

young and were engaged in their first yesterday. About 90 per cent of the force is affected by the increase, which The supreme military court has con-

Butte, Mont., Nov. 2.-In the east Helena smelters of the American Smelting and Refining company the wages of common laborers were raised step and asked them to think well he-fore casting his vote on Tuesday next. Mr. Hughes declared that more than 100 laws relating to labor had beet, placed upon the statute books of the state during the past 12 years. He promised they would be enforced. "If I am elected governor," he de-clared, "I shall see to it that my ad-ministration is an economical one, bu-no money will be spared to see that every law is carried out. No statute shall want enforcement for the lack of a man or the lack of a dollar sto en-force it." Anything that has for its purpose the welfare of the workers of the state will have his hearty support if he is elected. This is the last day of Mr. Hughes' up-state campaign. Commenting on the Since his renunciation of the Republican conditions, he said: "The conditions up-state are very sat-isfactory. The Republicans are loyal and alert, and throughout the state we have the support of the old line Democrats, "It is simply a question now of getting out the vote. If that is done, vic-tory is achieved. But the getting of over-confident is great and no one at this time must relax his individual ef-amount of money called for, just to let h be known that such a proposition as actually thought same by someone. In other elections boosters for all parties have hung up money to stir con-idence, and it is possible that such de-enders of the two older parties are be-"baited" by the list as at present ing "baited" by the list as at present hung up. One of the grotesque wagers posted up is the one that the Democrats will not poll 6,000 votes in the county, a total far less than ex-Minyor Morris polled in the eity alone just one year spo. But there are others of the same kind on and off the board, some hitting one of the old parties and some an-ether. It appears to be clearly a case of "American" speculators throwing est "feelers" which also have the pur-pose in view of creating sentiment fapose in view of creating sentiment fa-verable to the calamity campaigners. of creating sentiment fa-

MRS. CASSILLY'S WILL.

leaves Bulk of Her Estate to Various Charitable Institutions. / New York, Nov. 2 .- The will of Mrs. ary L. Cassilly was filed for probate the surrogate's office yesterday. The sk of her estate, consisting of stock As of her estate, consisting of stock a various railroads, is left to charit-the and benevolent institutions. Among the beneficiaries are the chil-ten's home of Cincinnati, the fund for the relief of widows and orphans of deceased ciergymen, and aged and in-thm and disabled ciergymen of the Protestant Explorant church: the ha and disabled ciergymen of the mestant Episcopal church; the Joung Women's Christian association, the Protestant home for friendless and femdlings of Cincinnati, the Society of the International the Society of the Lying-in Hospital of this eity, the bene for incurables, and the Society for W Relief of Ruptured and Crippled. Mrs. Cassilly was the widow of Garles P. Cassilly, who was a banked of Cincinnati.

GEORGE HERRING DEAD.

areat English Philanthropist Dies Following Operation for Appendicitis. London, Nov. 2.—George Herring, the heted English philanthropist, who in the course of his life contributed large sams of money to hospitals and charit-able enterprises, died today after an operation for appendicitis. He made his first money on the race course and subsequently became identified with a large number of business enterprises.

George Herring was shairman of the eity of London Electric Lighting com-siny, Electric and General Investment company, Municipal Trust company, Municipal Trust company and several mining companies. In the saveral mining companies, is the saveral mining companies, is the saveral mining companies, is the saveral mining companies. In the saveral mining companies, is the saveral mining companies is the saveral mining companies of the saveral saveral for use in a home was to repay this sum in 25 annual in-the plan was to purchase tracts of and in England, giving five acres to the set and implements and support-ing the settlers until the lands become productive. Each settler was to re-as the settlers until the lands become provide for those who for various rea-tion the saveration Army hoped to the set analy in installments. In this mane the Salvation Army hoped to the migration schemes of the the migration schemes of the the expeditures $4.617.788, leaving a sur-plus for the month of $2.624.211, against a deficit for October, 1905, of over $5.209.000. For the four months of the present flacal year a surplus is shown of about $3.500.000, The receipts from the several sources of revenue last month are given as follows: Customs, $27.725.809, increase, $2.130.000. Internal revenue, $24.730.121; increase, $2.557.000.

Mr. Herring conducted a soup kitch-an in Camden Town, built and endowed at institution known as the Haven of Rest for gentile folk brought to pover-ty through genuine misfortune, and furnished a number of Salfation Army shelters for the homeless.

WEALTHY MAN MURDERED.

