Catch Valley.—President Taylor and party returned from Logan to-day, all well. Elder E. J. Nuttall was severely indisposed on Saturday, but is better to-day.

An excellent spirit prevailed at the Quarterly Conference. At the meeting held on Saturday morning, after the reports of the Elders were received, Apostles F. M. Lyman and Erastus Snow addressed the congregation.

At 11 a. m. the party visited and inspected the Temple.

In the afternoon the Conference was addressed by Apostles John Henry Smith and Lorenzo Snow, and Elder C. W. Penrose.

On Sunday morning President Joseph F. Smith and Apostles F. D. Richards and Erastus Snow were the speakers.

At the afternoon session President John Taylor addressed the congregation.

Apostles F. M. Lyman and J. H. Smith, and Elder E. Dalton went to Millville, where services were held and a new meeting house dedicated.

The weather in Cache Valley is still intensely cold.

News from Pennsylvania.—Elder E. J. Nuttall wrote from Hyde Park, January 31st:

"I received a letter a short time ago from a gentleman by the name of A. W. Carver, Brindysburg, Granger County, Ohio. He desired me to mail him some of our papers, and was anxious to investigate our principles. I mailed him the News."

Should any of our missionaries visit that locality, which is in the vicinity of the city of Cleveland, I think it would be well for them to call on him. He is a stranger to me.

I suppose he is that Elder John H. Williams, of Coalville, has reported himself. He left for home a few weeks ago. We wish him all success in his mission.

His department was blameless, and is worthy the character of a "good and faithful servant." Elder Isaac was with him last. He was up and doing. The "Saints" throughout these coal regions are preparing to gather home in the spring.

Our priests, prelates and press keep on "talking of Utah." Their remedies for the extermination of "Mormonism" are varied. A prominent speaker at the anti-Mormon meeting at Pittsburgh a few days ago, recommended the following:

"Accidentally Killed.—The Southern Utah Times of Saturday has the following account of a fatal accident:

On Saturday, January 28, 1882, Wm. Oates, in company with R. J. Shaw, left for the Wah Wah mines, intending to take out iron on some of the latter's claims. On Monday morning they had made preparations to begin work.

Between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock Mr. Oates started down the shaft to see what the outlook was.

He was warned by Mr. Shaw to be careful, as the shaft was not true and the ladders were not joined continuously, but awkwardly joined to the cross sills so that in places the ladder above projected over the one below, rendering the descent to one unacquainted with the premises, extremely hazardous.

Mr. Oates had not descended more than 20 feet, when he fell to the bottom and was instantly killed.

The body of the unfortunate man was conveyed to Frisco for burial.

The Primaries.—The primaries of the People's party will be held at 7 o'clock to-night, at the following places:

1st Municipal Ward, comprising the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 8th, 9th and 10th wards, at the 9th Ward School House.

2nd Municipal Ward, comprising the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 14th and 15th wards, at the County Court House.

3rd Municipal Ward, comprising the 16th, 17th and 19th wards, at the 16th District School House.

4th Municipal Ward, comprising the 15th, 20th and 21st wards, at the 20th Ward School House.

5th Municipal Ward, comprising the 11th, 12th and 13th wards, at the City Hall.

The registered voters of the party should attend in force and elect their delegates to the Convention to be held on Wednesday evening.

Consented.—The coroner's jury empaneled at Fort Steele, to inquire into the cause of the death there mentioned by the News a few days ago—of Brakeman Seelye, by accident, passed sentence upon three persons in their verdict:

"Train Dispatcher McMaister, for not giving more specific orders; Conductor Hobart, for not flagging the pay train; and Engineer Rose, for running the train at a rate of speed which rendered it impossible for him to control his train."

Railroad men are passing much adverse criticism upon the verdict. They assert that it is not sustained or justified by the facts.

Window Glass.—A friend has suggested that it would be a good thing for the Legislature to consider the advisability of offering a premium for the first window glass manufactured in Utah—say for instance, the first 20 boxes. It has often been stated that the materials are indigenous to Utah and exist here in abundance. The offer of a premium might have the effect to stimulate somebody to establish this important industry, which would be of inestimable benefit to the community. If nobody should be induced by the offer of a premium, no harm would be done anyway, and there is a chance for the production of good.

Grand Jury.—In the Third District Court, this morning, the following were empaneled a grand jury for the February term: Charles M. Sicker, John A. Hughes, Wm. McKee, Danl. H. Crosby, Thos. W. Jennings, H. M. Miller, James Fitzgerald, Valorum Russell, C. D. Erinton, Geo. T. Luff, A. J. Stanchfield, John P. Meakin, Chester H. Withey, Roswell Hutchins, C. L. Hanaman.

Legislature.—In the Council, this afternoon, a petition was presented from 269 citizens of Davis County, asking that the revenue law be amended so that six mills be assessed for district schools. Another petition was offered, from citizens of Leeds and Harrisburg, asking for $5,000 to repair the old road crossing Black Ridge and for making a new road to Silver Reef. The report of the Chancellors of the University was read and 500 copies ordered printed.

A Pitiful Plight.—Jens Nielsen arrived this morning from Ephraim, Sanpete County, with a boy named Chris Alfis (a Norwegian) who has got both feet frozen very badly. He was lost in the mountains between Spring City and Ephraim. He had lain in a log cabin four or five days, until a fire he had made to keep himself alive set fire to the place, when he crawled out just before one side fell in, and proceeded about a mile upon a trail, when Jens Nielsen, who was out after firewood, discovered him. He has been taken to Dr. Hovey's.

Sunday School Re-Union.—There was a very successful Sunday School Re-Union last evening in the 17th Ward meeting house, composed of reviews of class exercises. Every class called upon performed their pieces in a most creditable manner. The recitations were all rendered proficiently, being creditable to the students and their teachers. The singing by the little ones was simply grand. The duet by Misses Minnie and Elta Felt, George Felt and H. Tingey was apparently perfect, and was listened to with great pleasure.

Home Dramatic Club.—Some people are desirous to know why the Home Dramatic Club do not play oftener than they do. We understand the chief reason to be the recent loss of a prominent member of the club, and the very late partial loss of another, who has intimated that he will probably not appear on the boards more than "once in a while," if at all, in future, preferring comparative seclusion to appearing in a public capacity. These circumstances have somewhat crippled the club, but they will probably take early steps to make up for the deficiency, and again give to the public some more of their able and artistic performances.

A Beaver "Crank."—Beaver has a crank named Gilles. He recently got the idea into his head that he must kill five of his children to save Guitau from the gallows. His eldest sons undertook to watch him day and night. The children says: One of the night watchers grew weary, as daylight approached, and fell asleep in his chair. The lunatic cunningly saw his opportunity, seized a chair from under one of the boys and dealt two of them such a blow on either of their heads as to cut their scalps in a fearful manner, demolishing the chair with which the attack was made. The smashing of the chair was very fortunate, for if it had held together so as to be an effective weapon, we might be under the sad necessity of recording a fatal termination of the affair."
