LOCAL NEWS.

Arrest.—James McFarland, of West Weber, Weber County, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Marshal Steele, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was taken before Commissioner Black and waived examination, being released on $1,000 bail.

Notice to Voters.—The registrar for the Third Precinct will be at No. 546 W. North Temple Street each day during the week commencing Monday, September 13th, from 8 to 9 a.m. and from 5 to 7 p.m., to enter upon the registry list the names of those qualified to vote but whose names do not now appear on said list.

J. W. CLARK,
Deputy Registrar.

Fatal Accident.—On Wednesday, Mr. Henry Thomas, of Tooele, was hauling sand at Lake View, Tooele County. In the seat beside him was his little seven-year-old boy Thomas. There was neither back nor end boards to the seat, and when the front wheel of the wagon went into a "chuck-hole," the boy was thrown out directly front of the forward wheel, which passed over his abdomen before the team could be stopped. Mr. Thomas picked his little boy up after the terrible accident, and took him home, but although all that could be was done for him, he died next day. He was buried at Tooele yesterday. The grief-stricken family have the sympathy of numerous friends in their bereavement.

The Sunday School Singing Class.—The following suggestions may aid the superintendents and choir leaders in the work of selecting singers to attend the free singing class which Brother Stephens will start for the benefit of schools and improvement in singing, in the Assembly Hall, next Monday afternoon:

During the exercises to-morrow ascertain from teachers and others, who, in their classes, show special aptitude for singing; thus select about twelve boys under 14 years of age, and sufficient girls to make up thirty in all, under fifteen years of age. Then call out their names, informing them for what they have been selected, viz: To attend a class where they will be taught to sing Sunday School songs, in parts, that they may become members of the choir, etc.

Appoint two young ladies, who can sing, to accompany them, (we understand the same valuable musical instructions will be given these, to repay them for the assistance they will render,) and let those or some of the most trustworthy scholars take charge of the music books (10 Sunday School Union song books), and keep a list of the names of those selected.

Require those selected to be at the Assembly Hall at 4 p. m. Monday to receive further necessary instructions.

To derive the greatest possible benefit from this important move, it is desirable that the choir leaders and superintendents select with care such children as have natural musical ability and good voices, that they may become good models for the rest of the children to imitate in the musical exercises of the various schools. It would only be taking proper advantage of the opportunity—as soon as these young singers become proficient in their parts—to have an equal number of others placed with them, to learn from them how to sing the parts as they have learned. By this means there soon would be sixty young singers in each school capable of joining the regular choir under the direction of their various leaders. Another step, and we have the whole school singing in beautiful harmony. Such a result would be well worth working for, even though it cost much patient labor. The example of the teacher who offers to take the lead and perform his portion of the task, will inspire the choristers to do their utmost in the good work.

BOUND OVER.

AN AGED RESIDENT OF PROVO BROUGHT BEFORE COMMISSIONER M'KAY.

Yesterday afternoon deputies Smith and Gleason went to Provo, and served a warrant of arrest upon Henry Saunders, Sen., of the First Ward of that place. He was brought to this city last evening. Mrs. Sarah B. Saunders, Mrs. Sarah A. Saunders, Henry Saunders, Jr., and Hetty Saunders were subpœnaed as witnesses, and were required to report themselves forthwith in Judge McKay's court in this city. Mrs. Sarah B. Saunders was finally excused, being ordered to appear before the grand jury of the First District on Sept. 27th.

The accused was arraigned before the Commissioner on a complaint charging him with unlawful cohabitation. This document was filed ten months ago, on November 7, 1885, but for some reason the arrest was not made until yesterday. It is alleged that, from January 1, 1883, to November 7, 1885, the defendant lived and cohabited with his wives, Sarah B. Saunders and Sarah Doe Saunders. The defendant, who is 73 years of age, and very feeble, stated that he did not desire to employ counsel, so the examination was proceeded with.

Mrs. Sarah A. Saunders, the plural wife was called. She testified that her maiden name was Anderson. She had been the defendant's wife since 1863 and lived with him in Provo. The first wife, Sarah B. Saunders, lived in the same house.

The Commissioner, in consideration of the defendant being a poor man, fixed his bonds at $500, and that of the witnesses at $200 each, to appear before the grand jury at Provo. Dr. Alma B. Dunford and Warren N. Dusenberry became sureties.

The Morgan-Mikesell Assault.—The trial of Wm. Morgan, for assaulting Hiram Mikesell, in Lamb's Cañon, with a neckyoke, on September 2d, was taken up before Justice Pyper this afternoon. Morgan at first entered a plea of guilty and pleaded that the assault had been provoked, but as Mikesell was unable to be present to give his version of the affair, the plea was changed to not guilty, and the trial proceeded with, C. O. Whittemore appearing for the defense and Prosecuting Attorney Moyle for the prosecution.

