Negotitating for the Colorado & Southern's Cheyenne & Northern Branch Road.

BUILD TWO LINES IN THE STATE

Planning to Construct Pacific Coast Road and One to Tap the Union Pacific.

(Special to the "News.") Cheyenne, Wyo., March 30 .- An official says the Burlington is now nerotiating for the Colorado & Southern's Cheyenne & Northern branch, Cheyenne to Orin Junction, and the Colorado & Wyoming railroad, Hartville Junction to Guernsey. Agents have recently made careful examinations of both roads and have filed their reports. If the Burlington succeeds in securing the Cheyenne & Northern, it will at once construct a line from Cheyenne to Lyons, Colo., thus forming a connection with its Colorado lines, and giving the Burlington another through line from Denver to the northwest, via Cheyenne, Hartville Junction, Guernsey, Bridgeport and Alliance.

But this route would be too much out of the way and of little advantage over the present Denver-Sidney-Alliance line, so the Burlington has planned to build two lines through Wyoming, one from Orin Junction through Douglas, Casper and on to the Wind River Indian reservation in central Wyoming to a connection at Thermopolis with the line now building south from Frannie, on the Taluca-Cody line. This would give the Burlington a shorter and a di-rect route from Denver to the Pacific northwest, via Lyons, Cheyenne, Orin Junction, Thermopolis, Taluca and Bul-

Ings. The Burlington has also planned to continue the construction of the Pa-cific coast line from Guernsey. Wyo, which has been known as the Alliance-Guernsey branch, and work on which wis suddenly stopped a few years ago when the Northern Pacific gained con-real of the Burlington. The Guernsey. trol of the Burlington. The Guernsey extension will pass through northern Carbon, Sweetwater and central Uinta counties, tapping the gigantic fields of coal, iron and soda in those counties and opening to settlement one of the richest agricultural sections in the west, and a section that now produces thousands of cattle and sheep and mil-lions of pounds of wool annually. From some point in northern Sweet-water county a north and south branch will be constructed competing on the

These two through lines of the Burgion, and the north and south unch just mentioned will develop Wyoming at a marvelous rate, and it is predicted that inside of five years af-ter these roads have been built, central Wyoming will have a population far greater than that of the entire state at the present time. These new lines will bring Denver and Salt Lake in close touch with the tich, and now partially developed re-gions of Wyoming, and both cities will reap a big benefit from the same. Mr. Newman certainly had a very tough time with the grip, and it is no wonder, now that he is over it, that he thinks that the remedy that cured him can't be beat. His case shows how profoundly grip poisons the system and how obstinutely it resists all ordinary efforts to eradicate it. The publication of the following interview with Mr. Newman will shorten the sufferings of others, as it will save them doubtful experiments and guide them at once to treatment that has proved a wonderful upped

Few cases can be worse than Mr. Newman's for he had head, heart and stomach troubles combined with great weakness Speaking of his long ill-ness, he recently said: "The attack of grip which I had eight years ago left me in a very bad fix. I became nearly deat and my head ached continually and was filled with hissing and rearing sounds that were fearfully and roaring sounds that were fearfully annoying. My heart fluttered and had annoying. My heart fluttered and had regular running-away spells. My stom-ach was so sore that I could hardly bear a touch on that part of my body. I had a great deal of pain in the region of my liver and the doctors said that organ was enlarged. My kidneys gave me trouble. When I attempted to get up after sitting a while, they ached so that I could hardly stand." "Didn't you give up and go to bed?" he was asked. "No, I simply wouldn't. My bead and my back ached dreadfully, but hard as it was to stand it I wouldn't give up entirely. I obstinately dragged myself about, kept growing worse and finally

Then I took all kinds of ad-vertised preparations but nothing proved helpful until I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As soon as I got them I knew that I had at last hit the right remedy for my case. The very right remedy for my case. The ve first box did more for me than anythi The very else I had ever taken. I wish I had heard of them long before for they would have saved me money and suffering. They proved to be just what they claim to be. They gave me relief right away and in three months they positively, curved me. PESCO DISCHARGED.

