CHOLERA INFANTUM CURED.

"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much larmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrheea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a lose of the remedy. It relieved her in 5 minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by all druggists. Executive Says He is Confident Insult Offered Choir Was Not Attributable to Them.

"The cadets captured the fair" said "The cadets captured the fair" said Governor William Spry who returned last evening from Seattle. "Their soldierly bearing and the manner in which they comported themselves attracted general comment and they were everywhere praised. It rained the first two days we were there but that did not prevent the boys having a first-class time. After they had visited the fleet on the invitation of Admiral Sebrie, they marched from the shore through the streets of the city and were given cheer after cheeer from fully 100,000 people assembled along the line of march."

The governor and Mrs. Spry, with Col. Rodney T. Badger and Mrs. Badger were the guests of D. C. Jackling in his private car "Cuprum" on the return trip. Governor Spry said the trip had been a most enjoyable one and that he and his party had been treated with every courtesy. NOT FAULT OF OFFICIALS.

NOT FAULT OF OFFICIALS.

The insult to the tabernacle choir occurred after the governor's party had left the Totem City, but he was positive that whatever had occurred it was no fault of the exposition officials who were courtesy itself.

"We were well satisfied with the Utah Building and the exhibits it contains. The building impresses itself on everyone who sees it. While there may be some who would wish that Utah might be represented by a building more beautiful and more modern, I think that when it is understood that more beautiful sind more modern, I think that when it is understood that the building is erected in memory of a dead race that once inhabited Utah, there can be no criticism of the design. To students of history the building is of special interest. Both the building and the exhibits received words of and the exhibits received words of praise from thousands of visitors daily. "Every Utah person at the fair is delighted with the fair and can't say too much for the courteous treatment of everyone connected with the expo-
