

Someone in town would gladly pay you a dollar more per week for that room than your present lodger pays. Don't you think a want ad. would pay?

PEASANT UPPISING IN ROMANIA

The Government Regards it as More of an Anarchistic Character Than Anti-Semitic.

MOVEMENT IS SPREADING.

Bands of Peasants Threatening Proprietors With Death Unless They Ameliorate Conditions.

Some Parts Troops Are Unable to Cope With Them—King Charles Refuses to Receive Student Delegates.

Bucharest, March 23.—In the opinion of the Roumanian government, the rising of the peasants in Moldavia is more of an anarchistic character than anti-Semitic. In reply to requests for a statement upon the subject today Finance Minister Joneescu wrote the following note:

"The present regrettable movement is not only of an anti-Semitic, but also of an agrarian and anarchistic character. The houses of Christians, both owners and tenants, have been destroyed. The government has taken all the measures possible to cope with the movement which must now be regarded as an anarchistic campaign."

According to the latest advices received here, the movement is spreading southward. Bands of peasants in the Buzen district, mostly armed with cudgels, are marauding over the farms, threatening the proprietors with death unless they ameliorate the conditions of work.

The government claims that the disturbances have been quelled in the districts into which it has been able to get troops. A regiment of cavalry left here today for the Buzen and Vaslui districts. In these districts the peasants are well organized. Most of them have served in the army and they have formed themselves into companies and regiments under officers and are plundering small towns and villages wherever there is an insufficient number of troops to overcome them, without distinction as to nationality. In several instances the farmers and landowners have yielded to the demands of the peasants and the raids have ceased.

In the attack made by the peasants on troops in the Buzen district, which resulted in the death of several soldiers, the government claims that the troops were provoked to burn when they were preparing to burn when they were provoked to burn.

A serious encounter between troops and peasants has occurred at the town of Misilmei, near the border with Hungary. The peasants were killed during the fight. The disturbed sections of the country have been placated with an announcement made by the government that a bill against farming trusts will be submitted to parliament during the present session.

KING REFUSED TO RECEIVE STUDENTS.

Bucharest, March 23.—King Charles today refused to receive in audience a delegation of students from Jassy university, who desired to urge him to support the peasants in the present movement. The delegates, incensed at his majesty's refusal, issued a pamphlet inciting the population to assist the revolted peasantry.

These are now being widely distributed in Bucharest. According to a telegram received here from Cernowitz, on the Roumanian border, Verpel and Pudet have been captured by peasants, who took the places by assault and pillaged and devastated them. The troops have thus far been unable to drive back the peasants and many have been killed or wounded on both sides.

A letter has reached the Israeli alliance from Podulisi, Roumania, stating that every Jewish building in that town has been destroyed, many Jews killed and their wives and children have been injured. The peasants who attacked the place were incited by speeches delivered by a preacher belonging to one of the public schools, who urged the expulsion of all Jews from the farms and residences occupied by them.

Cacania, Bosis and Paprikani, Roumania, are reported to have been destroyed by a band of 2,000 peasants. Only the churches, which the inhabitants placed crucifixes between lighted candles in the windows were spared.

MR. CLEVELAND RETURNS.

Dodged a Reception That Had Been Planned by Princeton Students.

New York, March 23.—Ex-President Cleveland yesterday after a two weeks' hunting trip to the south and dodged a reception that had been planned for him by Princeton students.

For the last week the undergraduates have awaited Mr. Cleveland's return to give him an ovation in honor of his seventieth birthday and to present to him a silver loving cup.

Mr. Cleveland was evidently anxious to avoid a demonstration after the failure of his long journey, so instead of going into Princeton by the branch train he took a carriage to the junction and drove to his home, three miles away.

FOR AN INSANE FOURTH.

Seven Hundred Tons of Fire Crackers Arrive From China.

Portland, Or., March 23.—The manifest of the German steamship Arana, which arrived yesterday from Hongkong and Japanese ports shows 8,845 cases of the crackers, destined for an export of 700 tons and 60 freight cars will be required to transport the fourth of July material to eastern cities.

The local customs house will receive $96,235 duties on a portion of the crackers. At this rate the shipment received on the Arana will amount to making the place a center of independence day to the tune of $28,000.

UTAH GREEK SUICIDES.

Young Man Loses His Savings at Poker, and Shoots Himself.

(Special to the "News.")

Boston, Mass., March 23.—Last for the gambling table and the poker room caused the death in Worcester, Mass., yesterday of John Balaban, an educated Greek, who came here from Utah a few days ago.

It is believed that the dead man has relatives and friends in Salt Lake City. Balaban had no money when he arrived in Worcester. He had lost his savings at poker and was left with only a few cents.

