The Queen and the Emperor—Imperialists Dissatisfied—Dead Trade.

NEW YORK, 28.—Foreign mails bring the following item: "There is much talk in London over the next of the Emperor of Russia by the Queen. The Emperor has now been the better part of a month in the country and apart from her own son-in-law, has not seen a single member of the royal family except that on one occasion the Prince and Princess of Wales made her a morning call. It is said, however, that she rather likes the freedom from ceremonies which she thus enjoys."

The rumor that the Prince Imperial is to marry a Russian Grand Duchess has created considerable dissatisfaction among the Bonapartists. The Duchess referred to is the offspring of a morganatic marriage, and the imperialists think the heir of Napoleon ought to cast his eyes higher.

Alfred Wagner, the labor and factory stage manager of the Imperial Opera House at Berlin, is dead.
Trade has been rather duller than usual this morning, owing to the intervention of the Thanksgiving holiday, but the prices of the leading commodities show but little change.
All business was suspended on Thursday, and new agreements were deferred by many on this account, although reason for dullness may also be found in the disposition to wait until the annual messages of the President and the heads of the various departments are promulgated. Money continues plentiful, but rates are slightly higher.

Message by Esquimaux—
Chicago and New York—
A private letter from a Pioneer Mail agent gives an account of a terrible tragedy which took place at a settlement called Indian Creek, Labrador, on the night of the 24th inst. The party were two families named Morrison, numbering nine persons, only one of whom, a girl, escaped. It seems that of late gangs of Esquimaux have been committing robberies of hats and stores, and after the capture of several Indians, they were publicly chastised by whipping. The Indians sought refuge and, on the night of the 24th, visited the dwelling of the Morrison and shot and stabbed to death eight or nine persons, including the children. The bodies were found lying in the snow.

The committee of the national board of health, which has been visiting Chicago to inspect the improvements there with a view to safety against fire, will make a report to the executive on Monday.
The London morning papers thought the result of their observations would be favorable to the renewal of business relations of the National Board of Health with Chicago. The object of the commissioners was to see if the city was fit for the purpose of being the future prosperity of Chicago.

Still a Mystery.—The investigation into the cause of the deat ter to the steamship Empire failed to show any adequate reason for it.

A private letter from a
were two families named Morrison,
numbering nine persons, only one
visited the dwelling of the Mor-
