

STAGE ROBBERY IN YELLOWSTONE PARK

Lone Highwayman Holds Up Eleven Coaches, Containing About 125 Persons.

GOT SOME $2,000 IN MONEY.

From a Coach Load of Girls He Took Their Candy—Soldiers Were Soon in Pursuit.

Lake Hotel, Yellowstone Park, Wyo., Aug. 24.—The greatest stage holdup in the west for many years, at least in the number of coaches held up, occurred today within the boundaries of the Yellowstone Park. The work was done by a lone highwayman and the passengers were absolutely helpless in his hands, as no guns are permitted in the park to either drivers or tourists.

In all it is estimated from the statements of passengers that something like $2,000 in cash and valuables were taken, besides a rich haul in watches and jewelry.

SCENE OF HOLDUP. In all 21 coaches left the Upper Geyser basin this morning. The highwayman was encountered about five miles from the park on a lonely path along the banks of Spring creek, a tributary of the Snake river. The creek is lined with bushes. The first lot of coaches, numbering seven, and following each other closely, passed by the place unharmed. There was a gap between them and the next lot of eight followed. As the first of the eight came along, the highwayman stepped from the bushes and ordered the driver to halt. He did not molest the driver for any of the drivers following.

On the first coach sat B. Drew of Orlando, Fla., and his stepson, P. H. Gustin. Mr. Drew, with the gun upon him, was ordered to hand over, which he did, to the extent of $50. Mr. Gustin, a boy of 15, was ordered to dismount and hold the man's back. This he did, at the point of a gun, all along the line of eight coaches. Every driver was warned not to start his team or he would be shot.

In one of the other coaches, Forrest Stevens of Wilkesbarre, Pa., gave a nervous laugh which seemed to enrage the holdup man and he was ordered to dismount and also accompany the highwayman when he got out. He started to go around the rig, but was summarily ordered to come back and get a whack over the head with the barrel of the rifle for his pains.

When the last of the eight coaches was reached the highwayman remarked that he had a good mind to shoot him any way and did fire a shot over his head. Then he was ordered back to his seat and the driver ordered to move on. The eight coaches had scarcely moved when three more came along and these were treated in a like manner.

In one of these coaches was M. L. Walker, a Chicago banker. He had $10,000 in drafts in his pocketbook and tried to conceal this under the seat. The holdup man saw him and made him dig it up. Mr. Walker asked for a receipt and transportation back, but they were contemptuously thrown into the bushes with the remark that he would have done so if he had not tried to hide his money.

The last coach contained five young ladies. He did not get much from them, but did appropriate some candy that he found in one of the ladies' bags. In all about 125 people were held up, though not all of these suffered loss. When he ordered the drivers to move on, he stood a few minutes with his gun pointed toward them and then walked toward them. As quickly as possible a telephone station was reached at Thumb station, word was sent to the soldiers, and a detail started after him.

DESCRIPTION OF HIGHWAYMAN. The man is described as about 5 feet 6 inches, blue-gray eyes, bristly gray whiskers, and acted either as a man who was short of breath or a consumptive. He understood German, as he answered questions asked him in that language. He had on blueish-brown corded brown shirt, soft felt hat, and carried an automatic rifle and used smokeless powder.

At a meeting tonight of the victims, held in the Lake hotel, the following resolutions were passed, which the report that they be sent to the Associated Press:

RESOLUTIONS BY VICTIMS. On the morning of Aug. 24, in Yellowstone park, on the road to Old Faithful Inn and Thumb Lake, several coaches of the transportation company and other vehicles containing men, women and children were held up and robbed by a highwayman. These travelers were entirely defenseless, as by the rules of the park tourists and visitors are not permitted to carry weapons of offense or defense.

They were insulted, struck, and robbed of money and valuables to the extent of about $2,000.

"As this reservation has been taken from the public domain and placed in special charge of the department of the interior, and is professedly patrolled and governed by the United States officers and soldiers, citizens of the United States have a special claim for protection and defense in their peaceful passage through the park or transient residence therein.

"The undersigned citizens and guests of the United States do, therefore, respectfully request the Hon. James A. Garfield, secretary of the interior, to make a suitable investigation of the facts set forth above, with a view to ascertaining whether there has been neglect of duty on the part of any guardians of the park; whether the aggressive citizens have any suitable means of redress; and whether action from the government and soldiers are necessary to insure greater safety and defense in the future in the Yellowstone National Park.

