

THE WEEK ON THE EXCHANGE.

Reaction in Daly-West and Big Drop in Uncle Sam the Features.

CARISA STRONGER TODAY.

May Day Weakens—Tetro Declines—Sacramento Active—Victor Sagging—Tosora Firmer.

Business has been very good on the mining exchange this week in spite of the shrinkage in the value of some securities. The sales today amounted to 58,875 shares, which represented a selling value of $41,777.62. The sales for the week amounted to $216,712 and the number of shares sold was 419,109. The features of the week were the reaction in Daly-West and the slump in Uncle Sam. After selling down to $30 last week on rumors of a lawsuit, the stock reacted to better than $30 on Monday, when those rumors were denied. It has since remained firm around $35.50, through heavy purchases by insiders and others. Uncle Sam, which opened at $1.80 on Monday, fell away to $1.35 today. The cause of the drop is unaccountable. Tetro has also weakened this week. Sales were made at 70 on Monday, but the stock sold as low as 69½ today, though it closed at 63. Eagle and Blue Bell sold up to $1.20 today, while Victor fell away to 46½, as compared with 57½ earlier in the week. Lower Mammoth has remained firm all the week around $3.00, while Ajax has shrunk from $1.45 to $1.35, though it closed at $1.37½ today. Sacramento has lost the impetus it gained a few days ago, when it moved up to 24½. It fell away to 20½ today, with the sale of 5,000 shares. Tetro is gradually slipping into obscurity again. After hanging around 31 on Monday, it fell away to 23½ today. Ben Butler, which sold at better than 20 early in the week, sold down to 18½. May Day fell away to $1.37½ today, a shrinkage of 7 cents this week. Carisa is stronger today on the announcement of the dividend, while Golden Eagle hung around 2½. Joe Bowers was weaker today at 7. Closing quotations were posted today as follows:
