

GLASS GIVES HIMSELF UP

Vice President of Pacific States Telephone Co. Surrenders To the Sheriff.

LET OUT ON $90,000 BONDS.

Grand Jury is Still Probing—Mayor Schmitz is Anxious for an Immediate Trial.

San Francisco, March 25.—Louis Glass, vice president of the Pacific States Telephone company, returned tonight to San Francisco by river steamer from Sacramento. Mr. Glass gave himself into the custody of the sheriff and was escorted to Judge Lawler's department of the superior court, where he gave bonds in the sum of $90,000 to cover the nine indictments for bribery returned against him by the grand jury.

Earlier in the afternoon Presiding Judge Coffey of the superior court had fixed the millionaire telephone official's bail at $10,000 on each of the nine counts and had assigned the cases to Judge Lawler's department for trial, at the same time issuing nine bench warrants for Glass's arrest and 13 bench warrants for the arrest of Abraham E. Detweiler, the Ohio millionaire, against whom the grand jury found that number of indictments, charging him with bribery in connection with efforts to secure a competitive franchise in this city for the Home Telephone company. Detweiler has not yet been apprehended. His cases have also been assigned to Judge Lawler for trial.

IMPORTANT WITNESSES AWAY. Little was accomplished by the grand jury today, owing to the failure of important witnesses from Los Angeles to arrive in the city. No indictments were returned during the one session that was held, and only two witnesses were examined. These were Samuel Jacoby, fiscal agent for the Independent Telephone company, which operates in the northwest, and James P. Adams of the Adams-Phillips company of Los Angeles, the bankers and brokers who handled the Home Telephone securities. The subpoenaing of Jacoby, according to a statement made by Asst. Dist. Atty. Heney at the close of the grand jury session, had nothing to do with bribery. He merely testified that his company was anxious to bid on a telephone franchise, and would have bid the price up had it known that one was to be advertised; his company was under the impression that the earthquake and fire had led to an indefinite postponement of the proposed bidding.

All that Mr. Heney would say regarding the testimony given by Adams was: "He had what I wanted, I knew he had it, and I got it."

NEW WITNESSES. The grand jury will resume its sittings at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It is expected that before that hour the witness banking in Los Angeles, subpoenaed last week by the grand jury, will have reached this city. They are A. B. Cass, president of the Home Telephone company of Los Angeles, the president of the Cass-Danaher Hardware company of that city, bank director, member of the chamber of commerce, the Merchants and Manufacturers' association and other important bodies, and in his own name a millionaire; William Mead, president of the Central Bank of Los Angeles and a stockholder in the Home Telephone company; W. C. Patterson, vice-president of the First National bank of Los Angeles and director and stockholder in several other banking institutions; J. S. Torrence and Frank M. Brown, brokers. From these men the grand jury, it is stated, expects to gain much information respecting the alleged bribery of a majority of the agents of the Home Telephone company.

SCHMITZ WANTS SPECIAL TRIAL. San Francisco, March 25.—"I have repeatedly asked for a speedy trial—

GREAT BLESSING TO MANY PEOPLE HERE

May Mean Much Less Sickness Here When Generally Known.

A SIMPLE HOME REMEDY.

Valuable Prescription and How to Prepare if You Have Kidney Troubles Or Rheumatism.

This is a message that will bring happiness again into many families and sunshine into the lives of hundreds of disheartened and discouraged men and women here. It requires just a little inconvenience for it can be bought already prepared. It is a simple home prescription now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the main cause of rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many cripples and invalids and weaklings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce, and Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. This dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Recent experiments, even in severe hospital cases, prove this simple mixture the remedy for Rheumatism, because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It cleanses these most vital organs to filter from the blood and system the waste impurities and uric acid which are the cause of rheumatism. It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood disorders, bladder weakness, frequent urination, painful, scalding and discolored urine. The Dandelion will take care of the liver trouble and constipation. Wherever this mixture is prescribed. Whenever this mixture is prescribed. Whenever this mixture is prescribed.

