

Your Christmas Shopping

The market places of the world have been gleaned to fill our store with good things for this Christmas season. Never before have we had such splendid offerings. Never before have we had such an elaborate and attractive display for you to choose from. Never before have our facilities for handling the Christmas trade been so excellent. Never before have we been able to offer so many inducements to buy. You will do yourself a real injustice unless you at least carefully examine this splendid Christmas display. Begin it right by resolving to give useful presents only. While it is your privilege to waste your money, it is far wiser to be practical. The recipient of your present will certainly think more kindly of some article of FURNITURE for either their personal comfort or home adornment, than any thing you can give them. Come in and see the best kind of gifts.
