We're not ashamed to own our Lord,

Elder Rudger Clawson of the Council of the Apostles addressed the congregation on the duties of the Latter-day Saints, giving practical instructions on the course which they should pursue,

He showed that there was no time to waste in useless pleasures or in reading that which gave no instruction. He referred to trashy literature and while he admitted that some of the high standard novels which inculcated virtue and honor and integrity might do no harm, the sensational and corrupt stories that were read with avidity were very harmful and a waste of precious time. He showed that God is no respector of persons, also that there was no place in the Church for strife or for vaulting ambition nor for idleness. He touched on the subject of tithing and read from the financial reports to show that there was still many non-tithe payers, numbering among them members of the various quorums fo the Priesthood. He argued all these should be exemplary men and the promise of the Lord would be found true in their case as well as others, but unless they obeyed this law this land should not be a Zion unto them. There had been great improvement in the observance of this law, and he believed that in another year it would be found that the number of non-tithe payers would be considerably less than at present. Apos-tle Heber J. Grant followed, bearing testimony to the truth of the teachings which had been given, and giving practhe building up of His kingdom.

Joseph E. Taylor and inflexible law of initiation into the Peprose, counselors, kingdom of God, and received the Holy Ghost after coming up out of the water. He also chose twelve Apostles and Seventy Elders whom he sent out to preach the Gospel without purse scrip. They were to preach the Gospe to every creature and they who be-lleved and were baptized would be saved, while those who believed not would be damned and certain signs would follow them that believed. Elder Penrose quoted amply from the Bible, passages relating to baptism and the reception of the Holy Grost by the laying on of hands; which ordinances followed by the gifts promised to bellevers by the Savior. For ages, he said, the world has been filled with confusion and contention in relation to religious doctrine. The authority that was given to the Apostles two thousand years ago does not commission any man to preach and administer the Gospel now. The speaker went on to point out the necessity of having divine authority in order to ef-fectually administer in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Chost. He told how the servants of God in former days received that authority, testified to its restoration in these latter days. Elder Penrose reiterated and dwelt upon the rule hald down by the Savior. "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God," and showed that those who obey this law and receive the Holy Ghost, are called to be Saints of the most High God, They must love Him with all their might, mind and strength, and their neighbors as themselves. These are the first principles of the Gospel that is to be preached in all the nations of the earth, and ultimately to every creature whether in the body or in the spirit world, until the work of Christ and His servants is accomplished in the salvation of the sons and daughters of God. The choir sang the anthem, "God of Israel Hear Our Prayers." The confer-ence was adjourned for three months. The benediction was pronounced by Patriarch John Smith.

Cholera Morbas a Dangerous Disease.

In many instances attacks of cholera morbus terminate fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The safe way is to keep at hand a reliable medicine for use in such cases. For this purpose there is nothing so sure as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, W. E. Bosworth, of LaFayette Ala., says: 'In June, 1900, I had a serious attack of cholera morbus and one dose of Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy gave me relief in fifteen minutes."

Elder C. W. Penrose delivered a discourse on the leading principles of the Latter-day Saints faith. He explained for the benefit of strangers present that in sustaining the large number of officers in this Stake of Zion by the votes of the congregation it was not meant that they should be "sustained" financially. This Church does not pay for preaching nor for administering its or-dinances. The Elders travel without purse and scrip and receive no salaries for their services.

The speaker then explained that while these officers were specially called of God to occupy their respective positions the members were all call d to be Saints of the Most High. The name of "Mor-mons" had been given them in derision as the term "Christian" was first used at Antioch. But thte Saints need not be ashamed of it, as it was the name
