EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - March 15, 1888.

FRAGMENTS.

W. L. SHERRY was fined $15 in the Police Court today, for being drunk.

TWO cases of scarlet fever are reported at No. 465 w., Second North Street.

FRANK WILSON was arrested last night for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

A REAL estate man in town had his overcoat stolen yesterday by a man named Bryant, from Colorado Springs.

MRS. BRIDGET SWEENEY, under indictment for attempting to poison her husband, was surrendered by her bondmen last evening and taken to the penitentiary.

R. K. THOMAS, proprietor of the Eagle Emporium, returned last evening from a busines trip to the east, whither he went to make his spring purchases.

WE learn by telephone that James Burrup, a well known citizen of Ogden, died at his home at 7 o'clock this morning, of liver complaint. The funeral is to take place on Sunday next at 2 p. m.

A DISPATCH to a morning contemporary gives an account of a thirteen-year-old boy being shot at by Deputy Marshal Waetstone. The boy was riding a half-broken pony and ran into the deputy's buggy.

THE railways have made a rate of $55 for the round trip from Salt Lake to Denver, for the cattle convention to be held in Colorado's capital on March 28. The tickets are good for ten days, commencing March 26.

THE demand for room for real estate offices has induced Hennefer & Son to give up their barber shop on Main Street, where they have been so long established, and remove to 23 East Second South Street. See advt.

THE "Lake Park Association," an organization for the conducting of races, fairs and other exhibitions, filed its articles of incorporation yesterday with the Secretary of the Territory. Its principal place of business is at Ogden.

THE report that diphtheria existed at 43 Grape Street is pronounced to be a mistake by the lady who owns the premises. She states that the flag has been removed and that the patient, a little child, only had a sore throat and is now perfectly well.

AN accident recently occurred on the Union Pacific by which an engine was ditched near Piedmont, Wyoming. The engineer had one of his feet very much injured and was taken to the U. P. hospital, and is progressing as well as could be expected.—Ogden Standard.

THE City Marshal is around again requiring certain merchants to take their goods in off the sidewalks, and says that unless they cease putting out the obstructions he will be compelled to introduce them to the Police Justice.

MESSRS. WOOLLEY, LUND & JUDD come to the front with an advertisement calling attention to their well selected stock of wagons, agricultural machinery, etc. They are determined not to be behind any of their competitors in the prices they quote or the quality or variety of goods which they handle.

IN the case of Larona Godfrey vs. Joseph Godfrey, in the Third District Court today, the order to show cause was set for March 24th. This is the case where the defendant, Joseph Godfrey, attempted to induce his daughter, whom he had not seen since she was an infant, and whose mother he was divorced from, to go to Butte with him, from Ogden.

ROBERT W. BOYLE, one of the four men who robbed the D. & R. G. Salt Lake express near Grand Junction, Colorado, on Nov. 3, 1887, and who were captured in Emery County, Utah, has turned states' evidence, making a confession admitting his own guilt and implicating the others. The four are to be tried in Colorado in May, for robbing the United States mails.

A SACK of shoes was today found in the Weber River, due west of the city. It had evidently been stolen and the thief left it close to the river for safe keeping, where the water had risen and partially covered it; or it may be the thief had become frightened and had therefore thrown the evidence of his guilt into the water. The shoes were taken to the city hall and placed in charge of Marshal Ballantyne.—Ogden Standard.

Arrests at Brigham.

Yesterday two arrests were made by deputy marshals at Brigham City. Two aged gentlemen, A. Norton and E. Wright, were taken into custody to answer to the charge of unlawful cohabitation.

Time Extended.

In view of the fact that some of the district schools in the Territory are still unsupplied with the text books published by Harper Brothers, that firm has extended the period of exchange to April 1st. They thus show a disposition to deal honorably with the people, and should have credit accordingly.

Arrested.

John W. Hess, of Farmington, counselor in the presidency of the Davis Stake, was brought down from the north today by Deputy Coray. He was arrested on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, an indictment having been found against him Sept. 23, 1886. He was taken before Commissioner Norrell, where he gave $200 bail to await trial, the sureties being S. P. Teasdel and George A. Lowe.

Funeral Services.

Mrs. Hannah Fielding Dunn, the wife of James Dunn, who died on Monday, was buried at Provo yesterday. The funeral was a most impressive one, the meeting-house being full. A large cortege followed the remains to the cemetery. Elders David John and Karl G. Maeser addressed the congregation, and a few remarks were made by others. James Dunn was himself too sick to attend the services.

His 80th Birthday.

Last evening arrangements were made by the counselors, family and friends of Bishop Jacob Weiler, of the Third Ward, to do honor to him, the occasion being his 80th birthday. The Bishop went to his home from a meeting of the Y. M. M. I. A. and found a goodly company assembled there. The affair was a great surprise to him, and was very much enjoyed by all present. A feast was followed by speeches, singing, etc., and the congratulations and good wishes showered upon the aged Bishop were sincere, and much appreciated.

