson.

Marshal Garner also found James C. Wangsgard for alleged violation of the Sunday liquor law, and promptly arrested him. Some people express great surprise that.

COWLEY, WYOMING.

Many Developments Going on—A Prosperous Season.

Cowley, Big Horn Co., Wyo., Dec. 13.—Beautiful weather has been enjoyed here until last night, when the north wind brought cold and snow. The residents felt gratified when they heard of cold storms all around, and they themselves enjoyed pleasant weather.

Cowley is growing and the many comfortable homes erected in the last year attest the confidence of the people in the town's future. J. W. Crosby's new home, built of pretty native stone is an up-to-date structure. A millinery store, meat market, and blacksmith shop are in course of erection on the main street. An addition to the hardware store is just completed, the painting is being done and goods arranged.

Fairly good crops were raised, yet quite a number neglected their farms, or work on railroads, and the other enterprises offered such an inducement in the way of big wages. Still the evidence of thrift is seen on every side, in the many improvements made. The mill that was being erected, has not been completed, much to the annoyance of the people who have to haul their grain to Cody to get it ground, taking about five days to make the round trip.

A beautiful long growing season was enjoyed here last season; no frost to kill vines until the middle of October. There is great undeveloped wealth in this country, only awaiting organized effort to develop it, as the region is surrounded with coal deposits, gas is found seeping up through the ground only awaiting the driving of pipe to produce it, while at greater depth, oil can be obtained. When the agricultural conditions are more perfected, there will be most successfully bringing in the wealth of the West.

EPHRAIM.

Lecture by Supt. A. C. Nelson—Preparing for Santa Claus.

Special Correspondence.

Ephraim, Dec. 14.—Our community was favored with a visit from the state superintendent, A. C. Nelson; he met with the students of the Snow academy and delivered an interesting lecture, and at the same time in visiting the public schools.

Last evening Mrs. Calvin Chilton, the monodramist, entertained a fairly large audience in the academy assembly hall.

A basketball game will take place here this afternoon at 3 p. m. between the Snow academy and Moroni teams.

Santa Claus is making his yearly choice of presents for the large stockings soon to be suspended over the old fireplace.

BAKER CITY, ORE.

Still Slicing Beets—Health Restored By Visit to Temple.

Special Correspondence.

Parker, Idaho, Dec. 17.—The weather here has been very inclement lately, snow, thaw, rain and then more snow, of which we have now some five inches. The best slicer is still running and labor is in demand; with a little more of the beautiful, canyon work will begin in earnest, both in the way of lumber, and firewood. The latter, as well as coal, has been impossible to obtain in satisfactory quantities, five hundred pounds being the limit. Jed yesterday was afflicted severely from stomach troubles, visited the Salt Lake temple and has returned home in a remarkably better condition of mind and body. The condition of Mr. S. M. Davis, who has been and still is, at the Salt Lake hospital, cannot be given at present.

The general health of the people is good. A number of our residents have the California fever, and though prospectively situated here, are selling out preparatory to leaving.

As Mr. Fred H. Mason departs for his Australian field of labor on the 19th inst., a farewell dance was given him on the evening of Friday, the 14th. It was well attended, and the proceeds netted nearly $30.

Christmas is approaching very quietly, nothing of a public character being contemplated.

ROCK SPRINGS, WYO.

Attempt to Secure Large Sheep Range Failed.

Special Correspondence.

Rock Springs, Wyo., Dec. 16.—Charles Williams of Rawlins and John Brennan of this place have signed for a twenty-two round contest to take place here Christmas eve. The men are to weigh 160 pounds ringside. They have met previously, and both claim to be able to dispose of the other.

A clever trick to gain control of a wide track of range in the lease of the Sweetwater Range association, was attempted here yesterday, but failed when the matter was called to the attention of the state board of sheep commissioners. Local stockmasters had imported a number of bucks from Idaho, and in accordance with the law were to be quarantined. The owners requested that the quarantine ground be in the lease of the association, and the inspector, not knowing that this would work a hardship on members of the association, placed the quarantine and issued a trailing permit for the bucks to go from the yard to the quarantine ground. The resident sheepmen protested to the board by wire, and the bucks were quarantined elsewhere.

This trick is frequently attempted, and has worked many times, for when once quarantined, the range cannot be used by outside sheep, unless they too go into quarantine, and as a rule, stockmasters give quarantined ground a wide berth.

CARDSTON, CANADA

Mayor and Councilmen Re-elected—Waterworks and Electric Lights.

Special Correspondence.

Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Dec. 8.—The civic elections held this week resulted in the return of the former mayor and councilmen by acclamation. The waterworks and electric light proposition is still incomplete and the
