

A FEARFUL FATE.

AN INTELLIGENT HORSE—A STAGE DRIVER AND PASSENGERS FROZEN.

A Green River correspondent in a Cheyenne Journal wrote under date of Feb. 5th:

"There has been no stage in from Fort Washakie since Wednesday evening. From South Pass City to Big Sandy, a distance of fifty miles, is a night drive, and it is presumed that the drivers have lost their way and have perished in the storm. Albert Dougherty, one of the drivers between Green River and Big Sandy, was caught in the storm Wednesday evening, lay out in forty-eight hours, and was brought in to-night by private conveyance. He was badly frozen, his hands, feet and face being especially injured. He made his way to McCoy's with the assistance of one of his stage horses—which showed itself almost human. Dougherty was unable to mount the horse, and says the only way he succeeded in traveling was as follows: He took hold of the sagacious animal's tail and let it drag him. Whenever his hands became so benumbed that he could no longer retain his grasp on the horse's tail the animal would stop, come up to him, and patiently wait until Dougherty could again entwine his hands in his tail, when it would resume the journey.

The stage coach above mentioned was subsequently heard from. Before reaching Big Sandy, the driver, George Rider, lost the road. There were on the coach besides himself, W. J. Stewart, superintendent of the stage line; W. V. Clark, J. Scott and Miss Maggie Sherlock, passengers. Rider got off the box, and though a blinding snowstorm was raging, started out to look for the road. The rest waited a while for him to return, and then started out to look for him, leaving Miss Sherlock behind in the coach.

Meanwhile the people at Big Sandy became somewhat alarmed at the non-arrival of the stage, long since due, and fearing that they had got off he re-organized a search party and started out to look for them. The stage was found about one and a half miles from the station and Miss Sherlock rescued. She was badly frozen, but not seriously. Soon afterward the rest of the party, with the exception of Mr. Clark, were also found. He, of course has perished. Superintendent Stewart was so badly frozen that he was blind, and has probably died. Rider, the driver, was terribly frozen, but will recover. Scott was found standing upright in the snow, dead. He had evidently kept moving until the very blood froze in his veins, and the deep snow, through which he was trying to make his way, kept the body in an upright position. All were taken to Big Sandy station and cared for.

Natal Day.—On Wednesday last the members of Mayfield Ward, Sanpete Co., surprised their Bishop O. C. Olsen with a finely prepared dinner. After dinner, a conversation followed, when several valuable and useful articles were presented to him. In the evening a very enjoyable dance wound up the day's proceedings. The occasion was the 57th Anniversary of the Bishop's birthday, and the affair was under the management of counselors Jensen and Victor and teachers of the Relief Society. Bishop Olsen has had charge of the Mayfield Ward since its establishment. He is an indefatigable worker and greatly beloved by all. The following short poem (addressed by the sisters), explains, more fully than simple prose, the feelings of the Mayfield people towards their Bishop:—

TO BISHOP O. C. OLSEN,
On His 57th Birthday.

To day we celebrate the birth
Of O. C. Olsen—man of worth:
On this his natal day we meet
Our brother, from our hearts to greet.
He his long life and happiness,
May God him always ever bless
And keep him free from harm and ill,
So that his mission he may fill.
Next noble in the Gospel fight,
He's proved himself and shown his might:
In Zion and in distant lands
He's worked with heart as well as hands,
God's kingdom here on earth to build
And sow the seeds for future yield.
As Father, pastor, Bishop, guide,
He is our confident and pride.
As Friend and Brother greet him then,
And hail him as of best of men!
Our faith and love shall be his shield,
God bless the Bishop of Mayfield.

G. M. C.

Ashland, Pa., June 3, 1880.—A case of spavin that came under my observation was entirely cured by one bottle of Kendall's spavin Cure, and the horse sold afterwards for two hundred dollars. Yours truly,
C. H. BARNARD.

A Splendid Remedy for Lung Disease.

Dr. Robt. Newton, late President of the Eclectic College of the City of New York, and formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, used "Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam" very extensively in his practice, as many of his patients, now living, and restored to health by the use of this invaluable medicine, can amply testify. He always said that so good a remedy ought not to be considered merely as a patent medicine, but that it ought to be prescribed freely by every physician as a sovereign remedy in all cases of Lung disease. It is a sure cure for Consumption, and has no equal for all pectoral complaints.