J. J. McMillan's Body Found in a Field

DERRICK COLLAPSED. Philadelphia, Nov. 2.-Two workmen killed and five others injured today by the collapse of a derfick at a building being rected by John Wannamaker to replace his present department store.

Mr. Manning was spoken of as "Our rantankerous friend up the river," Mr. Manning retired from active practise of his profession several years ago. APPRAISERS' OFFICE BUSINESS.

FAILED PROSPECTORS MAY MAKE A PROTEST.

APPRAISERS OFFICE BUSINESS. New York. Nov. 2.-A comparative statement of transactions in the United States appraiser's office for October shows this year to have far exceeded in invoices, examinations and value the rec-ord for October, 1906, and 1906. The value of the merchandise appraised in October, 1904, was 48.374.499; in 1906, $62,796,356; this year $70,937,192. The appraised value of precious stones, cut and uncut, precious stones and pearls for the last moaith was $5,015,577. Last year the value for October was $5,009,390. The records show that October was the larg-est month of importations of such mer-chandise, exceeding July, 190%, heretofore the record month, by nearly $500,000. Hawthorne, Nev., via Tonopah, Nev. Nov. 1.—Numerous prospectors who failed to secure claims on the Walker Lake In dian reservation are endeavoring to per-fect an organization for the purpose of making formal protest to the authorities at Washingtom. They will endeavor to have the opening annulled on the ground that it was not properly conducted and they will ask that if the reservation is opened anew that cavalry be placed in charge of the reservation at lenst two weeks before the signal is given to start. Considerable disorder now exists at Duch creek camp on account of the es-tablishment of several saloons in the new mining town. The miners have voted to allow no Chinese or Japanese in the camp and have appointed a committee of seven, to whom all disptues over claims and townsites will be referred for arbitration. A health committee has been named to lay out a sanitary district. Nov. 1 .- Numerous prospectors who failed

CARNEGIE PLOW PLANT BURNED

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.-The Carnegie Plow and Manufacturing company's plant at East Carnegle was destroyed by fire to-day. The loss will probably reach $12... 600.

CHANCELLI CONFESSES KILLING.

Los Angeles, Nov. 1 .- Givanni Chancelli, who was arrested here last Tuesday charged with the murder of Mer-carjo charged with the indicate of alter-curic Giovanni. In Camden, N. J., oa April 28 last, has confessed to the killing according to the police, who have vigor-ously 'sweated' him since he was ar-rested. He came to this city a short time ago and started a barber shop where he was working when arrested.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

Washington, Nov. 1.-The monthly statement of the government receipts and expenditures show that for October, 1906, the receipts amounted to $57,241,999, and Miscellaneous. $4,735,986; increase, $2,100.

000. During the month the expenditures on account of the war department show an increase of about $1.000,000, as compared with October, 1805, and a decrease of about $1,000,000 on account of the navy.

the expeditures $54.617,788, leaving a sur-

PRICE OF CAMPHOR.

New York, Nov. 2.—The price of cam-phor has gone to a new high record, $1.65 in barrels and $1.65½ in cases. The Journal of Commerce says the rise is due to a scarcity in the camphor sup-ply and in giving reasons says that the Russo-Japanese war affected the produc-tion of Japan and that greater difficulty is being experienced in obtaining gum in the island of Formosa. The great bulk of the world's output comes from these places. STRANDARD OIL CASE PASSED.

Jackson, Tenn., Nov. 2-The case against the Standard Oil company before the federal court here was yesterday passed to the next ferm of court. The in-dictment contains 1,545 counts. CHAS. EUSTIS KINCAID DEAD.

Cincinnati, Nov. 2 .-- Chas. Eustis Kin caid, former consular agent at Lancashire, England, and special correspondent for New York and San Francisco papers at Washington, died today in the city hospital, aged 51. He was prominent in Kentucky for many years, serving as a county judge, private secretary to Gov. Proctor Knott and in other capacities. firmed the sentence imposed on Capt. Bolgakoff of three years' imprisonment in a fortress for engaging in revolutionary agitation among the Russian prisoners in Japan. Bolgakoff was one of $2,000 a month. the defenders of Port Arthur and was decorated with the St. George's cross and presented with a golden sword for bravery. The sentences imposed on 23 peasants of the Baltic provinces who organized terroristic attempt.

the attacks on soldiers at Talsen in December last, have also been confirmed by the supreme military court. Eight of them will be executed and one will be sentenced to imprisonment for life.

NO TROUBLE EXPECTED.

