COUNTY SCHOOLS' PROGRAM

Given in Ogden Tabernacle at Sixteenth Annual Commencement-Address by Prof. N. T. Porter.

Ogden, June 2.-The Ogden High school commencement exercises were held at the Grand Opera House last evening. The bullding was decorated with the school colors, gold and black, with national flags and flowers, and was packed to the doors with the friends of education. The program was most creditable, indicating the excellent scholastic training the children of the public schools are receiving. The class of '9512 and '96, who received their diplomas last night, is one of the best classes ever turned out of the Ogden High school, which speaks well tor Principal Austin and his able corps of one of the pleasing features of last evening's program was the excellent work done by the High School orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Squire Coop. Their rendition of the "Poet and ant" was encored.
