The airship left Friederichshaden any this morning and five hours later appeared in the air over the outskirts of Munich. A distance of 11 miles was covered in five hours. The count left Freiderichshafen with the intention of trying to sail from there to Munich and back. It was the intention to hour deny that they are rallying the Indians of the neighborhood to give satis to the troops who have assumed control of the situation. A number of ring-leaders were arrested and put in prison. From a semi-official source it is learn-ed that the political differences which resulted in the fight originated in diback. parently was not successful, for the balloon was driven rapidly from the sight of the people of Munich in a northeasterly direction. At a quarter past 11, two hours after its first appearance here, the airship was over Freysing. The airship is manned by Count Zep-pelin, Maj. Sperling, several officers of the engineer corps and a crew of sol-diars from the balloon battalion of the German army. ferman army.

The departure took place at five min-ptes past 4 from Friedrichshafen. It was still dark and the weather duil. The wind was strong and contrary. The ship passed over Friederichshafen at an altitude of 1.000 feet at moderate speed and turned in the direction of dunich. Ravensburg, Aulenburg, Er-bach, Bielsbrach and Augsburg, points Letween Friederichshafen and Munich were brilliantly lighted with electricity in order to show the aerial navigaiors the direction in which they wanted to travel.

When the airship was sighted shortly When the airship was sighted shortly before 5 o'clock approaching Munich, the church bells of the city rang out in peaks of welcome, and cannon fired a salute. As the ship drew nearer the whire of the motor could be heard on the streets of the city. The vessel made its way to a point over the ex-position grounds and descended to within 200 feet. Thousands of people had gathered on the grounds and the maneuver was greeted with an outburst of cheering. The prince regent of Ba-varia was present and saluted Count Zeapelin, who stood on the bridge. A bund played the pational anthem.

The airship then moved off in the direction of the palace, where ft was firsted from the tower by the prin-tresses of the royal family.

The question is raised in the case of Anton Hansen Haug, a subject of the king of Norway, which was docketed today in the supreme court. Haug filed a petition for naturalization in the su-perior court of King's county, Wash-ington. The government intervened with the contention that as Haug was an allen, papers could not be issued to him. The King's county court dealed a motion to this effect, whereupon the United States district attorney pre-sented to that court a petition for a writ of error to the United States cir-cuit court of Appeals for the Ninth circuit on the ground that the case involved a federal statute. The petition was granted, but with-out deciding the case, the court of ap-peals certified a question to the su-preme court, in which that court was asked whether the federal court of ap-peals had jurisdiction to review an or-der of a state court in a naturalization record for tunnel boring was broken in the construction of the Los Angeles-Ow considered during the how has the two completed during the mouth of March.
