

SOCIETY

SOCIAL SOCIETY

Holiday weeks usually mean a dearth of social entertainments on all save the eminent day, but the present witnessed a decided departure. Among the largest of the many events preceding and following Thanksgiving, was the reception and dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dinwoodey at the Ladies Literary club on Tuesday night. About 200 guests enjoyed the event, which was devoted chiefly to dancing, while refreshments and a genuinely social time were enjoyed. The event was in honor of Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey and Mrs. Kindespire of California, who have been visiting here and have been the recipient of much social attention.

Mrs. R. B. Freeman has also been a frequent guest of honor during her stay in the city. On Tuesday Mrs. George Putnam entertained at cards for her, her decorations being in red and green, with holly and other holiday emblems. Assisting were Mrs. H. C. Brownlee and Mrs. La Forge and prizes went to Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Brownlee.

Mrs. Hoyt Sherman was guest of honor at a luncheon on Tuesday given by Mrs. R. L. Tracy, about 15 guests being present. The decorations were in American Beauty roses and ferns, and bridge followed the luncheon.

At the Commercial club on Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. D. Wood gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Stafford of Cleveland O., the table being done in chrysanthemums, narcissus and ferns, while a La France rose was at each place. The guests invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. Stafford were: Mr. and Mrs. David Keith, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir, Mrs. and Mrs. M. H. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gosgriff, Mr. and Mrs. John Derr, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Haggenbarth and Joseph Barnett.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Ellerbeck entertained at dinner on Tuesday the decorations being in red and green, and the guests numbering about a dozen.

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty entertained at dinner tonight in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon of the Virginia Hotel entertained at a dinner this week in honor of Mr. Lyman Hackett of the Louis James company, covers being laid for eight and the party afterward attending the performance at the Salt Lake theater.

Tonight Marguerite and Robert Jessup will entertain at an informal party for a few friends.

Mrs. Frank Jennings was among those who entertained for Mrs. Dinwoodey and Mrs. Kindespire this week, being hostess at a bridge party on Monday.

Mrs. Orson Howard entertained the bridge club on Monday.

Mrs. C. M. Bell entertained the members of the Sans Souci card club on Monday.

The Omega club gave a delightful dancing party last night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth entertained at dinner at the University club on Thursday the table being decorated in pink roses and about a half dozen being present.

A delightful affair of last night was the dance at the post, a large number of guests from the city being present.

The museum hall of the U. of U. was resplendent in the colors of the A. C. and local school colors on Thursday night when the students of the U. of U. gave a big dancing party for the two football teams. Football in the college colors hung from the chandeliers, and all about the hall the colors blended in decorations in various ways. About 200 people enjoyed the event which was in every way successful.

Miss Maud Fitch entertained at a pretty luncheon on Thursday, the party afterward attending the football game.

Mrs. John Delano entertained delightfully at cards today, her amusement being "500."

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Keyes gave an elaborate dinner on Wednesday, the table being decorated in red carnations and anemones with Gibson heads for place cards. Chrysanthemums and ferns were all through the house and afterward a bridge game was played.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the dance given at the University club on Wednesday night, the rooms being effectively decorated, and a number of outside guests enjoying the affair.

Miss Blanche Kimball entertained at a musicale on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. Brines the new choir director of St. Paul's church, about 40 being present. Those assisting Mr. Brines during the evening were Miss Agatha Berkhoe, Miss Cecelia Sharp, Miss Mary Horne Kimball, Miss Beatrice O'Connor, Hugh Dougall, Jack Berkhoe and Karl A. Scheld.

Miss Clara Colbourne entertained at dinner on Thursday night at Highland hall, the table being decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and covers laid for about a half dozen.

A delightful dancing party was given at Unity hall on Thursday night, a large number being present and the patronesses being Mrs. John F. Cowan, Mrs. H. P. Mason, Mrs. Harry Green, Mrs. George Raybould, Mrs. A. Moulton, and Mrs. M. L. Barnes and Mrs. J. Sturgis.

Miss Mary Luman entertained a party of friends at the Orpheum matinee this afternoon in honor of Miss Dorothy Bamberger.

Miss Gertrude McGrath gave a dinner yesterday in honor of Miss Laura Sherman.

Tuesday Miss Evelyn Jensen entertained at the home of Mrs. Hudson, in honor of her sister, Miss Della Jensen, and Mr. G. A. Coates, who were married in the Temple Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank McGinnis gave a Mexican luncheon on Wednesday, the colors being red and green and the table being spread with Mexican drawn work, while the dishes were all Mexican. The guests were Mrs. N. B. Sowles, Mrs. Mostyn Owen, Mrs. A. Luman, Mrs. J. Foley, Mrs. W. W. Rivers, Mrs. Lovey Clauvy, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. Ben Davis.

Mrs. O. W. Powers gave an informal luncheon on Wednesday followed by bridge, the table being decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and covers laid for 12. Prizes were won at cards by Mrs. ...

Tuesday, where she will spend the greater part of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Herz are at home at 444 south Main street.

