

Social activity has all but died out during the past week, the two or three weddings and a few other scattering events being all that have enlivened the days.

The Army of the Philippines' celebration has been the affair upon which chief attention centered, and the events given in honor of the military heroes have awakened a great amount of local interest. The summer resorts are still thronged, and should the weather continue warm, will doubtless be filled to their capacity during the month if not longer. Till the beginning of September, therefore, there will doubtless be the accustomed lull in social matters.

A pretty wedding occurred on Wednesday when Miss Hannah N. Tucker and Clarence O. Brunner were united in marriage. The event took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Tucker, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. H. Arnold at 7 o'clock, and a reception being held at 8. The rooms were tastefully decorated with roses, sweet peas and vines, and the porch and lawn were illuminated with colored lanterns. The bride wore a charming costume of cream silk mull and carried bride roses. Miss Eunice Ginzall, of Denver, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Bert Huthny acted as best man. A large number of friends were present to enjoy the delightful event.

On Wednesday Miss Bardella Shipp and Mr. Theodore E. Curtis were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed in the Temple during the day and a reception being held in the evening at the bride's home on Main street. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of flowers, and the relatives and intimate friends were present. The bride was gowned in a costume of white silk with pearl and lace trimmings. Assisting were: Misses Lottie and Lida Shipp, Mrs. Lottie King, Miss Olea Shipp, Mrs. Delta Neville, Miss Ellis Shipp and the Misses Mollie and Elinor Shipp. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time passed. Among the guests were: Mrs. E. B. Wells, Dr. Ellis Shipp, Mrs. Mary Freeze, Messrs. George and Richard Shipp, Miss Laura Downing, Bishop Thomas Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Butler, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hillstead, Mrs. Maria Hillstead, Mr. and Mrs. E. Curtis, Misses Maud and Florence Simons, Miss Victoria Loyd of Nevada, Miss Bessie Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Melton.

C. R. Savage reached his 69th birthday yesterday and the event was made the occasion of a family celebration. The genial head and front among the old folks' entertainers is now only one year away from "the old folks' mile post," and the celebration of the birthday which brings him into the ranks of those for whom he has so arduously labored for so many years, should be made a notable success.

Misses Mabel Freebairn and Hazel Shair gave a pleasant lawn party last night at the home of Miss Freebairn. The lawn was lighted with Chinese lanterns, and decorated with bunting in red, white and blue. Canvases were stretched on the lawn for dancing and a musical program was rendered. Refreshments were served, and a delightful time enjoyed. About sixty guests were present.

M. E. Christopherson and Miss Dogmar Mariger, were married in the Temple. They left Friday morning for Mt. Pleasant, where they will make their home. Both of the contracting parties were reared in this city and are well known. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mariger of 43 east Eleventh South.

Mrs. S. B. Milner entertained informally on Thursday morning in honor of Mrs. White, of Chicago, Miss Kennard, of Denver, and Miss Grant, of Pennsylvania. The amusement was "32" and prizes were won by Mrs. John Dorn, Mrs. F. R. Knox, and Miss Lamson. The decorations were sweet peas.

A pleasant event of the week was the wedding of Miss Birdie R. Russell and Robert Hildebrand, which took place on Monday. The young people will receive the congratulations of a host of friends. They will be at home at 557 Sixth street after September 15th.

Among the weddings to take place in the early fall are those of Miss Emma Lunt and Dr. W. S. Ellerbeck, and Miss Lennie Savage and Mr. Will Ritter.

RESIDENCE OF GEORGE A. SMITH.

Among the charming homes of Salt Lake is that of George A. Smith, receiver of the U. S. land office, on north West Temple street. The front door opens into a small, but pretty hall, tapestried in pink and green and done in hard wood, the staircase being separated from the front hall with arched woodwork in colonial design. An arched window lights it, and a convenient feature in the rear hall is a washstand set in an alcove. The parlor is on the south, and is finished in tamarack, with tasteful furnishings and tapestries in pale green. The mantel is one of the handsomest in the city, the tiles being of Royal Worcester in exquisite design. The mantel is built in a deep alcove, which contributes a pretty and unique effect to the room. The dining room opens from the parlor on the west, and is also handsomely finished in tamarack, the sideboard being built into the wall. The mantel is effectively designed, the upper part being in the form of a china cabinet with glass doors in lattice effect. The pantry and kitchen, which open out of the dining room, are among the most completely equipped in the city. Both are models of convenience, the kitchen especially having many distinctive features, among them a smoke and soot flume above the range, which effectually disposes of those trials to a housewife's nerves. The basement is fitted with furnace, and fruit and vegetable closets, and has fresh air pipes leading from the latter, which keep the air pure. The sleeping rooms and bath room are on the floor above.

