Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

New York, Sept. 3.—A special from London says the Chicago law has been carried off from Verona, a number of women who were chosen by ballot, in Italy, to make uniforms for the royal soldiers.

The Chicago August Convention.

At the Chicago August Convention which was resumed yesterday, at Oyster Bay, Long Island, the whole chain and comb found on the corpse were positively identified as belonging to Kelsey. Mrs. Van Santee and Correy both testified to examining the body, which they thought had been subjected to such violence that death must have resulted within six hours. The defense is understood to rely chiefly on the following point for their case: A woman of good character, who saw Kelsey several weeks after the outrage, on a train and conversed with him. Second, that the mutilated body had been in the water and was claimed by Kelsey's friends to be Kelsey's in order to prosecute successfully. The court will continue on Thursday. Kelsey's remains will be buried on Friday.

Further inquiry at the suit today from White, cashier, that about twelve counterfeit five hundred dollar U. S. notes have been discovered. The request of persons presenting them at the treasury for verification. The imposters in question are said to be from the West. The imposters in question are said to be from the West.