"R. B. CHRISTIAN, Secy."

All haste was made back to Old Faithful inn, and the side in the six-hour coach at full speed to give the alarm was not the least exciting of the morning incidents. The soldiers immediately notified every camp and within a few minutes every soldier in the park was aware of the robbery. A messenger was dispatched to the head of the park, where the Gallatin river crosses the boundary of the park. The soldiers from Yellowstone were on the road to take up the trail within 10 minutes after news was received. It is almost certain that the holdup man is heading for a point between Big Springs and Ashcroft on the Oregon Short Land's Yellowstone Park branch, and north of Old Springs.

The robber is in extremely rough country. He dare not remain long on the grounds for the soldiers have positions at no great distance apart, and all the stations are connected by telephone lines. The theory is that he is trying to make his way across the Gallatin range and is using a trail through the mountains known as Specimen mountain. There are but a few settlers in the upper and lower basins, together with forest rangers, and if he continues after reaching the main road he could not escape observation. On the west Gallatin trail a squad of soldiers is posted near the line. At this season of the year he could remain for a long time in the mountains without being seen for there is no snow except on the summits.

AMERICAN SAILORS. Will Not Be Permitted to Break Hearts of Japanese Geisha Girls.

New York, Aug. 24.—The American sailors of Admiral Sperry's around-the-world fleet will not be permitted to break the hearts of the Japanese geisha girls if the Y. M. C. A. of Japan, the native Christian churches and the missionaries are able to prevent it. Information from Tokyo was received at the headquarters of the Y. M. C. A. in this city today that the Christian religious organizations of Japan are circulating petitions among the citizens of Japan cities which the men of the American fleet will visit, protesting against the old style of Japanese hospitality, which is expected to include introduction to the geisha girls.

The object of the movement is announced to be a celebration more in keeping with American ideals. It is said to be desired that a precedent be established of eliminating geisha girls from public entertainments in Japan.

LOST DIAMOND RING FOUND IN CLAM SHELL

New York, Aug. 25.—John J. Rayner of West Hampton, L. I., found a diamond in a clam shell Sunday. It is not unusual to find pearls of more or less value in Long Island clam shells, but this is said to be the first time a diamond was ever found in a clam shell.

William Hudgins, a summer resident at Quogue, lost a diamond ring valued at $500 near the pavilion on the Quogue beach 19 days ago. Rayner was walking along the beach at low tide Sunday when he saw a glimmering object lying on the sand. He picked it up and found it to be a diamond, handsomely set in a massive ring. Inquiry proved it to be the property of Mr. Hudgins.

The owner was so delighted at recovering the lost ring that he gave the finder $50.

At the lower end of the street the automobile was rescued.

A number of house foundations were weakened. The Grand hotel and the guests, moved out. Tonight the town is without fire protection, owing to water mains being washed away. The street is off, and big coverage mains are broken in many places. So far as is known there is no loss of life.

YOUNG MOTHERS

A mother who is in good physical condition transmits to her child the blessing of a good constitution; sickly, ailing mothers, the reverse. The tiny babe brings to her a living responsibility. At such a time too great care cannot be taken to build up the mother's general constitution, and restore her feminine system to a healthy, normal condition. The greatest assistance that any woman can have in accomplishing this all-important work is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND Mrs. M. Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I was not only restored to health but am the proud mother of a fine baby girl. I wish every sick and ailing woman would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial."

Mrs. Paul Oliver, of St. Martinville, La., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "For years I suffered from the worst form of female troubles, and the doctor said I could not get well without an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I have the sweetest little baby girl. I will never cease to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."

AUTOMOBILISTS KILL A BOY.

Dresden, Aug. 24.—A. C. Bartlett of Chicago, accompanied by his wife and daughter, were taken to task by Karlshof to Dresden last Saturday when the car ran over and killed a boy eight years old in the village of Schmiedeburg, 30 miles from here. It appears that the boy ran suddenly in front of the machine from behind a car.

The villagers made a hostile demonstration against the Bartlett party, who took refuge in a nearby hotel. From Schmiedeburg Mr. Bartlett telephoned to Consul-General Gaffney at Dresden, who went down to Schmiedeburg. They found the police and village authorities in session taking testimony. It was decided Sunday morning that the chauffeur, a man named Cummings, was blameless.

Mr. Bartlett said immediately that he would indemnify the family of the boy.

