ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - OCT. 11, 1903.

Fourth District Court Items.

The suit of the Successor Land and Lumber company against Mrs. Julia L. Denny, occupying most of the day yesterday in the Fourth district court. The case involves some twenty-four acres of farming land near Woodmont, Rich county, and damages amounting to $1000. The plaintiff has produced her case and the defendant a number of witnesses on the stand.

Judgment by default was rendered against A. D. Keany in the suit of the Denny company against him. The case was brought by the Denny company against Keany, who was the owner of the land in question. The judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

A Big Suit on the Taps.

A suit of enormous proportions will soon occupy the attention of the Fourth district court. On one side will be the First National bank, and on the other the Citizens bank, the amount involved in the legal battle being $50,000 or more. It appears that Mrs. Emma J. Keany, some time since obtained a judgment of $10,000 against the Citizens bank, and also a decree of foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate in this city. The First National bank also holds a claim against Mrs. Keany, for a little over $30,000, secured by a mortgage on several pieces of property, among them being the same piece on which Mrs. Keany holds a claim.

County Court Matters.

At yesterday's session the monthly report of the superintendent of the poor was read and approved. The resignation of Frankie Clark, justice of the peace of Eden precinct, was read and accepted. A report was read showing the total disbursements from June 1 to Sept. 10, which was $23,753.41, and from Jan. 1, 1903, up to last September Sept. 30, a total of $10,273.75.

A Campaign Speech.

The Daily News, an independent campaign sheet, which has been recently founded by the highest and only better, the editorial staff, is doing what it is supposed to do, and is doing it very much better than it has in the past.

Better Still Compared.

The model about between them, of this city, and Anderson, of Salt Lake, for the territorial championship and the handsome gold medal presented by the American Association, was held yesterday at the Ogden hall, and the contest was a very close one, and attracted a large crowd.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 11, 1903.

First District Court.

The case of the People vs. Albert Collins, the first of the series of Tintic cases, was proceeded with yesterday in the first district court. Byron Hays testified that in April last he was in the employ of the Tintic-Coe stock raising company at Tintic, as night watchman. On the afternoon of April 1st he went down to the post office, on the way back he saw that Collins, Dan Lewis and Albert Collins, as witnesses passed by him.