New York, Nov. 2 .- Railroad officials who have been conferring with their employes regarding demands by the latter for increased pay and shorter hours, said yesterday that the conferences had been satisfactory and they expected no trouble. Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie, sald: hold No. 5, which was flooded. "The engineers and firemen are re-ceiving the best wages they ever received. The conditions are not strike conditions. Men strike when their wages are cut. This year there will be more to adjust than at any other time. Some of the roads in the Erie merger pay by the mile and some by the day, and we have hear looking for an enpar-

will be about seven per cent. Me working a 10-hour shift, getting $2 day, will hereafter receive $2.25, thos Men MAYOR WEAVER RETURNS TO REPUBLICAN FOLD. under the eight-hour day receiving $2.25 to $3.25 will get 15 cents more a day. The total increase will be about Philadelphia, Nov. 2.-Mayor Weaver announced today that he has returned to the Republican fold and will vote for Ed-win S. Stuart, the party candidate for governor, and Samuel P. Rotan, Republi-can candidate for district-attorney of Philadenbia

FIRE ON THE BALTIC.

Was in Cotton in Hald But Eventually Was Got Under Control.

Since his renunciation of the Republican organization laders is months ago, Mayor Weaver has been actively interested in the local reform organization known as the City party. Today he repudiates that party and accuses its leaders of conduct-ing a political game with which he is not in sympathy. He declares that under the so-called reformers the city is in danger of a worse system of bossism than ever ex-listed here before. London, Nov. 2.--A dispatch from Liverpool says that a serious fire broke out on the White Star liner Bal-The fire on the Baltic is among cotton which forms part of her cargo. Large numbers of firemen are engaged in fighting the flames. The Baltic left New York Oct. 24, for Liverpool and arrived there Nov. 1. The fire on the Baltic is now under Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 2.-Sixteen in-formations were made today before Al-derman J. F. Beatty, sgainst the Pull-man Palace Car company, charging 4; with serving and selling milk and cream on its dining cars that had been adulter-ated with formaldehyde. The hearing has been set for next Thursday. confined to The damage was

PLUMBERS' TRUST INDICTED.

been set for next Thursday.

can candidat Philadelphia.

Lima, O., Nov. 2 .- Surprise was created in legal and business circles here today when the first of the 15 or more indictments against the alleged plumb-ers trust in this country, set for trial was postponed indefinitely. Prosecutor Weity says the cases will be pushed to trial at the next term of court.

---

DOCTORED MILK.

UNIVERSITY CHOIR.

Made Its Initial Appearance at This Morning's Chapel.

The university choir made its initial appearance at this morning's chapel, and was regarded by the undergraduate body present with a reverence akin to awe, as the singers strung and tuned the lyre; and when the lyre they had the lyre, and when the lyre they had strung and tuned, they raised their voices higher. The personnel of the choir is Miss Barnes, Miss Pendleton, Miss Wimmer, Miss O'Nelli, Miss Suth-erland, and Messrs, Johnson, Cook, Ashby and Brown. They were con-gratulated at the close of the service.

STEAMER "ARABIC" ARRIVES.

President Charles W. Penrose and Many Elders on Board.

A telegram was received at the office of the first presidency this morning from the White Star Steamship company, announcing the safe arrival at Queenstown of the steamer "Arabic." The ship arrived at 4 p. m. Thursday,

On board was Apostle Charles W. Penrose, who has been appointed to take charge of the European mission, and many elders from Utah and Idaho. Following are the names of some of the passengers:

Charles H. Brewerton, Thomas Han-cock, Samuel L. Hills, H. L. Smith, Samuel L. Smith, Kenneth R. Woolley, George A. Hills, Jr., O. M. Rogers, George W. Simons, all of Salt Lake. Walter Bird and Smith Hoge of Pres-tor, Ma. Clauses, Horalay, Bulebam

Walter Bird and Smith Hoge of Pres-ton, Ida., Clarence Horsley, Brigham City; J. S. Mulliner, Iona, Ida.; L. Orme, Tooele, George Le Cheminant and Edmond Morris, Riter: Joseph Christensen, Preston, Ida.; Jens S. Jen-sen, Spring City: Brigham Monson, Richmond; C. G. Carlson, Sapdy, Leon-ard Oisen, Smithfield; William R. Ad-cord Faraman, Leon N. Peel Pich antr. Farowan; Leon N. Beal, Rich-field: David Shand, Manti, and other Utah and Idaho passengers.

