SENATE.

Mississippi Aid Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, 7.—Sargent, from the committee on appropriations, reported back the house bill for the aid of the sufferers by the overflow of the Mississippi, with an amendment, authorizing the Secretary of War to issue rations and army clothing to the destitute, and appropriating $100,000 therefor; passed.

Sherman, from the committee of finance, reported a bill in relation to the redemption of coin certificates; passed.

HOUSE.

Poor Prospect for the Centennial Bill.

WASHINGTON, 7. — Garfield opposed the Centennial bill and argued against the assumption that the national honor was pledged to support the International Exposition, and declared that, on the contrary, Congress had carefully guarded against committing itself. He express the opinion that the Exposition would be a failure in any event, and that it was an inappropriate day for such an exposition, that the Fourth of July, 1876, ought to be solemnly observed throughout the country, but not in the way proposed by this bill.

Dawes argued against the bill on the score of economy, and said with not a dollar of the public debt paid the present year the government was twenty-nine millions short, that being the amount pledged for payment into the sinking fund the present year. He wanted the gentlemen that were so troubled about the national honor being involved in a note of invitation, to turn their attention to the fact that a pledge stood unredeemed and unredeemable before the world.

Hawley, of Conn., interrupted Dawes by asking excitedly who was chairman of the ways and means committee, and said that he did not bring in this tax bill, if the country was behind financially.

Dawes replied, tauntingly, that Hawley appeared with a show bill in one hand and the tax bill in the other.

Randall and Luttrell spoke in favor of the bill, and Hawley, of Conn., closed the debate on the same side. He reviewed the action of Congress and the Executive to prove that the government was fully committed to the international character of the Exposition, and drew a sarcastic picture of the Secretary of State, in the event of the rejection of the bill, excusing the Yankee Congress for repudiating its pledges. He attacked Dawes on the subject of the alleged deficiency of twenty-nine millions, and demanded to know why he was afraid to bring in a tax bill to make good the deficiency and protect the national honor. He closed with an eloquent appeal to the members to seize the opportunity to renew and strengthen the bonds of union between the North and South, and to show to the world that the United States was a prosperous nation.

The question was then taken on ordering the bill to its third reading and it was rejected, yeas 92, nays 138. Nearly all the western members voted in the negative. Hough, Luttrell and Kendall voted in the affirmative, Page and Nesmith in the negative. Hale, of Maine, moved to reconsider the vote to lay that motion on the table; the latter motion was lost, 17 to 130, the changes in the votes necessary to have the bill being secured by the personal efforts of the Pennsylvania members, who went around soliciting changes, and brought in the absentees. The motion to reconsider was then carried 114 to 112, the Pennsylvania members promising to recommit it to the centennial committee.

Beck moved to substitute the finance committee, but this was rejected.

Hale, of Me., then moved to table the bill, but pending the vote, a motion to adjourn was carried and the bill comes up again to-morrow.

EASTERN.

Arkansas Supreme Court Decision.

LITTLE ROCK, 7.—The Supreme Court met this morning, and the case of Brooks against Page, state treasurer, asking for a mandamus, compelling Page to pay a requisition made on him by Brooks, as governor of Arkansas, came up, and a decision was rendered granting the mandamus, the court holding that the decision of Judge Whylock, of the circuit court, rendering a judgment of ouster against Baxter was valid; Brooks' supporters now think the President will recognize Brooks as governor.

A Forger Sentenced.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., 7.—Joseph H. Blackburn, ex-U. S. marshal of this district, was sentenced by Judge Triggin, of the U. S. district court, yesterday, to four and a half years' hard labor in the State prison, for forging the signature of sureties on his official bond.

WESTERN.

Mr. Pope as "Belphegor."

SAN FRANCISCO, 7. — Charles Pope, manager and actor from St. Louis, is playing a very successful engagement at the California theatre. The Call says his rendering of the character of the mountebank was remarkably effective. The Bulletin says, his Belphegor was an excellent representation, with remarkable fidelity to nature. The entire press is unanimous in his praise.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Sir Lambton Lorraine Speaks.

LONDON, 7.—Lambton Lorraine, in a communication to the Pall Mall Gazette says, "The reported interview with myself, published in the New York papers, is fictitious. I never said that blood was thicker than water, that the English people have a strong affection for their American cousins, and that it would give me much pleasure to receive a silver brick. Whatever may be my opinion, I am no admirer of those Englishmen who are given to fawning upon their American cousins at the expense of their own self-respect."

Business in the Commons—The Colliers' Strike Over.

In the Commons, to-day, Robert Bourke, under secretary of the foreign department, said, in reply to a question, that the government desires resumption of diplomatic relations with Mexico, and is ready to receive overtures to that end, but that none such have yet been received. Fourke also, in reply to Henry Wolff, said the present government had not considered it their duty to take steps to carry into execution the 6th clause of the Treaty of Washington.

In reply to an inquiry from Julian Goldsmith, John C. Badderly, president of the Board of Trade, states that Tyler, a government inspector attached to the Board of Trade, was going to America on a two years' leave of absence to examine into the affairs of the Erie Railroad, but that the arrangement was a private one, of which the government was not officially cognizant. Goldsmith gave notice that he would call the attention of the House to the matter.

The coal miners of Durham have yielded to the terms of the employers and the strike is over.

SPAIN.

Serrano Congratulated—Carlists Hopeful.

MADRID, 7.—Castelar tendered Serrano his congratulations on his successes in the north.

Serrano, in reply to the congratulations of the provincial deputation, said the Carlist movement was only shaken, it was not vanquished.

Don Carlos has issued a proclamation to his followers, expressing confidence in their eventual triumph.
