OLSEN CHAMPION WRESTLER.

He Defeats Ernest Roeber the Heavyweight of America.

New York, March 21 .- Beck Olsen of Copenhagen met Ernest Roeber, the heavyweight champion wrestler of America, at the Madison Square Garden tonight in a Graeco-Roman match for the world's championship, and Ol-sen was declared the victor by Referee Sam Austin.

This match differed from recent contests of this order, inasmuch as it was to all intents and purposes, on the level. Roeber gained the first fall in twenty minutes and twenty-five seconds, by a half-Nelson hold. The Swede secured the next fall, which proved to be the last, by a front body hold. Roeber was unable to come to the center at the call of time after a ten-minute intermission, and Olsen, therefore, was given the match. Olsen loked big enough to eat Roe ber, but was very nervous. Fitzsim-mons was one of Roeber's seconds. After the match Roeber lay on his back and had to be carried in a limp condition to his corner, where two doc-trs were summoned to attend the German, who seemed to be injured se Roeber claimed to have sustained a fractured rib on the right side. The doc-tors who examined him said that he might be internally injured, but that no ribs were broken. They refused to permit him to continue the bout. Oisen was thereupon declared the winner, while Roeber sat in his corner crying like a child. Bob Fitzsimmons then jumped into the ring, and while admitting Roeber's defeat, challenged the Dane on behalf of the German for another match for $1,000.
