

with a crash. Mrs. Gubler and child were injured, although we believe not seriously. C. M. Lockwood has the contract for running the mails from the Dalles to this city, and his agent, John A. Culver, is, we understand, in the city; but we understand that he has sub-let the contract from Bear River north to this city.

This wild and dangerous driving is being carried to an extent that will not brook of being much longer borne with. The lives of the woman and child might have been sacrificed; but the driver—reckless of consequences—dashed his stage against a rickety wagon, and must be satisfied that it was sufficiently heavy to bear the frail thing to the ground.

We have to put the brake on in thinking or writing on such occurrences, or we would use language that probably would be better left unsaid.

FOR THE U. P. R. R.—The Omaha Herald states that during the last twenty days of September there were shipped across the river by the transfer boats of the Union Pacific Company, 1,056 cars of railroad material and six new locomotives of the largest pattern, and all sent west for use on the U. P. R. R.

The same paper of the 16th, says that "An additional Paymaster's car is now nearly finished at the car works in this city. It is about the same dimensions of a caboose, but it is finished in a very superior manner, having a sleeping saloon, with accommodations for five persons, a splendid office and an ante-room for the accommodation of the employees of the road who have the pleasure occasionally of stepping up to the Captain's office to settle. This car will be used on the road from Cheyenne to Salt Lake."

AN OVATION.—From the Helena, M. T., papers of the 16th, we learn that Madam Scheller's Benefit, on Wednesday night week, was an ovation, the house being densely crowded in every part, and the demonstrations of applause most enthusiastic.

Mr. Methua and Madame started for this city yesterday, and will likely be here in the beginning of the week.

POLICE.—On Wednesday night a gentleman whose patronymic—real or assumed—is the same as that of the great Scottish bard—Burns, having imbibed beyond the bounds marked by any well regulated fuddlemeter, was taken in charge, and yesterday he was requested to present $10 to the City treasury. He did so.

Last night Charles Holley, of Lamanite descent, indulged overmuch, and this morning had to hand over an X.

J. B. Johnson, who has a rheumatism somewhere in his neck which leads him to frequent and diurnal potations, partook too largely of the fluid which most he patronizes, and this morning he also was called upon for one of Uncle's pictures representing $10.

Isaac Matthews was overhauled and hauled up, on the charge of stealing pants, and an opportunity offering he "slipped his cable," and "cleared out," leaving his coat and hat for the missing pants. The police will probably look for him to return him the articles of clothing which he so liberally left behind.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A son of the late Abel Evans, of Lehi, a lad of about fourteen years of age, was brought to this city yesterday with his hand shockingly mutilated, having been crushed in the cogs of a molasses mill. He was placed in charge of Dr. Anderson, who found it necessary to remove two of his fingers, with the expectation of saving the rest of the hand. The operation was performed yesterday afternoon, and the little fellow is doing well.

BURNT DOWN.—On Thursday, 1st inst., as Edward F. Munn, of Montpelier, Rich county, was gone after the last of his hay, and his wife was gone to the creek for water, their little boy Joseph, four years old, got a match and went into the stack-yard, where he lighted it, setting a stack of barley and oats on fire, and half an acre of Sora on wheat, which were destroyed. The united efforts of the few men in town—most of them being engaged in building a bridge over the outlet from Bear Lake—aided by the sisters, succeeded in saving a stack containing six acres of wheat and the hay. After Mr. Munn got home, he watched till one o'clock, lest the fire should not have been totally extinguished. About an hour after he went to bed the wheat stack was in a blaze. All the available assistance in the place was soon on hand, but their united efforts were unable to save the grain, the whole being burnt to the ground. Fortunately the wind was favorable, and the hay, corral, stables and sheds were saved. The loss is a serious one to bro. Munn.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

FROM OXFORD.—Our correspondent from Oxford, Round Valley, writes on the 18th, and says that good health prevails in that settlement. They raised, of crops, what the 'hoppers' saw fit to leave them, but they expect to have enough to sustain them till next harvest and a little over.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.—We hear that there are many rumors in circulation in the city respecting accidents that have occurred to the men engaged in blasting rock on the contract of Sharp & Young, in Weber Canyon. There are various stories, or numerous versions of the same story, which state the number blown to be from three up to twenty. We do not know how such reports get in circulation, but those who originate them are highly censurable, and are guilty of great cruelties. Such stories create alarm in the minds of the families and relatives of those who are engaged in working on that contract, and they are subjected to all the tortures of anxiety and suspense, lest some of their loved ones should be involved in the catastrophe. Joseph A. Young, Esq., has had numerous inquiries addressed to him upon the subject by wives and others anxious about their relatives.