PRESIDENT AFTER TURKEYS.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.-A special from Scottsville says that President Roosevelt is still hunting turkeys but so far has not met with any success. Mrs. Roosevelt in the meanwhile keeps open house to the people of Albemarle

BRYAN ENDORSES HEARST'S CANDIDACY.

New York, Nov. 2.-W. J. Bryan has written a letter to Bird S. Coler, borough president of Brooklyn, en-dorsing the candidacy of William Randolph Hearst for governor Mr. Bryan's letter follows:

"My Dear Mr. Coler-I am very anxious to see Hearst elected and would have come to New York to help him if I thought an outside speaker would have been of assistance. From Indications, however, he is going to win, as he ought to. If I have any friends there I want them to vote for him. "BRYAN."

Mr. Bryan wrote as quoted in a per-sonal letter to Mr. Coler dated at Madison, III., and received on Oct. 1. The portion of the letter not given was of a personal nature. Mr. Coler wired Mr. Bryan and secured his authority to make a portion of the let-

Mr. Coler, in giving out the letter, said: "Mr. Bryan's letter should be enough for all Democrats in this state. As for Independents, I cannot imagine that they are going to take the advice of the piratical leaders of the old pre-datory political system. They will, I think, before voting, ask themselves why it is that every leading beneficiary of what was known as 'Commercialism In politics is bitterly hostile to Mr. Hearst. Some of Mr. Heart's opposi-tion newspapers have lost their sense of humor when they solemnly quoted statements of Croker and McCarres, those ideal reformers.

"Mr. Root's speech last night will, I think, help Mr. Hearst. It remindme of the poster which contributen so much toward our success last year cowardly slander is a coward slander, no matter who uters it." Charles F. Murphy, the Tamme hall leader, in an interview today said Roosevelt's sentiments expresse as through Secy. Root at Utica last night nor Richard Croker's endorsement of Senator McCarren's stand will affect the general result of the election. "The people's minds are made up." said Mr. Murphy, "they will vote for Mr. Hearst."

PURCHASES OF SILVER.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The director of the mint today purchased 100,000 ounces of silver for delivery at the Denver-mint at 71.25 per fine ounce, and 50-600 ounces for delivery at the Philadei-phia mint at 71.26 per fine gunce.

METCALF'S CONFERENCE.

A.J. McMillan's Body Found in a Field Near His Tome. Pittsburg. Nov. 2.—The body of A. J. McMillan, a manufacture of agent, said be quite wealtby, was found today in

-THE-CHRISTMAS NEWS

Will be Issued

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1906.

The theme of the issue will be

UTAH AND HER NEIGHBORS: Their Growth and Development During 1906, and Their Prospects for 1907.

The number will be issued in colors and enclosed in illuminated covers.

CHRISTMAS NEWS PRIZES.

In conformity with its custom in the past, which has proved so popular with the public, the Deseret News announces the following prizes for its Christmas issue.

First-A Prize of $50.00 cash for the best Christmas Story submitted, not to exceed 8,500 words, about seven columns, or one page, of the Deseret News.

Second-A Prize of $25.00 cash for the best Christmas peem not to exceed 1 200 words.

The competition will close on Nov. 20th, 1906. All stories and poems submitted must be addressed the Deseret News, Christmas Department, Salt Lake City, Utah. They must be signed with a nom de plume, or a fictitious name, and a separate envelope must be forwarded containing the real name of the author.

Manuscripts not accepted will be returned on receipt of postage.

GIFT TO SAGE EMPLOYES.

New York, Nov. 2.—The employes in the office of the late Russell Sage have received in addition to their regular Octo-ber salary from the estate checks from Mrs. Sage for an equal amount, which virtually doubles their salaries. Five men are the recipients. Mrs. Sage designed the increased pay to be a reward for long and faithful ser-vice on the part of her husband's em-ployes.

Central said the proposals made by the men were being considered, and that there would probably be another con-

ity. We believe the mileage rate to be the most equitable that is possible and the majority of the men, I believe, think the same way." Supt. C. R. Smith of the New York and we have been looking for an oppor-tunity to obtain some kind of uniform Roosevelt We believe the mileage rate to be

LUTHER LEAGUE SENDS MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT.

Canton, O., Nov. 2.-Just before ad-journing the Luther League of America ordered this message sent to President "The Luther League of America in nvention at Canton appreciates your convention at Canton appreciates your high sentiment concerning the Luther-an church as a vital factor in the re-ligious development of the nation. We pledge our support of the government in the words of First Timothy il, 1-14." The sentiments of the president to which reference is made was in sub-stance that a great problem confront-