truth of our doctrines. We do not claim to be anything very superior to the rest of humanity, ex-cept in-so-far as we possesse truths which they have not, and know the right way to salvation, of which they are as yet in ignorance. 'The speaker quoted from the actiptures to prove the eternal destiny of mankind, who being formed in the image of the invisible God, may, without pre-sumption, look forward to an exalta-tion in the kingdom of their beaven-ly Father. Jesus, being formed in the image of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, and we are men like unto Christ, except that we are sinful, while he was de-void of sin. The Savior was made perfect through suffering. He lived O. I. C. WILLIAMS' LIGHTNING CURE