All the ingredients, states a well-known local druggist, are of vegetable extraction, making it a safe and harmless prescription at any time.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase a bottle of patent medicine should not let a little inconvenience interfere with making up this prescription. Whenever this mixture is prescribed. Whenever this mixture is prescribed. Whenever this mixture is prescribed.

for an immediate trial, and the prosecution has just as often refused it," said Mayor Schmitz in an interview with the Associated Press today. "I valued all technicalities many weeks ago. I wanted to be tried at once. I am willing to be tried by Judge Dunne, although I believe he is prejudiced against me; or I am willing to be tried before any judge in this county, or any judge which the prosecution may wish to bring in from any other county. I personally went before the presiding judge and asked that my case be assigned to some judge who could try me at once. Judge Dunne has refused to proceed with my trial until Rufus's trials are over. That will bring just about the time of the primaries in August. The indictments against me were returned five months ago. I was ready to go on trial before I went to Washington. I am awaiting ready when my case was called a week ago, but the prosecution again postponed it for three weeks.

The mayor told that Dist. Atty. Langdon said it was true the mayor had asked for a trial, but that his action meant delay. Mayor Schmitz virtually declared that the district attorney was outside of the truth in making such a statement, and referred to the court record, which he said showed who was delaying the trial, but he refused to confess as an "outrageous, malicious lie."

"I shall remain in office until the end of my term," concluded the mayor, "and I will run for office as long as the people want me and as long as I can serve them."

ENDING WAR IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Capture of Honduras Capital and Flight of Bonilla Virtually Brings it to Close.

CONFLICT SHORT AND SHARP.

It Will Scarcely be Renewed if Salvador and Guatemala Are Not Allowed to Participate.

Washington, March 25.—The reported capture of Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras, today by the Nicaraguans coupled with the recent defeat of the forces of Honduras and Salvador, at Choluteca and the flight of President Bonilla of Honduras, virtually ends the Central American war. It is now probable that Nicaragua will install another president at the Honduran capital in lieu of President Bonilla, and that she will then withdraw her troops to her own territory.

The conflict has been short and sharp, and the reports which have been received here, none of the engagements have been seriously fought, four or five hundred in the most important engagement reported, the fight at Choluteca. Honduras has been helped in this war by Salvador, with whom she had an alliance, and she has had to contend with a rebellious outbreak of her own people. This was also the case in Nicaragua, revolutionists in each country taking advantage of the difficulties of the government to further their own cause. Three Central American states became involved, Costa Rica and Guatemala remaining neutral.

The United States sent gunboats to both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, and marines were landed at two or three points on the northern coast of Honduras for the protection of American interests. These ports were in the possession of enemies of the Honduran government at the time, and the government of Honduras approved the action.

Early in January the trouble between Honduras and Nicaragua appeared to be becoming acute. Mexico and the United States endeavored to avert an open conflict, but the fighting went on, but stood ready to put a stop to it the moment it threatened seriously to endanger foreign interests.

It is believed that the Nicaraguans are alleged to have stolen in the frontier town of Las Manos one night, the cause of the conflict apparently is found in the ambitions of President Zelaya of Nicaragua to see his chief executive of Honduras a man who would favorably consider the claims of Nicaragua in the matter of delimiting the boundary between the two countries. A possible underlying motive is President Zelaya's far-reaching ambitions. He is credited with a desire to bring about a federation of the states of Central America, and Honduras stood in his way. On the other hand, it is asserted in some quarters that President Bonilla brought about the trouble for the purpose of avoiding disaster at the hands of the revolutionary party, which was daily growing stronger in Honduras.

A feature of the conflict has been that each country has disavowed responsibility for the war. The engagements of the past week have been leading up to the taking of Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras, and the routing of the forces protecting the approaches to the city, the result was only a matter of a few hours. The capital is a bare seven miles from Choluteca, and both are in the heart of a rich mining district. The state department has a representative at the Honduran capital in the person of Philip R. Brown, secretary to the American mission to Honduras and Guatemala, and it is probable that the department will receive a report from him tomorrow. Mr. Brown, who has all along predicted the early taking of Tegucigalpa, had nothing tonight to add to the news of the Nicaraguan victory. His position, as already announced by the Associated Press, is that the fugitive president, Bonilla, will go to Salvador and again recruit his army for a second attack on Nicaragua unless the United States and Mexico insist on maintenance of the neutrality of Salvador and Guatemala, and that if such insistence is made the war is virtually ended. AS CENTRAL AMERICANS SEE IT.

