

BIG GOOSE EGG FOR WHITE WINGS

Salt Lake Falls to Score in the Game Against the Dusky Occidentals.

LONG SAFE HITS TURN TRICK

Past Performances Demonstrate That
It Is Never Safe to Forecast the Outcome of Ball Game.

Salt Lake can beat Ogden and Murray. Ogden and Murray can beat the Occidentals. But along comes the brunette bouncer and the White Wings fall to score. Can you beat it? The negroes put it over the Salt Lake team by the score of 3 to 2. Convincing, undebatable.

Two more tallies were obtained in the sixth when a series of singles wooed the White Wings. Langley came up first and started this set of new records. Buras, Cuddeback, C. Burns, and G. H. Hopper followed. In the seventh Black pumped out two-bagger and on a miff by James, went to third. Hawkins brought Black, making the fifth run.

Salt Lake was threatened with symptoms of scoring in the sixth with K. F. Hopper, James, Wells and Vahrenhorst. The bases hit by McKean fanned and Langley, but out. Capt. Hopper, who was standing on third when the bases were hit, failed to hit at the right time. Harrison threw his head off to retire the side when it looked like scores and he succeeded. The details of the catastrophe follow:

OGDEN DOWNS MURRAY.

Loss, Yet Interesting Game Put Up

For Junction City Fans.

Ogden won out over Murphy yesterday in an interesting, yet loosely played game of ball. The score was 8 to 3. While errors were made throughout the game there was no wrangling so the fans left the Fair Grounds diamond in a happy frame of mind, anyhow. Murphy pitched good ball but his support was wretched. Fuller, Ogden's catcher, rapped out a triple and double in three lines up, lifting himself up the battling column considerably. Critchley of Ogden was severely hurt by getting hit