The men from the American fleet were given an ovation as they marched past. In conclusion the parade band played the national anthem and the band was entertained at luncheon after which they took motor cars to Fort Macquarie and re-embarked.

The forces of the Commonwealth, after the review, marched through the streets of the city. The weather today was warm and bright and it became showery in the evening. The entertainment had to be abandoned.

Commenting on the review, Admiral Sperry said it would be a great honor for the body of volunteer troops he had ever seen.

MURDER MYSTERY FINALLY SOLVED

Mrs. Bonnie Rosenbloom and Daughter Eva Tell of Killing Of Husband and Father.

SON ALEX IS GUILTY PARTY

Night of the Deed Had Been a Quarrel, Women Having Been Beaten.

Baltimore, Aug. 24.—According to the authorities of this city, Mrs. Bonnie Rosenbloom and her daughter Eva confessed today that the body found in the trunk at Bellemawr, near Camden, N. J., on Aug. 16, was that of Samuel J. Rosenbloom of Windber, Pa., husband of the older woman, and that he was killed by the son, Alexander Rosenbloom, at their home in Windber, Pa., on or about Nov. 12 last. The woman said the cause of the murder was that her husband had beaten them.

Mrs. Rosenbloom, who is 27 years of age, and her daughter, who is 16, were arrested this morning at their home here. July 14 last they came to this city to confess the murder of the son of the family, Harry Rosenbloom, had employment here.

For nearly an hour Mrs. Rosenbloom and her daughter were questioned by Detective Capt. Humphrey before they confessed to the killing.

Mrs. Rosenbloom said on the night of the murder her husband quarreled with her and daughter, and she and her daughter, she said, went upstairs to their room. They heard loud words in the store beneath. In the morning they came downstairs and her husband was not there.

They asked her son Alexander where his father was. He replied that he had "gone away."

Later, Mrs. Rosenbloom said, her son said to her: "I have killed father because he quarreled with all of us and beat you and Eva."

Mrs. Rosenbloom says that she did not know of her son concealing the body of his father in the trunk, and that neither she nor her daughter Eva had asked him any questions. They went upstairs and found the body in the trunk, and she supposed that her son placed the body in one of the trunks and the body into the stable in the rear of the store, where he kept it until he was ready to take it away.

Mrs. Rosenbloom said that she did not know of her son's whereabouts.

WANTS RELATIVES ARRESTED.

New York, Aug. 24.—The chief of police of Windber, Pa., today requested the New York police to arrest two young men in this city in connection with the murder of Samuel J. Rosenbloom. The young men are relatives of Mr. Rosenbloom.

HEARST PLEASED AND SURPRISED

Pleased That He is Asked to Resign from Iroquois Club. Surprised to Know It Exists.

IS AMUSINGLY SARCASTIC

"Good Luck and God Bless You, and May You be Able to Keep Up With Your Mule."

San Francisco, Aug. 25.—William Randolph Hearst tonight gave out the contents of a letter he today addressed to the Iroquois club of San Francisco, a Democratic political organization, replying to the request of the club that he tender his resignation as a member. Mr. Hearst says in his letter that he is both pleased and surprised to receive the letter from the club—pleased that he has been asked to resign, and surprised to learn that the club is still in existence.

Mr. Hearst continues: "You imply that I am not a Democrat, and I strongly suspect that I am not, according to Democratic standards of today. You imply further that you are Democrats, and I cannot help wondering what kind of Democrats you think you are. Are you 1892 Democrats or 1896 Democrats, or 1900 Democrats, or 1904 Democrats, or 1908 Democrats? Are you Cleveland Democrats, believing in tariff reform that we did not get, and the military suppression of labor unions that we did get? Are you Parker Democrats, supporting the trusts if they contribute, and opposing them if they don't? Are you Bryan Democrats, believing in free silver sometimes, and government ownership sometimes, and in the initiative and referendum sometimes? If you are Bryan Democrats, do you also believe in a Bryan platform that contains none of these things?"

"Friends and ex-brothers of the Iroquois club, there is no Democratic party; there is only a Bryan party, and the followers of that party don't know when they go to bed at night what they will be called upon to believe when they wake up in the morning."

"And so I received your communication with gratification and gratitude, and so I withdraw from your club with pleasure, and without the slightest hard feeling. Good luck and God bless you, and may you be able to keep up with your mule."

SHE LIKES GOOD THINGS.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Frankfort, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at Z. C. M. I. drug store, 25c.
