RECORD FALL OF SNOW.

RECORD FALL OF SNOW. The Yellowston branch of the O. S. L. is now covered by the heaviest fall of snow known to old timers in the district traversed by the extension. This word was received by the operat-ting department last night. At a depth of from five to eight feet, the tracks are covered for almost their entire length and to clear them, three of the road's heaviest engines are behind the big rotary. Progress is very slow, however, and the work is not pro-gressing with utmost speed. The work of clearing the road is being done by Superintendent Armstrong of the Ida-no division.

THREE DIVORCES GRANTED. Mrs. Jeanetts Smyth was granted a decree yesterday in Judge Armstrong's

he be given authority to collect and preserve the property of the estate. Mrs. Ruth Ella Shimmin charged her husbiand, Henry Shimmin, a roofer, of 114 east Sacond South sirect, with cruelty and describen in a complaint filed today in the Third district court to secure a divorce. They were mar-ried here on August 6, 1905, and a few modths later the began to abuse her. On one occasion he struck her in the face, according to her complaint, and threatened to still her. On account of his threats she had to leave him and since that time he has regimed to provide for her. Mrs. Gertrude Van Anda brought an