Man Charged With Criminal Assault At Ogdon Goes Free.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, March 31 .- Judge Murphy this morning discharged Joe Pesco, an Italian charged with criminal assault, whose trial has been a feature during the past two days. The court stated that conviction was impossible when the testimony of the complaining witness, Miss Beech, and her sister was taken into consideration. His honor affirmed that he was confident perjury had been committed by the witness in an attempt to shield her lover, and were it not for the fact that he believed the girl to be of a weak mind he would immediately order a warrant to be drawn up charging her with the crime of perjury. At the same time the court took occasion to severely re-primand the defendant.

MISS FOLKMAN DROPPED DEAD.

Miss Margaret Folkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Folkman dropped dead at the family residence at Plain City yesterday. The young lady arose in the morning as usual and proceeded about her household duties, but at the same time complained that she was not feeling very bright. She was suddenly seized with a sharp pain over the heart and expired within a few minutes. Dr. G. W. Baker of Og-den was summoned, but of course he could do nothing except certify as to the cause of death. The de-ceased had suffered from her heart for some time past. The funeral services over the remains of the estimable young lady, who was a member of one of the leading families of Plain City, will occur on Sunday at the meetinghouse in that city at a time yet to be designated.

Ogden State Journal-One hundred Ogden State Journal-One hundred dollars per annum as salary for the judge of the juvenile court in Ogden is absurd on the face of it. Just what wort of man can give reasonable atten-tion to the office for such compensa-tion is a puzzle. If he is one to whom $$ per month is any inducement he cannot be a lawyer of ability sufficient to fit him for the office, because the juvenile judge should be one not un-versed in the law. The aspirant well versed in the law. The aspirant well qualified for the position and having qualified for the position and having Income enough aside from this office to allow him to ignore the nominal salary will be hard to find. If such a candidate should turn up it would be better to pay him no salary at all, because $100 a year would merely be a reflection upon his talents and an impeachment of his philanthropic motives in accenting the philanthropic motives in accepting the place.

BACK FROM HONOLULU.

Messrs Geoghegan and and Dee Spead A Week on the Islands

Messrs. Jos, Geoghegan of this city and Thos. D. Dee of Ogden returned yesterday from a month's absence, during which time they visited San Francisco and the Sandwich Islands spending seven days in and around Honolulu. Mr. Geoghegan was accompanied by two daughters and Mr. Dee by one. They report a very pleasant time passed in visiting various points of interest and on the ocean trip.

Mr. Geoghegan states that business Mr. Geoghegan states that business in Lionolulu is somewhat depressed owing to the prevailing drouth, which is so severe that if it lasts the sugar beet crop this year will be very large-ly reduced. He was surprised to find that the growth of the sugar cane in the islands is an irrigation proposition, and that some of the largest and most expensive irrigation projects in the world had to be employed there to bring water on the cane lands. The labor conditions are very much dis turbed. Chinese immigration is barred labor conditions are very much di-turbed. Chinese immigration is barred and the Japanese are leaving for their native country by every boat, so the the cost of producing cane in the fields is steadily increasing. The normal output of raw sugar in the islands is about 300,000 tons per year, which is shipped for refining to New York and San Francisco San Francisco.

It is surprising to note that to a woman belongs the distinction of having created the figure which should be of consider-ably more interest than any of the sculp-tural offerings at the centennial on ne-count of its great historical significance. Miss Alice Cooper of Denver is to be felicitated for her remarkable conception of the heroic bronze statue of "Saca-hweat," the Indian woman who guided the intrepid explorers, Lewis and Clark, on their expedition into the great north-west. Miss Cooper has not ignored an opportunity to put forth one of her best efforts, and her appreciation of the themes has been very intelligent.
