in rendering the decision Judge Mury made a close review of the testiony, particularly that part of it desmbing the interviews between Howell and the defendant when the officers and the detendant when the officers were secreted near at hand. He point-dout that there was a sharp discre., ancy between the testimony of Mc-Nell and that of Howell, and he proweded to consider which was the better substantiated by corroborative tesimony and circumstances. He an-nounced that the testimony of Daniel Hamer explaining his hiring of McNeill was immaterial and was not considered. He also said that he believed Mr. Howel was sincere, but that he was exacted during the McNeill interview and did not remember the conversation as will as the officers who were secreted thre for the purpose of hearing wheth-

And what is equally as important, with ease and perfect safety, by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, the pleasant, harmless, reliable cure for all kinds of pain.

You will find them equally effective in cases of sick or nervous headache, neuralgia, back ache, stomach ache, sciatica, rheumatism, periodic, bearing-down and ovarian pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills cure by their soothing and invigorating influence upon the nerves, which are suffering for vitalizing food.

For this reason they seldom fall to bring instant relief in cases of nervous ness, irritability, sleeplessness, car-sickness, dizziness, and indigestion.

Those who are familiar with the merits of Anti-Pain Pills, the "little comforters," find it unnecessary to suffer at all, and take the Pain Pills on first indication of pain, and they always ward off the attack. They are so sure to do this that they

JESSE S. BROWN LAID TO REST.

Jesse S. Brown, another of those stalwart ploneers of sterling character, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the family burial plot in the Ogden City cemetery; the grave was dedicated by President Charles F. Middleton, Very impressive funeral services were held at the Ogden tabernacle, commencing at 1 o'clock. Bishop George Smuin of the Lynne ward presiding. The ward choir furnished appropriate musical se-lections. A solo was sung by Hogbert Anderson; Orson Griffin and Mrs. Mary Anderson: Orson Griffin and Mrs. Mary Farley sang a duet. The speakers were all ploneer acquaintances of the de-ceased—President C. F. Middleton, El-ders Joseph Hall, Joseph Parry, Lorin Farr and George Smuin. They told of the early life of the deceased and his father and brothers; of their coming to Utab with the first settlers, arriving July 29, 1847; of the excellent work they accomplished in helping to build up this commonwealth. His many noble traits of character and his love of God traits of character and his love of God and the doing of good, were feelingly spoken of by those who knew him for more than a half century. His large posterity were admonished to follow his worthy example, that they may be worthy to enjoy with him the reward of the faithful in God's kingdom. The services were largely attended. The district court for Onelda county has been in session most of the past week here in Preston. The most import-ant case that came up before the court was the suit of the 'Middle Ditch" or Whitney Canal company vs the Cub Riv-er Canal or Lewiston Canal company. Both of the above named canals are taken from the Cub Ever. The district fudge. Hon. Alfred Budge, has asked that all parities taking water from the stream known as Cub river or any of its tribu-tarles present their claims before him the same time that the matter between the Whitney and Lawiston people is set-tied that the whole of the waters used from the Cub river may be decreed ne-cording to priority of rights, that there may be no trouble over that question in the future. A great deal of evidence was taken at this trial, but no decision was rendered. The judge will return on June of this year, and with the state engi-neer will inspect the canals and ditches in question. He will then be able to give a decision that will be just to all partles concerned. The Oneida Stake academy, which has been closed for the past two weeks, on account of sickness, reopened on Mon-day, Jan. 20. The district schools will open next Monday, Feb. 6.