Kellinger's Liniment

We desire to call the attention of the public to Kellinger's Liniment, one of the best preparations ever put up for all general purposes for which a Liniment is used. Applied to the head it relieves headache, and prevents the hair from falling out.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE is very valuable for professional men. It supplies the phosphates which are always lost by severe mental labor.

ATTENTION FARMERS.

Don't fail to call at L. B. Mattison's, and see the "Glimp" Sulky Plow. It is the best sulky plow in the market, and has Cast or Steel Points to suit the farmer.

CALL at L. B. Mattison's, where you can find a full line of the Concord California farm harnesses and a full assortment of one-horse harnesses, all at bed-rock prices.

GOOD FOR BABIES.

With a baby at breast nothing is so useful for quieting my own and baby's nerves as Parker's Ginger Tonic. It prevents bowel complaints, and is better than any stimulant to give strength and appetite. —A Newark Mother.

When you meet with an accident, get a sprained ankle, or are otherwise injured, don't go to the expense of sending for a doctor, but apply Kendall's Spavin Cure, and you will experience instant relief.

How to avoid drunkenness.
Forbid intoxicating nostrums and use Parker's Ginger Tonic in your family. This delicious remedy never intoxicates, is a true blood and brain food, and aiding all the vital functions never fails to invigorate.

NICHOLS.—In Brigham City, Box Elder County, Utah, January 13, 1883, of old age, Susanah Nichols.

Deceased was born May 8th, 1793, at Otter Creek, Vermont, and was 89 years, 8 months and 10 days old. She moved with her parents into Upper Canada, where she became the wife of Sheldon Nichols, to whom she raised 13 children, nine girls and four boys. Bishop A. Nichols being the second son. She embraced the gospel in January, 1835, was baptized by John K. Page; she moved from Canada with her husband to Dane County, Wisconsin, where she lived until 1871, when she and her husband returned to Canada, her husband being a Baptist. Bishop Nichols, by the counsel of President B. Young, followed them to Canada, and the same year brought them to Brigham City, Utah, where they lived one year; her husband then died, and was buried in Brigham City Cemetery, at the age of 84 years, still a member of the Baptist church. She survived 11 years and 3 months, and then went to rest, after having fought the good fight. She has had ninety-three grand-children, 83 of that number are in Utah, 47 great-grandchildren in Utah, and 16 great-great-grandchildren. She lived to see the fifth generation.

She died and went down to the grave in fulfillment of her Patriarchal Blessing, with the full belief that she would again stand upon the earth with her posterity, when Jesus comes to reign King of Kings and Lord of Lords. She leaves a numerous host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

She was formerly of Ash-ton-under-Lyne, Lancashire, England. Immigrated to Utah in the year 1860. She was the mother of eleven children, seven of whom live to mourn her loss. She also leaves a devoted husband and a host of friends. She was a noble mother in Israel, had full faith in the everlasting Gospel, and lived and died a true Latter-day Saint.

Mt. Star, please copy.

PAKMAN.—At Washington, Utah, Feb. 2nd, 1883, of pneumonia, Elizabeth Ann, wife of David PAKMAN, and daughter of William and Bathsheba Blunden.

Born at Little Walsingham, Suffolk, Eng. Oct. 4th, 1824; baptized in the Boxford branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in February, 1850, by Elder Ebenezer Gillis; emigrated to Utah with her husband in 1870; moved to Dixie in 1873, and resided at Washington, Washington Co., where she remained until her death, after a very severe and painful illness of two weeks. In life she was an affectionate wife, a loving mother, a true friend and faithful Latter-day Saint. The esteem in which she was held by those who knew her, was manifested by the large attendance of sympathizing friends who attended her funeral. The funeral services were held at the residence of Erastus Snow, while in England as a poor widow, with five helpless children to care for and sustain, her house was always open to the Elders of Israel, and her faith in God and his work was firm and unshaken to the last.

WORTHINGTON.—At Big Cottonwood, Salt Lake County, February 9, 1883, of measles, George Igou, son of Orson H. and Sarah S. Worthington, aged 1 year, 2 months and 22 days.

MIKESILL.—At his father's residence in the 21st Ward, of pneumonia, Ammoniah W. Mikesill, aged 39 years, 2 months and 2 days.

Deceased was the son of Hyrum W. Mikesill and Anna A. Scott. He was born in Nauvoo, Hancock Co., Ill.; came to Utah with his father in 1852; traveled a great deal; "came home to die." He was well beloved by all, and had many friends. He died in full faith of the Gospel of Christ.—COM.
