SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SAPFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle it soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SAPFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

BOSTON, Feb. 23, 1875. GEO. F. DINSMORE.

SUFFOLK, ss. Feb. 23, 1875.

Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore, and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me,

SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

Affords the most grateful relief in all Affections of the Chest and Lungs.

CHRONIC PLEURISY CURED.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—Having for many months past suffered with a very lame side, called by my physician Chronic Pleurisy, caused by a former injury and strain, and for which I used many prescriptions and liniments, as well as the so-called rheumatic cures, without the least benefit, my physician recommended one of your COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, which, to my great surprise, relieved the pain and soreness almost immediately, and I have been able to attend to my household affairs ever since with perfect ease and comfort, whereas, before the application of your invaluable Plaster, I was scarcely able to do anything. I consider them incalculable, and shall with pleasure recommend them to the afflicted. Yours respectfully, MRS. FRANCES HARRIMAN.

ORLAND, Me., April 21, 1876.

There is no medical or protective appliance that will prove so grateful and effective in Tickling Coughs, Irritation and Soreness of the Chest and Lungs. We believe them capable of preventing serious diseases of these organs.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Do not confound these Plasters with the ordinary Plasters of the day, that by comparison are absolutely worthless.

Be careful to obtain COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, a combination of Electric or Voltaic Plates with a highly Medicated Plaster, as seen in the above cut. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Held at Sunset, Arizona, Feb. 28th, March 1st and 2d, 1879.

FEB. 28, 10 a.m.

Present, Lot Smith and L. H. Hatch, of the presidency of the Stake, Bishops Geo. Lake, L. M. Savage, J. H. Richards and Elders Wm. C. Allen, John Bushman, Wm. C. McLellin, some members of the High Council and others.

After the usual opening services, a letter from Hon. George Q. Cannon at Washington was read.

Elder S. G. Ladd then spoke upon the principles of union as being necessary among us in order to build up Zion and establish the kingdom of God. Referred to our mission among the Lamanites and the need of living so that our example might have an influence for good among them.

Elder Ira Hatch spoke of his recent visit to the Moquis Indians and the friendly feeling that existed, and had noticed the good effects of having one man do our trading with them.

Bishop George Lake also referred to his visit among the Lamanites, and gave an interesting account of their industry and mode of living. He spoke upon the United Order and the disposition of many to disregard counsel and scatter out into the forest and locates at springs by themselves.

After opening exercises, Elder John Bushman spoke upon the advantages we enjoyed in being united, and upon the education of our children and being prepared for the coming of our Savior.

Elders S. F. Wilson and A. M. Derrick also spoke upon the principles of union and their desires to be useful in this great work.

Elders L. H. Hatch and W. F. O. Behrmann then exhorted the Saints to faithfulness in sustaining their leaders and becoming united.

March 1, 10 a.m.

Opening exercises. Bishop J. H. Richards reported St. Joseph Ward, feelings good among the brethren and sisters. Expected to be able to repair the dam and ditch by the first of April.

President Smith then expressed his satisfaction at the settlement of St. Joseph not being abandoned because of the great damage sustained to the dam and ditch last fall by flood, and recommended that the settlements of Brigham City and Sunset assist the brethren of St Joseph in getting out the water on their land, which was unanimously agreed to by the conference.

Bishop L M. Savage reported the condition of Sunset as favorable.

Elder J. B. Wakefield reported the labors done at Pleasant Valley during the winter.

Bishop George Lake then reported the condition of Brigham City as being generally good.

2 p.m.

Opening exercises. Elder Wm. C. McClellin reported the Millville Ward in a good condition, although their numbers were few and much labor to perform.

Wm. Gibbons then made a few remarks and bore his testimony.

Counselor L.H. Hatch then presented the General Authorities of the Church as sustained at our last October conference in Salt Lake City, also the Stake and local authorities, who were unanimously sustained as also the home and Lamanite missionaries.

Elders Wm. C. Allen and John Bushman were sustained as counselors to President L. Smith, in place of Jacob Hamlin and L. H. Hatch, who do not reside in this Stake.

Councilor Wm. C. Allen then made a few remarks, after which President L. Smith spoke upon the blessings to be obtained in meeting together at these conferences, and upon the duties of the shepherds of Israel.

March 2d, 10 a. m.

Opening exercises.—Elders J. R. McNeil, P. C. Evans, Wm. H. Longhurst and Wm. Tunbridge, about to return to Utah on visits, bore their testimony and expressed their faith in this mission and their desires to return again after a short stay. Elders W. R. Tenney and John Bloomfield also bore their testimony and offered words of exhortation.

2 p. m.

After the opening exercises the sacrament was administered. Elder L. H. Hatch and Bishop George Lake occupied the time in speaking upon the principles of the United Order, having faith in the Lord and sustaining our leaders, and exhorted the young men to qualify themselves for the ministry.

Prest. L. Smith made a few closing remarks, expressing pleasure at the good singing during the conference, and adjourned it until May 31st, 1879; place of meeting to be designated hereafter.

F. G. NIELSON, S'ake Clerk.

SHORT AND SHARP.

A pupil in one of our public school recently revised an old saying found in his grammar, as follows: "It is better to give than to receive—a thrashing."

Mrs. Partington again.—"Poor man!" said the old lady; "and so he's really gone at last? Ninety-eight, was he? Dear, dear! to think how that if he'd lived two years more he'd have been a centurion.'

A Massachusetts woman was so jealous of her husband's first wife that when he died she refused to allow him to be buried beside her. She remarked to the undertaker at the funeral, "I ain't a going to have that woman a-leaning on Jim's arm at the resurrection-day if I kin help it, you bet."—Andrew's Bazar.

"Darn a fool," says Harking, who was vexed, to his wife: "So mote it be," said Mrs. H., flourishing a darning needle; "whereabouts are you worn out?" Harkins said some people are too smart to live long, and he was too awfully angry when his wife congratulated him on his prospects for a long life. Oh, the tongues of these women!

A lady of fashion, with a pug-dog and a husband, entered the train at Paddington the other day. There were in the carriage but two persons, a well-known professor and his wife; yet the lady of fashion coveted, not indeed his chair, but his seat. "I wish to sit by the window, sir," she said imperiously, and he had to move accordingly. "No, sir; that won't do," she said, as he merely took the next seat. "I can't have a stranger sitting close by me. My husband must sit where you are." Again the professor moved; but his wife fired up and protested. "The lady is too exacting," she said aloud, "you should not have humored her." What does it matter, my dear," he replied, "for such a little way? She must be getting out at the next station." Now, the next station was Hanwell, Lunatic Asylum Place.—Gentleman's Magazine.
