JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!

LAUGHING GAS!

FOR the Million! I take pleasure in informing my numerous friends and the Public, that I have been to great expense and trouble in buying the Patent Right for Salt Lake City for the best Nitrous Oxide Gas Apparatus that is in existence, as is proved by its being used by the Royal Families of England, France and Belgium, also by Dr. Colton, in the Dental Institute, New York.

The Gas made by this Apparatus only is absolutely pure, and no unpleasant choking or strangling sensation is experienced, or any disagreeable bag used in taking it, but you can breathe perfectly natural every way, and you would not suspect that you were breathing anything but the purest air. It is, in fact, the re-plus ultra of all methods for the painless extraction of Teeth.

I have a large supply of the same Teeth which took the First Premium in Paris last summer.
Also five different kinds of Rubber for inserting Teeth, including the kinds used in England and France.

Particular attention given to preserving the natural Teeth. Terms moderate. Call and see.
Dr. Wm. H. GROVES, 2d South St.,

Original Poetry.

For the Deseret Evening News.

STANZAS.

If thou canst, thou canst.

Go, look at the ocean,
And wait by its side,
For the ebb and the flow
Of the restless tide;
Canst thou govern its motion,
Or direct its flow;
Thou canst measure the depth
Of human woe.

Go, view the broad river,
When its surges lave
With the furious dash
Of a troubled wave;
Canst thou calm its billows
Or confine its source;
Thou canst stay the rough stream
Of misfortune's course.

Go, watch the fierce tempest—
List! list to its sound,
While the withering blast
Is sweeping around;
Canst thou still its fury,
Or its wrath suppress;
Thou canst bind affliction,
And charm distress.

Go, climb the volcano,
With a cautious gaze,
When its crater emits
A terrific blaze;
Canst thou quench the lava
When its bold streams lave;
Thou canst bind, with a spell,
Persecution's wave.

Go, look at the forest,
Where its oaks remain
Upright by the sweep
Of the hurricane;
Canst thou restore the beauty
Of its stately pride;
Thou canst check the flow
Of corruption's tide.

Go to Andrew Johnson—
Go to Congress and see
If the Ural Uras
Feeds a destiny;
Canst thou move the planets
With a clashing force;
Thou canst stop the nation
In its downward course.

Correspondence.

SALT LAKE CITY,
February 27, 1888.

Editor Evening News:—Sir, I attended the lecture in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms last evening, and was much pleased and interested with the remarks of Mr. W. P. Nebeker on the subject of Switzerland, its government and the manners and customs of the people. I believe the audience were perfectly satisfied.

Now, what I wish to ask is this: is it wise, or called for, in any of the Committee, after a lecturer has divested himself of the subject matter in a creditable manner, to wind off the performance by reflecting upon the remarks of the lecturer? It is my sincere belief that in the estimation of the audience last evening, the remarks of the last speaker were entirely uncalled for and out of place.

If young men are willing to walk "up to the rack," and humbly endeavor to edify their brethren and sisters, should it not be the policy of all concerned to extend lenity rather than cast reflections?

Very respectfully,
A YOUNG MAN.

Special Notices.

Mrs. White has arranged to prolong her stay in the city for a little time longer, and those who desire to rapidly obtain an acquaintance with music should see her, for she communi-cates a knowledge of the science, by "Robbins American Method," so quickly as to astonish those unacquainted with it. We think our musicians who wish to fully understand Harmony or Thorough Bass, applied to the piano, organ, &c., ought to make themselves acquainted with the system soon, as she will remain here but a short time. She can be found at the Townsend House.
