FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Thanksgiving day on the 30th.

A sharp frost prevailed last night.

The late earthquake shock was felt throughout this entire region.

Every county in Utah has been carried by the People's ticket, without exception.

Milton Nobles, the noted actor will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre on the 21st.

The snow flakes have been flying most of the day. Rubbers and overcoats are in demand.

A flood of rough characters from surrounding mining camps continues to flow this way. Look out for them.

Frank Mayo will appear in the striking drama of the Streets of New York tonight, at the Opera House.

Thanksgiving turkeys have already appeared in the market. They will have plenty of time to get tender.

The Seventies of the 21st Ward hold their monthly meeting in the meeting house on Monday evening next, at 7:30.

"In Utah we want a government without a vote." This sentiment was expressed by the minor "Liberal" organ, and quoted approvingly by the major.

Should the Democratic flood continue, the country will soon be filled with political acrobats, summering from the Republican into the Democratic ranks. It was ever thus.

There are pint men and quart men. Pint men always run over first. P. T. Van Zile. From the way the "Liberal" party are running over, it is evidently, according to the judge's gauge, largely composed of "pint men."

The 10th Quorum of Elders will hold its regular meeting next Monday evening at 7 o'clock, in the 20th Ward Schoolhouse. All the Elders residing in the 20th Ward are requested to attend.

THOS. NOTT, Sec'y.

Oscar Wilde tells Boston people that the report that he was arrested by a Young Men's Christian Association in New Brunswick, for breach of contract, and paid $1,000 to get out of limbo is not true. All he did was to furnish bonds, and as his agent says no contract existed, he will fight the case.

W. A. Rang, a brakeman, while coupling the engine to train 12 at Wasatch last night, was caught between the engine and car, receiving serious injuries about the abdomen. He was taken to Evanston for treatment. We have not as yet learned the result of the examination.—Ogden Mail.

Yesterday a lady who lives in the South Ward was in such a state of mental perturbation in consequence of having appeared before the grand jury that she took the wrong car, and did not discover her mistake until she reached the depot of the Denver and Rio Grande Grand Western Railroad.

Charles Lindley was brought in to the Sisters' Hospital yesterday from Big Hole with a shattered head, caused by a giant powder explosion. Lindley was blowing for a ditch to convey water to his place, and while digging a cart loaded in his hands it exploded with terrific force, tearing the fingers and thumb from his right hand and splitting the hand nearly to the wrist.—Butte Miner.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—Elders of the Home Mission of this State will visit the meetings of the country wards of this State to-morrow.

Religious Services.—Religious services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held at the Assembly Hall, to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Work Commenced.—Work has begun on the six copper furnaces, at the old Mammoth Mine, in Tintic, which has been taken hold of by an English company. Mr. Elias Morris has been awarded the building contract, and has a number of men engaged on the job. The proposed refining works will be next in order.

Sunday School Jubilee.—The 21st Ward Sabbath School anniversary jubilee, in the ward meeting house to-morrow evening, will begin at 6 o'clock. The exercises will consist of singing, reciting, short addresses, etc.—It is expected that Elder A. N. Macfarlane, just returned from a mission to Europe, and who was formerly assistant superintendent of the school, will be present.

Anticipatory.—The snow storm yesterday and frost last evening—having frozen ice of considerable thickness was a genuine advent of winter. Everything out of doors has an Arctic appearance, individual noses in elated. A merchant down street has hung out in front of his place of business some green pine-tree boughs, with a placard greeting of "A Merry Christmas," etc. We hope for more fine weather after this storm has subsided.

The Proposed Brass Band.—We understand from some remarks made at the Union meeting on Monday night, that a brass band, composed of young men of exemplary habits, and who observe the Word of Wisdom is about to be organized, under the title of the "Deseret Sunday School Union Band."

A number of that class of young men, who either have instruments or contemplate getting them, have already enrolled their names with Brother Geo. Goddard, in Bishop Hamlet's office, and when ten more names are presented an immediate organization is to be effected, and arrangements entered into for training.

This is a step in the right direction. The movement is a praiseworthy one, and will meet with public favor. It is sanctioned by the Presidency of the Stake, President A. M. Cannon having expressed his hearty approval of young men uniting together for such a useful purpose, and strictly abstaining from the use of stimulants and tobacco, so destructive to the health and morals of the youth. Success to the enterprise.

Premises Prepared.—This morning a citizen was examining the many appliances he had on his premises to prevent the encroachments of burglars. His windows are fortified with barred wire, secured with strong staples. He has a small dog with a strong voice and mammoth molar, a couple of Colt's revolvers, three or four clubs, a wife whose scream can be heard several blocks away, several big boys and a number of children capable of making night hideouts with deafening shouts. To finish off with he keeps a large broom with which to sweep up the pieces of any burglars who may have the temerity to attack his stronghold, a dry goods box in which to put the fragments and a place in the corner of his lot in which to bury the mass. If a burglar had his choice of going through a place like that or a steam sawing machine, it is doubtful which horn of the dilemma he would seize.

The same citizen asserts, without fear of contradiction, that of all burglar alarms that ever were invented, a wife that can utter a piercing shriek is the best and best who can give vent to an unmitigated howl, and a little girl who can rend the air with a shrill scream, stand at the head of the catalogue.

Music and Poetry.—On the 23d of October, a scale of prizes was published for musical and poetical compositions by the Deseret Sunday School Union, and for the guidance of those who intend to compete. Classes A, B, C and D, are intended for Sunday School use. H and I for select poetry or choir use. F, J and K for social gathering of the Saints. The judges selected by the Union for all the musical pieces to be adjudicated upon, are Professors C. J. Thomas, George Carless and Ebenezer Beasley; all of whom having kindly consented to act. The musical fraternity throughout the country are too well acquainted with the acknowledged talent and ability of these gentlemen to need any comment from us. We trust their selection will inspire confidence in the competitors, that their productions will meet with an honest and impartial discrimination. It is to be hoped also that every Stake of Zion will be represented in an effort of so laudable a character. We feel assured that there is a vast amount of musical talent scattered throughout the country, that might be utilized profitably in this direction, and hope that no one who possesses ability will allow it to lie dormant, while a call so urgent is now made upon them for original songs and music.