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

The first day his friends saw his roll of money, he was found in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

He was found by a passerby in a rooming house in Worcester. He had a note pinned to his chest which read: "I am a Greek from Utah. I have lost my money at poker and I am ashamed to go home. I have shot myself."

CENSUS REPORT REVEALS NATIONAL WEALTH

In 1904 It Was $107,104,192.410, an Increase in Four Years of $18,586,885,635.

PER CAPITA DEBT IS $35.50.

National, State and County Debts Decreased Slightly—In Southern Political Divisions It Increased.

Washington, March 23.—The total estimate of the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, according to a special report issued today by the census bureau. It was an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

The report shows that the national wealth in 1904 was $107,104,192.410, an increase of $18,586,885,635 over the estimate for 1900. The per capita wealth was $35.50.

DEATH OF CLARENCE EDWARD J. YARD

Chief Engineer of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway Succumbs To Pneumonia.

DIES AT ST. MARK'S HOSPITAL.

Wife Reaches His Side From Denver In Time to Say Good-bye—Ill Three Days.

St. Mark's, March 23.—Clarence Edward J. Yard, chief engineer of the Rio Grande Railroad, died at St. Mark's hospital in this city at 4 o'clock this morning, from pneumonia.

Mr. Yard was born in Denver on Wednesday. He was suffering from a slight throat affection, which he thought to be due to bronchitis, and decided to go to the hospital for treatment. He was diagnosed as double pneumonia, and he grew rapidly worse.

His left lung became absolutely hard, and his right lung was also affected. He was notified at Denver, and in company with Dr. O'Connor, chief surgeon of the Rio Grande system, and one of the ablest physicians in the west, he came to St. Mark's hospital.

All that skill and loving care could do was done for Mr. Yard, but to no avail, and he succumbed to the ravages of the disease at the time named this morning.

The deceased left four children, none of whom was present at the time of his death. His only daughter, Mrs. Mary Yard, a son in Nevada, another son is attending school in the east, and another daughter remained at home in Denver.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Yard, who was in Denver at the time of his death, reached his side from Denver in time to say good-bye to him. She was ill three days.

Mr. Yard was one of the able men of the Rio Grande system. He was loved by all his associates, and honored by all who knew him. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability. He was a man of high character and high ability.

LAWYERS MOURN BROTHER'S DEATH

Pronounce Tributes and Pass Resolutions of Condolence And Respect.

ALL LOVED PHILIP MAYCOCK.

Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

Appropriate resolutions in honor of Philip S. Maycock, who died on Thursday, were presented in Judge Lewis' court this morning by a committee of members of the bar appointed by the court and were spread upon the minutes of the court and a copy ordered sent to the family of the deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

The committee consisted of Judges Lewis and Stewart, Attorneys Irvine and Others Eulogize The Deceased.

HISTORIAN'S OFFICE, CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST, OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

How Official Business is Piled up For His Serious and Immediate Consideration.

CANNOT STOP HIS TIMEPIECE.

A Legislative Prerogative Which He Feels He Cannot in Safety Take Advantage Of.

That it takes many bills to express the various ideas of men, how to make Utah better, would be the inevitable conclusion of anyone who might drop in at the governor's office today. There is a big stack of communications of the desk of Secy. Willard Dowe, and they represent only the letters from the house and senate enclosing bills and more bills during the last few hours of the day.

Legally, the governor has to days in which to approve of bills, veto them or allow them to become laws without action. However, he does not have his convenient privilege of stopping his official clock when he is busy, and he must act on all the bills before him before the 26th.

Each bill is not in his office this morning, and he is not holding a meeting at the penitentiary.

When asked as to how many of the bills received before the hour had already been acted upon, Mr. Dowe declared that the governor had kept his clock running all day long, and that he had not yet acted on any of the bills.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

DAY AFTER WITH GOVERNOR CUTLER

How Official Business is Piled up For His Serious and Immediate Consideration.

CANNOT STOP HIS TIMEPIECE.

A Legislative Prerogative Which He Feels He Cannot in Safety Take Advantage Of.

That it takes many bills to express the various ideas of men, how to make Utah better, would be the inevitable conclusion of anyone who might drop in at the governor's office today. There is a big stack of communications of the desk of Secy. Willard Dowe, and they represent only the letters from the house and senate enclosing bills and more bills during the last few hours of the day.

Legally, the governor has to days in which to approve of bills, veto them or allow them to become laws without action. However, he does not have his convenient privilege of stopping his official clock when he is busy, and he must act on all the bills before him before the 26th.

Each bill is not in his office this morning, and he is not holding a meeting at the penitentiary.

When asked as to how many of the bills received before the hour had already been acted upon, Mr. Dowe declared that the governor had kept his clock running all day long, and that he had not yet acted on any of the bills.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public classes many of them as unimportant, but they are not so to the governor.

There are now bills in the governor's office which are waiting for his action. The general public