Cecil Smart was the first witness and testified that the defendant and Hiram Mikesell had a difficulty on September 2nd, in Lamb's Cañon. They were at a fire, cooking breakfast. Morgan tickled Mikesell, and the latter slapped him. He then kicked him on the arm. The defendant picked up a neckyoke and ran after Mikesell, who turned and took the neckyoke away, and beat Morgan in the face. Mikesell's brother then interfered and separated them. Morgan got the neckyoke again, and threatened to get even. After breakfast the men went to work. In the evening witness saw Morgan at another camp, and they both came to Salt Lake. Mikesell was 27 years old, over six feet high and about 180 pounds in weight. The affair began in fun. The wounds on Mikesell's head bled freely. There were two gashes about three inches in length.

L. W. Smart corroborated this testimony. He was present at the striking in which Morgan inflicted the wounds on Mikesell's head. He did not see the blow struck, but heard it, and on looking around saw Mikesell unconscious on the ground, and Morgan standing alongside of him, having dropped the neckyoke.

The examination had not concluded when we went to press. Mikesell was able to sit up for about five minutes yesterday, but was confined to his bed to-day.

Deputies in Springville.—A private letter from Springville dated the 10th inst., states that, on the day previous, deputy marshals Redfield, Gleason and Smith made a call at W. H. Kelsey's premises, but failed to find him, though they made a search of the house, orchard, etc. They then called at Mr. Kelsey's next neighbor's John Waters, whom they succeeded in arresting, also securing three witnesses, one of the latter being the main witness wanted. The officers went with Mr. Waters and the witnesses to Provo, from which point the captives were sent into Salt Lake the same evening. In the NEWS of yesterday was an account of Mr. Waters' examination before Commissioner McKay.

The officers, on the same evening, returned to Springville and again searched Mr. Kelsey's premises thoroughly, but still without success. On the street they saw a man named J. Binks and arrested him on the suspicion that he had notified polygamists of the presence of the officers. After detaining him for a few hours they served a subpœna on him to appear before the grand jury in Provo September 22nd. The deputies, still determined to capture Mr. Kelsey, if possible, went to the Co-op. in the night, he being night-watchman there. A "water haul" was the result there also. The officers were still in Springville when the letter was written.

Fatal Fire.—A dispatch to this morning's Tribune, from Pioche, Nev., gives the following account of a fatal fire which occurred on Thursday night, at 8:30 o'clock:

"At Bristol, twenty miles southwest from Pioche, the northerly side of Main Street was burned, from the brewery to the postoffice, both included. The flames were first seen issuing from the rear portion of Barton's store. J. N. Gregory, an employee, was known to be inside, and desperate efforts to save him were made by J. S. Bryant and Jerry Leahigh. They burst in the front door, and found him behind the counter, in such a position that it was impossible to extricate him; they could not draw him out by main strength, and he was dazed and unable to help himself, replying to their exhortations with unintelligible ejaculations. They only retreated amid the firing of overheated cartridges, when the flames had attacked their clothing and enveloped Gregory. The victim, who was burned to cinders, was 72 years old; he had been on a prolonged debauch. The origin of the fire can only be surmised. Loss in merchandise not known, but supposed to be light. The goods were mostly stored in fire-proof cellars. Nine buildings burned. Loss merely nominal on account of shrunken value. The mail matter in in the post office was saved."

Commendable Energy.—Mr. R. K. Thomas, whose new advertisement will be seen in this paper, and who has been established in the Emporium corner for the last year, has shown great energy in his business, as all will be convinced on examining his well-selected stock of staple and fancy dry goods, furnishings, notions, boots and shoes, and carpets. He now occupies the basement, ground floor and second story. In the former is a vast amount of goods in bulk, on the ground floor is the retail department of dry goods notions, boots and shoes, while in the upper story are the carpets, rugs and ladies', misses' and children's garments. All this large stock has been selected by Mr. Thomas himself with special care to suit this market.

THE base ball game between the "Fats" and "Leans," on Thursday, netted $108 for the Day Nursery and Orphan's Home.

OUR OGDEN LETTER.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH,
Sep. 10th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The storms for the present appear to be over with us, and there is a fair prospect of

AN INDIAN SUMMER.

The nights are cool, the air is bracing, while days are still very warm as they usually are at this season of the year. But the change in the natural beauties that surround us are perceptible, and the trees of the forest, field and orchard are in the "sere and yellow leaf." The firemen's excursion, which had been postponed, came off to-day, and quite a company went to Lake Park to spend the day and part of the night.

To-day Mr. R. H. Slater, proprietor of

situated about nine miles north of this city—suddenly discovered his bath house to be on fire, and that the flames had made considerable headway.

As speedily as possible all the things that could be moved were taken out and placed at a safe distance from the fire, but not without damaging to some extent the furniture. The safe belonging to the establishment was removed, and thus the cash and other valuables which it contained were saved from the devouring element. It was feared at one time that the entire establishment would go, but fortunately no other building was damaged, so far as I have learned. The amount of the loss sustained is not stated. Mr. Slater thinks the fire was caused by the explosion of a kerosene oil lamp.