The publishing committee of the Deseret Sunday School Union will pass upon the respective merits of the literary compositions.

A False Alarm.—The large number of attempted and accomplished burglaries that have occurred in this city of late, necessarily give rise to some false alarms. A gentleman of our acquaintance a short time since, was awakened by a noise just outside his bedroom window. Visions of thieving burglars immediately ran through his mind, so he leaped from his couch, seized an old sword that had not been out of the scabbard for years, but failing to remove it from its resting place, he grasped a large walking stick, with which he rushed out of the house, only to find that the cow, which had got loose in the night, was the sole cause of the trouble.

The Earthquake in Cache.—The late earthquake shock was quite strong through Cache Valley. The Journal (Logan) says, about its effects in that town:

"The earthquake shock of last Tuesday evening was felt by a number of citizens. It occurred at a few minutes past six o'clock, and frightened several persons. One lady was seated at a table writing, but for some seconds was compelled to pause; another lady living on Third Street not far from Z. C. M. I. was playing the organ, when the instrument was so violently shaken that she thought some one was behind it. The church clock of the Presbyterian church of Garden and Thatcher's building swung at least a foot from their normal position by the rocking of the building. In another case an aged lady was quite frightened by the tremor."

Release and Appointment.—W. G. Reese is released from being Traveling Elder in the Liverpool Conference and is appointed Traveling Elder in the Welsh Conference.—Millennial Star.

The Nationalities.—The composition of the immigrants, the last of the season, who arrived yesterday, was as follows: English, Scotch and Welsh, 279; Scandinavian, 109; total immigrants, 388. The returning Elders, who numbered 28, made a total of 416 when they left Liverpool. On this side the ocean several joined the company and accompanied them to Utah.

Reprehensible if True.—The Wood River Times of a few days ago says: Honorables T. F. Singler and Geo. Amable, anti-Mormon and pro-Mormon candidates for Congress, respectively met in Bellevue last night, and indulged in verbal warfare. Presently Mr. Singler indulged in some very caustic criticisms of Mr. Amable's course, when the Hon. George challenged him to fight a duel with pistols. Mr. Singler promptly accepted the challenge and told Mr. Amable that his seconds would call upon him and settle preliminaries.

A Hard Town.—The Idaho Enterprise says that the town of Thompson on the line of the Northern Pacific, on Clarke's Fork of the Columbia, is from all reports one of the hardest places in the entire Rocky mountain region. Life is a matter of luck down there, or is preserved by individual agility in dodging bullets, bowie-knives and slugs. Violent deaths are of almost daily occurrence, and at last accounts twenty persons were missing from the town. Of these fourteen have been found at various points in the river below Thompson, and six have not turned up yet dead or alive.

The Beesley Concert.—The arrangements for the repetition of the Beesley concert that was given in the Nineteenth Ward School-house are now completed. The entertainment, as previously stated, will be given at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, next Wednesday evening. Doubtless there will be a bumper house, especially since it is announced that the following talented favorites, will take part in rendering an excellent programme: Miss Laura Nebeker, Miss Nellie Drown, Miss Agnes Olsen, Mr. W. H. Foster, Mr. W. D. Owen, Mr. Evan Stephens, Mr. W. E. Welhe, Mr. J. J. Daynes and others.

Cost Stealing.—This morning a couple of roughs, who give the names of F. S. Davis and John Cowen, entered the clothing store of Mr. Lipman. One of the disreputable twain engaged the attention of the clerk while the other stealthily stole out with a fine overcoat, valued at thirty dollars. Both men were arrested, but at last accounts the coat had not been recovered. Two others, companions of the actual thieves, who stood on the outside of the store when the coat was stolen, were also taken into custody, on a charge of vagrancy. The quartet had only been let out of jail a few days ago.

"Be Careful to Entertain Strangers."—In conversation with a workingman last night, the topic of the time was gone over in relation to the highway robberies.

He called attention to the fact that not less than fifty hard looking fellows had landed from the train at the time he was leaving his work; and which led him to associate their arrival with an increase of crime against person and property.

My reflections this morning are these, admitting they are all based on what would rather rob and steal than work, would it not be to the advantage of this community in ever respect, to establish a refuge for strangers, where all impetuous persons might find refuge and employment, and the community be saved all the troubles arising out of destitute and consequently desperate people thrown among them.

If we were a rich man, or had sufficient influence with my fellow-citizens, it would not be very long ere an institution of the above-named description would adorn our city.

If the means spent in importing liquors, tobacco, and other injurious and expensive luxuries were expended, much of the means might be raised to aid in such an excellent movement.

How much better it would be to part voluntarily with a sum of money to help a good cause, than to run the chance of parting with it by force and violence from the hand of a desperado.

This little effusion relieves my agitated feeling and perhaps will do some good to a WORKINGMAN.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE.

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 20, 1890.

Dear Sir:—My case was one of bronchitis, and was of one and a half year's duration. I employed the best medical aid possible, but failed rapidly, until the doctors said I would die—and that my case was incurable. Thrown upon my own resources, I got a bottle of Dr. Wm. H. Chase's Lung Tonic, and in six hours felt a decided relief. In three days the cough almost disappeared. Now that my chances of life are good for many years, I earnestly recommend the above to every sufferer of lung and throat diseases. C. G. LATHEOP.