The Murder Case.

The arguments in the trial of Philip Bond and John Taylor, on the charge of murder, are quite extended, occupying more than a day of the court's time. The opening speech was made by Mr. Clarke for the prosecution. He was followed by Mr. Hoffman, and this forenoon Mr. Dickson made one of the ablest arguments he has yet presented to a jury. Mr. Peters closed this afternoon. The assistant district attorney asked that both Bond and Taylor be found guilty of murder in the first degree—evidently a grave mistake in the light of the evidence, on the part of an officer whose whole duty is to see that justice is done, and one which Mr. Dickson was not slow to take advantage of, giving the prosecutor a scathing rebuke.

Mr. Peters characterized the argument of Mr. Dickson as illogical, and said it was the most unfair speech he had even listened to. He insisted that under their oaths the jury could do naught else with the defendant Joun Taylor but find him guilty of murder in the first degree. When Mr. Peters finishes, the case will be given to the jury on the court's charge.

Imprisoned.

Ephraim Briggs came into the Third District Court today, to receive sentence for unlawful cohabitation. He declined to give the Judge any assurance that he would obey the Edmunds law in the future and was sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for six months, and to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

The Mullett Case.

The police last evening arrested Joseph Mullett on the charge of having committed the crime against nature; the circumstances connected with the offense are said to be most revolting. The defendant was arraigned before Justice Pyper this morning and pleaded not guilty. His bail was fixed at $1,000, and the preliminary examination is to be held tomorrow afternoon. Failing to find securities, the defendant was committed to jail. That he should have been guilty of such a crime seems almost incredible, but the prosecution allege that they have ample proof. Mr. Mullett is a married man, and his family are highly respectable.

Maud Woolfenden's Demise.

After school yesterday a mass meeting of teachers and students of the B. Y. Academy was held in the Assembly Hall, to condole the sad event of the death of Miss Maud Woolfenden, of Beaver, Utah, lately a student of the normal department, and who departed this life Thursday, March 8th, 1888. Hyrum Harris was called to act as chairman and Miss Mattie Nelson as secretary. The chairman appointed N. L. Nelson, on behalf of the faculty and S. A. King and Joseph Findlay on behalf of the students a committee to draft appropriate resolutions. Prof. K. G. Maeser delivered an eloquent and touching address in commemoration of the deceased, and was followed in like manner by other members of the faculty, after which the committee presented the resolutions, which were adopted.—Provo Enquirer, March 13.

Ogden Gas.

The labor on the new gas works is progressing favorably. As soon as the weather will permit, which will not be long, judging from present appearances, the machinery will be put in. The floor of the tank will have a layer of cement two feet thick, so as to make it water-tight. The tank will be seventeen feet deep and filled with water to the depth of twelve feet. The coal used for the extraction of the gas will be brought from Crested Butte, Colorado, as the coal to be obtained in Utah is not of the quality desired for this purpose. The works will also produce tar and coke. It is expected to light up the block bounded by Main, Young, Fourth and Fifth Streets, and then extend the lines as necessity may require. Lighting with gas will be a valuable acquisition to the fair and prosperous city of Ogden.—Standard.

Amusements.

There was a delightful entertainment in the Eighteenth Ward Hall last evening. It consisted of instrumental and vocal music, tableaux, readings and recitations. The performers were among the best local amateur artists. The hall was crowded and a large number of people were unable to gain admission. For this reason the programme will be repeated on Saturday evening. The profits will go to the school-building fund.

I. W. Baird's minstrels hold the boards tomorrow and Saturday evenings at the Salt Lake Theatre. With those who enjoy that class of entertainments Baird's has always been popular, and it is likely that large houses will witness both performances.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings "The Deacon's Daughter" will be presented by Miss Annie Pixley. She is a comedienne of marked ability, and of the piece the Boston Journal speaks in the highest praise.

On Wednesday evening "The Charity Girl" will be presented.

Dunlop's (New York) Stage News, bearing date of the 10th inst., states that Jeffreys Lewis will shortly start for the Pacific Coast, playing her way out. The same paper announces that Mrs. D. P. Bowers intends giving dramatic readings through the west as far as San Francisco.

First District Court.

Provo, March 14.

The proceedings this week thus far are as follows:

K. G. Maeser entered a plea of not guilty of unlawful cohabitation.

The grand jury reported seven U. S. indictments, and ignored the following: U. S. vs. John Brown, Joshua Davis, Joseph Sawyer, and John Crawford.

A. R. Anderson was arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation and took two days in which to enter his plea.

The case of U. S. vs. George Taylor was continued for the term, a witness of importance being absent.

