LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

BOSTON, 12.—The New England organ factory and Grey & Noyes' manufacturing shop, on Washington street, was burned this morning; loss $50,000; insured.

PHILADELPHIA, 12.—At Newark, N. J., yesterday, while hiding from a fellow student, climbed to the top of the college cupola, and while attempting the feat a second time he was killed.

NEW YORK, 12.—The remains of Henry Hewitt, victim of the Atlantic disaster, were buried this morning in Greenwood.

Judge Woodruff gave an adverse decision today, in the case of John W. Woodruff, the Bank of England forger, who applied for release on the ground that he was illegally held by Commissioner Gutierrez.

BUFFALO, 12.—Col. Theodore Tynes, who pleaded guilty of forgery on Thursday, was this afternoon sentenced to the State Prison for five years. Colman Myers was not sentenced, he being wanted as a witness in pending cases.

ALEX. H. BRADLEY, a shoemaker, who is said to have practiced the extensive game extensively in all the large cities between Chicago and Buffalo, by representing himself as a merchant from Montana, and ordering a large stock of goods and sending drafts for payment, was today sentenced as a vagrant to the county penitentiary for ninety days.

WASHINGTON, 12.—A post office has been established in Jamestown, Va., this week, for the first time, although Jamestown was the first place permanently settled on this continent.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—The general term of the Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment in the case of Henry Fricke, convicted of murder in Syracuse.

PATKINSON, N. J.—Todd & Ritchie's late and hemp mill was burned this a. m., loss about $75,000, insurance $50,000. A hundred and thirty hands are thrown out of employment by the fire.

FRANKFORD, Pa.—Enoch Ferdinand Shum was hanged here yesterday for the murder of his wife, May 4, 1872. His partner and accomplice, James Eberhart, is under sentence to be hanged May 24th.

NEW YORK, 12.—The storm, today, was one of the most severe of the year. The tide is very high, and at the ferries great difficulty was experienced in getting heavily laden trucks on and off the boats. The cellars along the river were flooded, and in some instances valuable merchandise was damaged.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Leonard, tenants at 48 Columbia street, Brooklyn, had a fierce fight today, the result was that Mrs. Murphy was fatally injured, and Mrs. Leonard was detained.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The Commission of the General Land Office has notified the local land offices along the line of the Northern Pacific railroad, that the Secretary of the Interior has decided that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company is entitled to lands along the line laid down on its map of preliminary location, and that the preliminary map had been accepted by the Secretary of the Interior, and that the lands along the line were to be reserved to the Government.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The balance in the Treasury today were: Currency $2,169,214; special deposits of legal tenders $1,000,000; certificates $25,230,000; coin $70,111,185, including coin certificates amounting to $25,230,000.

Rumors have been reported from time to time of the resignation of Minister Low and DeLong. An inquiry at official sources today, related to said the Low's resignation had not been received, and that ex-Senator DeLong's name has not even been mentioned by the President in connection with the China or Japan Mission. No one at the President's house or at the Department of State had any intimation of DeLong's rumored resignation, further than what has been made known. It is said that he would retire should the administration desire a change.

The Superintendent of the mounted recruiting service has been ordered to send all the disposable colored recruits at St. Louis to Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, for assignment to the 10th Cavalry.

Proctor, N. Y., 12.—The wife of Robert Proctor was found dead in her house near Canandaigua, N. Y., having been killed by her husband. A child four years old says she saw her father die dead. The murderer is still at large.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The terrible news of the treacherous assassination of Brigadier General Canby, by the Modoc chief, and the intelligence received at the same time of the murders committed by Apaches, for the profound feeling of grief and indignation, which now express in all quarters, particularly in the Army, where General Canby was a favorite, and the feeling of indignation against all Indians, and the desire for the extermination of these savages. The feeling of indignation against all Indians, and the desire for the extermination of these savages.

General Sherman was also apprised at a late hour of the occurrence. The feelings of the President and the General at the sudden announcement were the most intense sorrow and indignation, and there was an instant's hesitancy in the declaration that the Modocs shall be made to suffer to the severest extent for their crime. It is now evident that the act was a long premeditated one, and this fact adds to the deep sense of wrath against the Modoc chief, and the feeling of indignation against all Indians, and the desire for the extermination of these savages.

Headquarters of the Army, Washington, D. C., April 14, 1873.

General Order No. 3.—It again becomes the sad duty of the General to announce to the army the death of one of our most illustrious and most honored commanders, Brigadier General Edward R. S. Canby, commanding the Department of Columbia River, who, on April 11th, shot dead by Chief Jack, while he was endeavoring to mediate for the removal of the Modocs from their present rocky fastness to a reservation where the tribe could be maintained and protected by the civil agents of the government.

That such a life should have been sacrificed in such a cause is a sad and painful reflection on the relations and friends, yet the General trusts that all good soldiers will be consoled in knowing that he had been especially chosen and appointed for this delicate and dangerous trust, by reason of his well-known patience and forbearance, his entire self-sabotage and fidelity to the expressed wishes of his government, and his large experience in dealing with the savages of America.

He had already completed the necessary military preparations to enforce obedience to the conclusions of the military commissioners, after which he seemed to have accompanied them to the last conference with the savage chiefs in the presence of the Modoc warriors, and met his death by treachery outside of his military lines, but within view of the signal station. At the same time one of the peace commissioners was killed outright, and another mortally wounded, and a third escaped unhurt. Thus perished one of the bravest and best gentlemen of the army, and one of our country's most virtuous equals in his military value.