Mexico City, March 25.—It was the general opinion among Central Americans here today that the United States and Mexico restrain Salvador and Guatemala from coming to the assistance of Gen. Bonilla, the war between Nicaragua and Honduras is practical over. The opinion was also expressed that President Cabrera of Guatemala is not anxious to try conclusions with the ruler of Nicaragua, and that he would be the first to welcome peace. Dr. Esturpian, minister of Salvador, received a dispatch from his government that Salvador was working in the interest of peace, and has ordered the withdrawal of its troops from Honduras. The withdrawal of the Salvadoran force would seem to leave death knell to the hopes of Bonilla.

The complete annihilation of Bonilla's force places the other Central American governments in a position to be obtained at the foreign office as to the status of negotiations that this country has entered into with the United States.

DETAILS OF CAPTURE. Managua, Nicaragua, March 25.—A few details of the capture of the Honduran-Salvadoran position at Choluteca by the Nicaraguan forces have been received. The Nicaraguans captured 1,500 rifles, a large amount of ammunition and quantities of field equipment. The Hondurans and Salvadorans had 200 men killed and about an equal number wounded.

Some of the Nicaraguans wounded who were reported to have been hanged and their bodies barbarously mutilated.

WHAT INTERVENTION MEANS. Buenos Ayres, March 25.—The French, speaking of the proposed intervention of the United States and Mexico to stop the central American war, says: "Any armed intervention in the struggles between American countries, amounts to a limitation of sovereignty, the weakness of a country never authorizes the powers to violate the principles of international law. Therefore only friendly mediation can be praised, never armed intervention."

AN IMPORTANT BATTLE. Panama, March 25.—The news that an important battle has been fought near Tegucigalpa between Honduran and Salvadoran forces and those of the Nicaraguans and that Senor Barahona, Honduran minister of war, was mortally wounded and that many Hondurans captured, is fully confirmed.

The allied armies of Honduras and Salvador are described as completely routed. News of the termination of the war is momentarily expected.

Alvin D. Potter Arrested by Sheriff in Grand Junction.

Grand Junction, Colo., March 25.—Alvin D. Potter, 35 years of age, was arrested here today by Sheriff Shrader and, though no information was given out regarding the charge against him, it is believed that he is suspected of being the leader of the band which held up a passenger train on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad three years ago near Parachute, blew up the express car and got away with a large amount of booty. Potter, handcuffed and shackled, was taken this afternoon to convict where he will be given a hearing. Potter is said to have lived for three years in the hills in this vicinity. G. B. Burhans, of Carlsbad center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. LOCOMOTIVE EXPLODES.

The Engineer, Fireman and Brakeman Are Killed. Albuquerque, N. M., March 25.—By the explosion of the boiler of a locomotive drawing a Santa Fe freight train, near Onawa, N. M., today, three men were killed. The dead were H. Brenner, engineer; A. E. Callahan, fireman; and C. H. Nelson, brakeman. The victims were residents of Raton. BIG FIRE IN HUTCHINSON, KAN.

Hutchinson, Kan., March 25.—The explosion of a coal oil lamp at 7:30 o'clock tonight started a fire that destroyed the Morton salt plant, the largest in the world, including a new $250,000 addition. The plant was operated by means of oil-burning boilers and in some way the oil was ignited and caused the flames to spread quickly. A strong southwest wind made the work of destruction rapid in spite of the efforts of the special fire-fighting force at the plant, assisted by the city fire department. The loss, including a vast quantity of refined salt, may amount to $500,000.

The Morton block was the chief plant of the Hutchinson-Kansas company, owned chiefly by Joy Morton and his brother, Paul Morton, former secretary of the navy. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

AMERICAN TEACHERS.

New York, March 25.—It is practically certain, it was announced here yesterday that from 500 to 1,000 American teachers will go to Great Britain next year to study that country's educational system. This will be a result of Mr. Alfred Mosely, the English educator's recent experiment of having several hundred British teachers visit this country to investigate our schools and school methods. It is understood that Mr. Mosely will make the same arrangement for the American teachers' trip to England and back as he did for his own teachers—coming to this side of the Atlantic. Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university and Supt. Maxwell of the New York City schools are the committee to supervise the American end. Butler is now on a wedding trip. When he gets back details will be announced.