We can assure the public that we are in the best possible position for knowing the condition of the works in the Canyon, and should anything occur—which we sincerely trust will never be the case—we should be immediately informed of the particulars, and be able to make them public in a reliable manner. There is no room for excitement or alarm in relation to reported accidents, so long as no account of them appear in our columns. There is not a doubt but if any thing should at any time happen Messrs. Sharp & Young would start an express immediately with the particulars. We hope this statement will be sufficient to quiet any feeling of alarm that may exist, and check the circulation of unfounded rumors in the future.

Bro. James Livingston left the tunnels in Weber Canyon last night, and to-day informed us that everything is progressing finely, and the men are well. About one-third of the lower tunnel is done, and the heavy approach to it is being worked by three shifts of men. Large fires are kept burning at night that they may see to work by. Three shifts of men are also at work in each end of each tunnel. An excellent spirit prevails among the brethren working there.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.—During a severe storm recently in Morgantown, Butler county, Ky., the following singular freak was performed by the electric fluid: A young lady while standing at the window of a private residence, watching the warring of the elements, was stunned, but not otherwise hurt, by a flash of lightning, which passed through the window at which she was standing. It was afterwards discovered that a perfect likeness of an alanthus tree, which stood immediately in front of the window, was seemingly, indelibly photographed on the bosom of the young lady. This is one of the strangest freaks of this—one of Nature's mightiest agents, yet recorded.

ACCIDENT.—James Jordan, of the 10th Ward, who is in the neighborhood of 50 years of age, while working at a saw mill on the Hon. John Taylor's contract in Weber Canyon, had his arm terribly lacerated by a circular saw and the bones shattered, on Thursday last. He was brought into town yesterday morning, and Dr. Anderson was immediately called, who found it necessary to amputate the arm. This morning Bro. Jordan was doing favorably.

GOT IN.—The immigrants who were detained behind by sickness got in to-day about 11 o'clock, with the teams sent for them. They were about 60 in number, and were in charge of Elder F. C. Anderson, returning missionary. One died coming into the city; two are still sick; the rest are in good health and spirits.

DIED.—This morning, Mand Morgan, daughter of Thomas and Annie Williams, aged 1 year, 10 months and 15 days.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Elder A. Miber occupied the time in the forenoon, treating on the comprehensiveness of the gospel, the power of the Priesthood which God has bestowed upon His servants, the principle of revelation, and the obligations we are under to God to be faithful and obedient to the principles of truth, with the further blessings which we will receive as a result of such obedience.

Afternoon. Ep. W. W. Cluff briefly expressed his faith and feelings with regard to the work of God.

He was followed by Elder Francis S. Brown, who has just returned from a mission of three and a half years to Europe. Elder Brown occupied the chief of the afternoon in relating his experience among the people of Holland.

Elder John L. Smith closed the services of the day by bearing this testimony to the truth of "Mormonism."

TRAIN IN.—Mr. Fenn's train of thirteen wagons arrived to-day with goods for Jennings & Co., Walker Bro's, A. Shipp, and L. Reggel.

WORTH EMULATING.—The 19th Ward has a fine choir of nearly thirty voices, selected from the Sunday School of the Ward, and trained by Bro. Wm. Asper, who sing the pieces in a very creditable style, and do honor to their teachers and to the Ward.

WORSE.—We learn that Bro. James Jordan, of the 10th Ward, whose arm was amputated on Friday last, was very low this morning, having grown much worse than he was on Saturday. We sincerely hope that he will not succumb to his sufferings, but that he may recover to a prolonged life of usefulness.

MAGIC AND MYSTERY.—Professor Bosco gave his entertainment on Friday evening, and displayed his skill as a prestidigitator. He is a very clever and skillful performer.

On Wednesday evening he appears again in an entirely new programme, one part of which will consist in the performance of a number of tricks and then showing how they are done. He will also introduce a comic shadow pantomime, assisted by a full cast of clever performers.

IN TOWN.—We met M. D. de Vivo, agent for M'me Parepa Rosa, this morning, and was pleased to make the gentleman's acquaintance. He arrived by stage yesterday afternoon, from the west and informs us that the world-famed prima donna and troupe will be here on Wednesday or Thursday week.

GONE EAST.—George A. Alder, Esq., of the firm of Dunford & Sons, went east by stage this morning, on business for the firm. He will probably extend his travels to the "Hub," before he returns.

DIED.—In this city, on Sunday evening, Oct. 25th, '68, Henry D. Sherwood, aged 37 years.

Colorado papers, please copy.