WASATCH.

August 15th.—Messrs. Sam Taylor and Ralph Badger came up Wednesday to remain for a short time. They are registered at the hotel.

The hotel dining-room was the scene last evening for a most delightfully informal hop. A cake-walk in costume closed the evening's merriment, and prizes were awarded the best cake-walkers.

Mrs. Emma Spencer and Miss Maud Patterson return to Salt Lake today, after spending a most delightful holiday in Wasatch.

Mrs. William Keyting, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lulu Keyting, came up this morning to remain a week or two. They are guests at the hotel. Mrs. Mary E. Morris of Salt Lake came up Thursday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Jones, who is occupying one of the cottages.

Mr. Marcellus Snow is staying at the hotel, having arrived on Thursday.

Wasatch was visited today by a most refreshing rain and mountain and dell appear at their best in their fresh, bright hues.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burton drove up Wednesday to remain for a short time.

A large party of young people are expected to arrive at about 10 o'clock on Saturday evening in time for "ye country dance," and to remain over Sunday. Great preparations are being made for them by the younger contingent in camp to make their stay a most interesting one. Every one is wondering who the young ladies were who went in swimming at midnight with the dark side of the lantern toward the creek.

Miss Jessie Davis of Chicago was among the arrivals on Thursday.

Mrs. Gilbert Wilkes expects to return to Salt Lake this week.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the most pleasurable events in store for the coming week will be the Netherlands reunion and grand state excursion to the Lagoons which takes place next Tuesday, August 20, via the Oregon Short Line. A very interesting and pleasing program has been arranged for the occasion. Hon. Rulon S. Wells, of Salt Lake, will be orator of the day. The program consists of songs, recitations, boating contests, races for boys and girls, sack running, tug of war and other games for prizes.

There will also be instrumental music and dancing. It is especially desired that all the missionaries who have labored in the Netherlands mission join in helping to make the celebration a grand success.

Mrs. Hoyt, of Salt Lake, is visiting in Ogden this week the guest of Mrs. Orson Riser.

Fred G. Clark, son of Joseph Clark, manager of the Grand Opera house, returned home Wednesday from a two and a half years' mission in Great Britain.

Mr. Edward Taylor and Mrs. Carrie Raymond, who have been visiting with their uncle James Taylor, have returned to their home at Clinton, Iowa.

Miss Florence Speak and Thomas Richardson, two popular young people of this city, were married Wednesday evening, August 14, by Justice H. C. Wardleigh.

Miss Ruth Blair has returned to Ogden after a pleasant vacation in Cache valley where she has been for the past few weeks.

Misses Jane S. Richards and Ruthinda E. Moench were visiting at Payson, Utah, this week.

Miss Elsie Lafont, of Logan, is spending a few days in Ogden with friends.

Fred Tout has gone to Monte Cristo for a week's pleasure.

George W. Larkin, Jr., was a Salt Lake visitor this week on business and pleasure.

Miss Ethel Marble and Henry Blaylock, two popular young people, of North Ogden, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop James Ward officiating.

BEAUTIFUL OGDEN HOMES.

HON. JOHN M. BROWNING.

The above is a half tone cut of the home of Hon. John M. Browning, Ogden's gun inventor. The home is one of the most attractive in the city and is located on the corner of Adams avenue and 27th street. The house was built in 1899 and is constructed of red sandstone up to the second story. The two upper stories are built of pressed brick with red sandstone trimmings. The arrangements of the interior are very fine. A spacious hall extends from the front door back half way through the house and is connected by a door to every room on the lower floor. On the right of the hall are the large double parlors separated by a handsome arch finished in solid oak. On the left of the hall is the fine library filled with valuable books, and the dining room, the two being connected by solid oak folding doors. There is also a kitchen, the second floor contains five beautiful sleeping apartments and a hall. There are three rooms on the third floor reserved for extra use. In the basement is the laundry, a large play room for the children and the furnace room. The first and second floors are finished in polished oak and the works of art and the ornate furnishings render it one of the most beautiful homes in the state. Every modern convenience is found in the house, and a well kept lawn and flower gardens surrounding the house leaves nothing to be desired.