It will be remembered that a few weeks since the proprietor of this health resort had an offer from parties who desired to purchase the establishment, but which he declined. It was said that the amount offered for the place was $30,000. It is liberally patronized by health seekers who come from far and near.

About the middle of the afternoon to-day another

occurred at the Union Pacific railroad depot in this city, in which a young man lost his left arm. Mr. Ralph Pidcock—whose father is serving a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary for violating the Edmunds law—is switchman in the U. P. yard. He was on the ladder attached to the car, and was switching in the yard. When nearing the scales he leaned forward, as is the custom preparatory to leaping to the ground while the train was in motion, and when about to make the spring the switch caught or struck his disengaged arm, throwing him violently to the earth. His left arm was thrown across the rail and mangling it in a fearful manner. He was stunned, but shortly after the fall he recovered consciousness. He was taken up and as soon as possible was removed to the U. P. R. R. hospital, on Eighth Street, in this city. As soon as the wounds were examined by Dr. Shern, the company's surgeon, he found it necessary to amputate the injured part, which he did at the middle of the forearm. The patient was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. The young man is about 20 years of age, and is the son-in-law of John Reeve, Esq., of the U. C. B. R. The family of Mr. W. H. Pidcock had been distressingly unfortunate, and has sustained a number of

THE CAR WHEELS PASSED OVER IT

VERY SEVERE AFFLICTIONS.

About a year ago his son Joseph, a young man just past his majority, was found dead on the track of the Oregon Short Line, near Montpelier, Idaho. A gun was lying near the body. The back part of the head was blown off and pieces of the skull were found at quite a distance from where the body laid. The cause of his death has never been really, clearly and satisfactorily ascertained by the family. Since that time Mr. Pidcock's eldest son Jedediah has died. He suffered for a long time from a wound in one of his legs which was caused, I believe, from a tap from a hoe. After years of pain and anguish the

but he did not long survive the operation. He succumbed to the scythe of destroyer and was laid in the tomb at an early stage of his manhood. He left a child—a little boy—who is similarly afflicted, but from what cause I do not know definitely, unless it has descended to him from his father. To-day his son Ralph, as above narrated, for the remainder of his mortal career has lost the use of the left arm, and the result of the accident cannot at this time be predicted. Of course all hope for the best, and all that can be done will be to effect his recovery.

I very much regret to have to say that the lady, Miss Rutter, who, a few weeks since was burned through the explosion of a can of coal oil, is now in a very distressed condition. Her sufferings are fearful and the members of her body that were scorched are in a sad state. A great deal of proud flesh has appeared which renders her agony so acute as to be

ALMOST UNENDURABLE.

She receives every attention that can be given by the family of Mr. A. Greenwell, and many others who do all they can both day and night to relieve her anguish. Her poor stricken mother is nearly worn out with watching and hoping, but the critical situation in which her child is placed has almost discouraged her. I understand that to-morrow further medical assistance will be called in to aid the present attendant—Dr. H. J. Powers. How her afflictions will terminate is questionable.

WEBER.

Released. This morning Frederick A. Cooper, of West Jordan, was brought in from the penitentiary, where he has served a term on one of the indictments found against him for living with more wives than one, and was taken before Commissioner McKay, and a rigid examination by District Attorney Dickson showed that he was entirely without property, being bankrupt. The Commissioner took the matter under advisement until this afternoon, when Mr. Cooper was allowed to take the oath and was set at liberty.

Immediately afterward he was arrested on another indictment charging unlawful cohabitation. Commissioner McKay fixed the bail at $1,500, and Heber Bennion and Albert Uebel became sureties to that amount.

To Voters.—Duncan Noble, deputy registrar of the Fourth Precinct, will be at the Twentieth Ward school house, to register any persons whose names are not now upon the registry list, from 8 to 9 o'clock a. m., and from 3 to 5 o'clock p. m., daily during the week commencing Monday, the 13th of September. We have also secured the agency for the celebrated Vasaline Standard Wagon and Carriage Grease. This condensed and strictly Pure Petroleum Jelly possesses all the Lubricating, Softening, Preservative and healing properties of the other well known and familiar grades, differing from them only in melting point as it is many degrees higher.

For Carriage and Light Wagon Axles, the high melting point guarantees clean hubs in any climate and prevents waste from dripping by the action of heat, and will not travel like Castor or other liquid oils, thus preventing injury to the underside of the axle arm from dust or grit.

For all kinds of Agricultural Implements it is the most practical and satisfactory lubricant known.

For Leather and Enameled goods, it is softening and preservative, resisting the effects of rain, cold, or animal salts when applied upon a clean and dry surface.

For Sores, Burns, Scalds and Chapped Hands it is cooling and curative.

As a Hoof Ointment it has a widely established reputation.

For tick in sheep it is a perfect remedy destroying the grub without injuring the fleece.
