CORRESPONDENCE.

Swall and Mainte in Wintle; etc. ordina on as Million BUREKA, March, 1886

As glorification and indignation meetings seem to be the order of the day, the good people of Eureka are not behind their neighbors in this respect. The lucky man this time was Brother Bobert Gillespie, who is leaving us for his home in Provo. Nearly every Latter-day Saint in the branch entered into a kind of conspiracy to give him a surprise party before leaving. As Brother Gillespie made no resistance we took peaceable possession of his castle last night about 7:30.

Said castle not being quite as large as the one in Edinburgh, we filled it to overflowing, and a joilier set for the next three nours is seldon neen. Many and brilliant were the speeches made enlogizing the many good qualities of Brother Gillespie as a staunch Latterday Saint and a faithful Sunday School teacher. With nuts, cakes, candies, songs and recitations, the time passed marrily.

To tell the truth, our little branch inst now is struggling for an existence. It seems almost impossible for a Latter-day Saint, no matter what his qualification as a tradesman man be, to now waging in Utah—a conflict of might against right. Every lover of truth must feel gratified to see the bold stand taken by that paper against the many wrongs and crueities heaped upon a few God-fearing, industrious and honest individuals because of their peculiar religious belief.

It is gratifying to see that there are enough of able, brave, fearless men who will step to the front and not only show up the errors and fallacies of our bitter, relentless enemies, but set forth the plain and simple truth.

It is easy to float with the tide, but to stand calm, resolute and collected in the midst of the forming billows of in the midst of the foaming billows of persecution, malice, hatred and strife, like a lighthouse on a tempestuous coast, requires an adjusted combination of the best material God has on hand to make men of.