Wendell M. Smoot, of Provo, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Tena Smoot.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace expects to leave shortly for St. Louis, where she will spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. George Tuttle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman and Miss Laura Sherman expect to leave for Washington Saturday, Dec. 8.

M. J. White and party left last evening for Los Angeles, after spending several days in Salt Lake.

George N. Lawrence left this week for Las Vegas on a short business trip.

Miss Sallie Leonard left Tuesday for Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. J. Hoffmann returned from ...

Mrs. HERBERT PARSONS.

AUTHOR OF RADICAL BOOK ON "PART TIME" MARRIAGE.

Mrs. Herbert Parsons, wife of Congressman Herbert Parsons of New York, and daughter of Henry Clews, the banker, has raised a storm of protest all over the country by her amazing book proposing the establishment of a trial marriage system including divorce at will. Mrs. Parsons is a woman of wide learning, a doctor of philosophy, and for six years, until 1905, she was a lecturer on sociology in Bernard College.

WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of Miss Nona Banks and Melvin C. Petersen will take place next Wednesday.

On the same date at Lakewood, N. J., Mrs. Flora Clement, formerly of this city, and Capt. Sydney Cloman, the newly appointed attaché of the American embassy in London, will be married, the ceremony to be performed at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hammond, and the couple to leave afterward for England.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Stella Daynes and N. C. Christensen, the marriage being performed in the temple during the day and the reception taking place in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, which was beautifully decorated for the event. A number of relatives and friends assisted, and the affair was most delightful.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. M. Allen have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ethyle, to E. Henry Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vincent announce the engagement of their daughter, Daisy, to W. J. Flashman. The marriage will take place early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Frankland announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence E., to Charles W. Guest of Mill Creek, the wedding to take place in December.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellingson returned this week from their wedding trip and will shortly be at home in this city.

Miss Elsie Green and Miss Blanche Wenner went to Ogden to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Florence Bohn of Ogden is in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McMullen.

Mrs. A. G. Mackenzie and her little daughter returned this week to their home in Napa, Cal.

Mrs. W. T. Dinwoodey and Mrs. A. E. Kindespire returned this week to their home in Napa, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kimball will shortly be at home at the Kensington on north Main street.

Miss Rose Youngerman will leave this week to visit relatives on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brandon, who are visiting Mrs. M. A. Alford for a short time, will leave within a few days for Denver, where they will make their home.

Mrs. T. D. Pitt of Logan is in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. B. B. Heywood and Mrs. L. E. Tager.

Attorney-General and Mrs. M. A. Freeden and children have returned from Ocean Park, Cal., where they have spent the past two months.

Mrs. J. H. Kirk and son, George, have returned after a pleasant visit with ...

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Layne on Grant avenue was the scene of a joyous wedding reception Thursday evening given in honor of their daughter, Miss Hazel Layne and Mr. David Newey who were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. The reception was attended by about 75 guests, who enjoyed themselves with music and sociability. A bounteous wedding repast was served. The tables and parlors were profusely decorated with chrysanthemums and other cut flowers. The contracting parties are among Ogden's most popular and highly esteemed young people. The bride is a young lady of charming personality. Mr. Newey is a well known Pacific Express man running on the Union Pacific between Ogden and Green river. They will make Ogden their future home. Many beautiful and useful presents were bestowed upon them.

The Women of the World gave a delightful reception and banquet last evening at the K. of P. hall which was largely attended. An excellent musical and literary program was rendered and a bounteous banquet was served. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Miss Margaret Pitt spent Thanksgiving in Ogden with friends, leaving here for New York yesterday.

Charles Rhine of Wyoming spent Thanksgiving in Ogden with his parents.

One of the most successful dancing parties of the season was given Wednesday evening at the Congress dancing academy. There was an unusually large crowd present and all spent a pleasurable evening. Light refreshments were served. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion.

The pupils of the Sacred Heart academy gave a very pleasing Thanksgiving entertainment at the academy hall Wednesday afternoon. The program consisted of instrumental and vocal music, and recitations.

Wednesday Miss Mary Long and John Combe, two highly respected young people of Ogden were united in bonds of wedlock Wednesday.

The Weber Stake Primary board gave a pleasing entertainment at the Second ward hall last evening.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eckhart Wednesday evening the oldest son, Fritz, was married to Miss Belle Eckhart, Bishop John Watson officiating in the ceremony. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride is one of Morgan county's most charming young ladies and a leader in society. The groom is a popular young fireman on the Union Pacific east of Ogden.

PROVO.

Miss Ollie Pay of Ogden was the hostess at a candy pull given Tuesday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fera Decker. A large number of Miss Gay's friends enjoyed a delightful social evening, with music, song and games and the discussion of dainty refreshments.

Miss Alice Nibley of Salt Lake visited Provo relatives this week.

Mrs. Joseph F. Nibley and Miss Cora Dusenberry were visitors the past week.