Harvey H. Cluff entered a plea of guilty of unlawful cohabitation.

On account of one witness being sick the case of U. S. vs. T. R. Cutler, the trial was postponed until Saturday next.

John Harris, convicted of unlawful cohabitation, was escorted to the mud mansion Monday, to remain 30 days only, unless he stays there to pay his $50 fine.

Albert Thatcher admitted to citizenship.

Joseph Lunceford entered a plea of guilty of unlawful cohabitation and sentence was set for the 24th inst.

The demurrer was overruled in the case of the U. S. vs. Geo. Udall.

On Tuesday morning James Higginson withdrew his former plea and entered one of guilty to unlawful cohabitation.

Brigham Crocheron was tried and convicted of arson, and sentence was set for the 16th of March.

On Wednesday a decree of divorce was granted in the case of Inger M. Christiansen vs. Caristian P. Christiansen.

The motion to quash summons in the case of J. I. Case Threshing Co. vs. Geo. T. Peay was overruled.

Ebenezer Hunter and J. B. Forbes were each arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation and entered pleas of not guilty.

The case of the U. S. vs. Philander Brown was continued for the term.

The case of the U. S. vs. Geo. Udall, perjury, is on trial. It is alleged that the offense was committed in the unlawful cohabitation case against David Udall, his father.

Winter Still There.

It is estimated that unless winter breaks up within three weeks, at least one-third of the live stock, cattle and horses, in this valley will be lost. A great majority of the stock owners in the valley are entirely out of feed, or very nearly so; and, at the present writing, stock cannot subsist on the range. This is not occasioned so much by the deep snow, as by the fact that there is no feed on the range. Between the long, severe draught of last summer and the ravages of immense herds of sheep, the ranges were totally depleted of grass. Therefore, under the most favorable conditions, there will, of necessity, be heavy losses should the present bad weather continue longer.—Malad, (Idaho) Enterprise.

Sinking Earth.

Yesterday afternoon, a few minutes before 3 o'clock, over an acre of ground at the corner of Ridge and A Streets near the divide, covered by five dwellings, suddenly caved a distance of about 18 inches at its deepest point, which covers about one-half of the area described. The inhabitants, which at that time of day consist principally of women, fled in dismay, spilling kettles, pots of soup and capsizing frying pans in their fright. They thought at first that the disturbance was caused by an earthquake, but were not long in realizing the truth, when they beheld the attitude their dwellings had assumed.—Virginia (Nev.) Enterprise, March 12.

THE Utah Journal says there is no diphtheria in Logan.

BORN.

VOWLES.—At Tooele City, Utah, to the wife of Sylvester H. Vowles, an 11 pound son, on Saturday March 10, 1888. All doing well.

BECK.—At her residence in Paris, Bear Lake County, of old age, 10 a.m., March 8th, 1888, Elizabeth Lovise Munck Beck. She was born August 4th, 1806, in Bornholm, Denmark; embraced the Gospel in 1853; emigrated in December of the same year; crossed the plains in H. P. Olsen's company, and came to Salt Lake in 1854. She lived and died a faithful Latter-day Saint.

Bikuben, please copy.

ALLEN.—At Escalante, Garfield County, U.T., on Wednesday afternoon, February 22nd, 1888, of lung fever, Lucy Allen, daughter of Joseph B. and Sophronia Hawkes. The deceased was born near Pontiac, Michigan, February 27, 1839. Her parents joined the Church in Michigan, and, emigrated to Far West, Missouri, where she joined the Church, being baptized by Elder John Murdock in the spring of 1837. On February 17, 1847, in Nauvoo, Illinois, she was married by Elder Parkes to Elder Philo Allen, who survives her. She shared in all the persecutions of the Church in Missouri and Illinois, and emigrated to Utah with her husband in 1849. She was the mother of five children, one son and four daughters, of whom the son and three daughters survive her. She moved to Escalante in June 1876. She died as she had always lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint.—[COM.

BATES.—Died on the 6th of March, 1888, at the residence of her son O. P. Bates, in Batesville, Tooele County, Utah, of old age and general debility, Phœbe Mariah, relict of the late Onnus E. Bates and daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth Ann Matteson. Deceased was born in Ellisbury, Jefferson County, New York, Jan. 31st, 1817; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Elder Orson Pratt, in 1836, and gathered with the Saints to Nauvoo and suffered in the hardships of those expelled from Nauvoo in 1846, and in 1851 emigrated to Utah and settled in Tooele County, where she has since resided. She leaves nine children, who are all grown to maturity, together with eighty-one grandchildren and thirty-one great-grandchildren. She died as she had lived in full faith of the Gospel.—[COM.

The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non irritating, easy of application, and one that will by its own action, reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past few years obliges us to admit that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms quickly yield to it.