The subject of the above notice is favorably known to this community as a prominent clerk, up to the time of his illness, in the office of Wells, Fargo & Co., in this city. His numerous friends in this city will learn of his early death with deep regret, and sincerely condole with those absent ones who are thus deprived of a loving and dutiful brother. His funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CALLED.—We received a call, this morning, from Elder F. C. Anderson, just returned from a mission to Europe. Elder Anderson left Utah in May 1865, reached Liverpool in the early part of August, and was appointed to labor in the Scandinavian mission. A few months afterwards he was appointed to preside over the Edinburgh Conference, and subsequently over the Bristol Conference; where he continued until last May, when he was released to return home. On arriving at New York he assisted in forwarding the various companies of emigrants to the terminus, and was afterwards left to look after those who were detained, through sickness, at Ward's Island hospital. The company were released from the hospital on the 3rd inst., and started for the terminus, arriving there on the 13th, being treated with marked respect and consideration by the railway officials along the entire line. One of this company, named Christian Petersen, was unavoidably left behind at New York. He had the misfortune to break his leg while crossing the Atlantic on board the Emerald Isle, and though in a fair way of recovery, it was not deemed prudent for him to risk the journey this season.

OBITUARY.

On Wednesday the 14th inst., Bro. Henry Erikson was thrown from a wagon, while descending a little hill near his residence, in Mill Creek Ward, the loaded wagon passing over his body; he lived only about two hours and a half after the injury.

Deceased was born in Stavanger, Norway, June 17th, 1792; he emigrated to Illinois in 1836; embraced the gospel December 25th, 1842; came to this valley in the fall of 1849.

The summons of death, though painful to his family and friends, and sudden and unexpected to all, yet he was prepared to meet it. He was always to be found in the line of his duty, and ever maintained that dignity of character that becomes a Saint. He died respected and beloved by all who knew him.

in behalf of family and friends.

Alexander Ott died of asthma, at his residence in this city, October 15th, at 20 minutes to 9 a.m. He was born July, 1823, in Prussia.—His father held a high office in the Prussian government. He embraced the gospel in Hamburg, Germany, about 14 years ago, and emigrated to this country in 1855, in company with his mother, who died on the plains of cholera, and was buried by his own hands. He has traveled and preached the gospel, and being able to speak several languages and translate others, having had a classical education, he was found a very efficient laborer in disseminating the principles of the gospel abroad. He had been sent on two missions, one to France and Jersey, and the other to the States, and assisted Elder John Taylor on the Mormon, published in New York. He had been sick for the last two years, and was only able to give very little attention to his avocation as school and private teacher, which profession he followed in this city. He lived and died a Saint, beloved by those around him, and is now at rest from his labors.—Com.

Samuel Dennis White, who died on the 17th instant, at the residence of Elder A. Milton Musser, 13th Ward, in this city, was born in St. Lawrence county, New York, March 9th, 1818. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1838, by Elder Moses Smith.

In 1844, he was sent to the State of New York to preach the Gospel, and after the martyrdom of the Prophet Joseph and the Patriarch Hyrum Smith he returned again to Nauvoo, and in 1846, with the exiled Saints, he moved west, and located for a season near Winter Quarters. In 1850, he came to the valley and located at Lehi. In 1853, he was called to strengthen the settlement of Cedar city and aid in the development of iron. In 1858, with others he went with teams to bring the Saints from San Bernardino, California. In 1859, he located his family at the then new place of Beaver, after which with a number of other Elders he went to the White Mountains to open a settlement there. In 1863 and 1866, he was placed in charge of companies, detailed to bring poor Saints from the Missouri river, and as far as the writer can learn, he never shrank from any duty whatever, that was put upon him by the authorities of the Church; nor can any one for a moment question his integrity to the Gospel and his love for the truth.

He had been sick off and on for several years, and at his death he was on a visit to the city to attend Conference, which pleasure he enjoyed only the first day and evening, when he took to his bed, which he kept, gradually growing worse until he fell gently asleep without pain or the least struggle. During his late illness, President D. H. Wells and Elders F. D. Richards, Geo. Q. Cannon, R. T. Burton, J. C. Little and others visited and frequently administered to him, while his faithful wife, (a sister of R. T. Burton,) and daughter, did everything in their power to contribute to his comfort. He leaves behind him a loving and numerous family; an aged mother, brother and sister to mourn his early departure from this useful life.—Com.

He was one of the emigration teamsters, this season, having left Smithfield June 12th and returned Sept. 7th, and by the slight circumstance of stepping off the boat to speak to an acquaintance, at Green River, he was saved probably from being drowned, as the boat sunk and four teamsters were lost, as reported during the summer in the News.—Com.