The eighty-seventh birthday anniversary of Thomas B. Clark of the Third ward was happily celebrated, Friday, by a gathering at his home of children and relatives. The party was arranged by Mr. Clark's daughter, Mrs. Joseph W. Dunn, and was a delightful event to the veteran in whose honor it was given and to all who participated. A fine dinner was served followed by an interesting impromptu program was given, consisting of music, song and speeches in which Mr. Clark, who enjoys a hale and hearty old age, participated.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. St. Clair of Salt Lake spent Thanksgiving day with Provo relatives.

Mrs. Joseph A. Passey, of Eureka, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Dunn in this city during the week.

Mrs. J. M. Jensen spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Alpine.

Mrs. Pauline Nelke and Mrs. C. O. Newell entertained the Five Hundred ...

Car delub Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Sam Schwab.

Mrs. George Haverkamp entertained relatives at dinner Thursday.

An enjoyable sociable was held in the Second ward meetinghouse Monday evening in honor of Ole E. Olsen, who left for Norway as a missionary on Wednesday.

The seventy-sixth birthday anniversary of John G. Jones was celebrated at his home in the Fifth ward, Tuesday evening, by the gathering of his children and grandchildren and other relatives. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games and good wishes for "many returns of the day." A Thanksgiving play was presented by the children, and a sumptuous supper was served.

Miss Mame Beesley entertain a large number of friends Saturday evening at a birthday party. Music, song and games and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

The Fifth ward Primary association gave a pleasant sociable in the ward house, Tuesday evening, attended by many of the people of the ward.

Miss Pearl Nelson and Miss La Prele Lundquist of Richfield visited Provo friends this week.

Harold Smoot was down from Salt Lake for Thanksgiving.

Miss Goldie Gillespie spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Marie Alberg in Eureka.

Mrs. Bert Sutton was the hostess at a cup and saucer shower given at her home Monday night in honor of Miss Maud Van Wageningen. The evening was a most delightful event. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Mina Houston went to American Fork to spend Thanksgiving day with relatives.

Miss Christina Jones has gone to Salt Lake for an extended visit.

Miss Maud Van Wageningen of this city and Mr. John Fisher of Heber were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. R. D. Sutton. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock by Bishop Ralph Poulton and witnessed by the immediate relatives of the bride only. The bride was charming in an elegant gown of crepe de chine. After the ceremony light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left on the afternoon train for Salt Lake City where they will spend a few days, returning to Provo and then to their future home in Heber. Miss Van Wageningen was one of Provo's esteemed young ladies and has a host of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. M. Hardy and family spent a few days this week with relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Cora Ward, who is employed as a teacher in Mt. Pleasant, came home to spend Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAdam delightfully entertained at a family dinner at their home Thanksgiving day. A sumptuous dinner was partaken of and a social afternoon enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Daniels and family have returned to their home in this city after having spent the summer at their ranch near Colton.

Messrs. Lloyd and George Benedict spent the latter part of the week with their parents in Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Graham entertained at a family dinner at their home on Thanksgiving day. Covers were laid for 20 and a sumptuous dinner served by the charming hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hudson entertained at dinner Thursday at their new home in the Third ward. Covers were laid for eight.

Little Miss Alberta Cram was the pleasing hostess at an evening social at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Cram, Wednesday. About 30 little people enjoyed a merry evening of games and various sports. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Jones delightfully entertained the officers and teachers of the First ward Sunday school at their home Thursday evening. A pleasant evening of games, music and recitations were enjoyed by a large crowd. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Clara Henrie entertained at a family dinner at her home Thursday.

50 Years In Favor

A product that grows in favor, year after year, for over fifty years must possess unusual merit. That's the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate. Time after time, the capacity of the plant has been increased to keep pace with the growing demand, in spite of sharp competition and frequent imitations. Try one can and you'll understand why. You'll appreciate the delicate flavor and satisfying goodness.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

DO XMAS GIFTS REFLECT THE CHARACTER OF THE GIVER?

"THEY ALWAYS GIVE SUCH SENSIBLE GIFTS." How often do we hear this said of our friends. What a pleasing impression such a gift leaves with the recipient. It is a gift characteristic of the giver. The real Christmas spirit is to bless and make glad—permanently. Nothing is more conducive to permanent remembrance than an article of real value and usefulness. We suggest the following:

IN CHILDREN'S TOYS.

Toy Tables,
Toy Chairs,
Toy Rockers,
Toy Wagons,
Toy Ironing Boards,
Toy Dressers,
Red Flyers,
Sleds, etc.

FOR GROWN-UPS.

A Tabouretts,
A Parlor Table,
A Chafing Dish Set,
A Card Table,
A Hall Clock,
A Ladies Desk,
A Gents Library Desk.
A Morris Chair,
A Turkish Rocker,
A Mothers Rocker,
A Leather Couch,
A Davenport,
A Book Case,
A China Cupboard.
And a thousand and one useful and pretty things assembled here.

Telling him what he saw at DINWOODEY'S

A Handsome $75.00 Haviland China Dinner Set Will be Given Away Free. A ticket with every dollar purchase in the Toy Department. SEE IT IN OUR WEST WINDOW.

H. DINWOODEY FURNITURE CO.