And of one dollar to me in hand paid by the said executors, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged.

I, V. L. Decker, the undersigned, a legatee under said will, do hereby acquit and release the said executors and trustees, and each of them, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of them, and their successors in office as such executors and trustees under said will, of and from any and all claim and demand of whatsoever description I may have or hold as a legatee or devisee under said will, or as heir-at-law of the said deceased, against said estate, or against the said executors and trustees, or either of them as such executors or trustees under the said will.

And as against any and all other claim or claims, demand or demands of whatsoever description I may have as a legatee or devisee under the said last will of Brigham Young, deceased, or as heir-at-law of the said deceased, I hereby covenant and agree to hold the said executors and trustees, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns and their successors in office as such executors and trustees under said will, free and harmless.

And I do hereby, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, further covenant and agree to and with the said George Q. Cannon, Brigham Young and Albert Carrington, executors and trustees as aforesaid, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns and their successors in office as such executors and trustees under said will, that if the fund reserved as aforesaid shall not be sufficient to liquidate and pay all the debts, claims and demands against the said estate, and all the costs and expenses of administration and of closing said trust, I will, in such event and upon demand, pay an equal and just proportion of any deficiency that may remain, estimating such proportion by the amount of property received by all the legatees and devisees under said will.

I hereby acknowledge that the foregoing easements, numbered one, two and three, were made before the execution of this release.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this nineteenth day of June, A. D. 1878.
